PRACTICE DIRECTION NO 6 OF 2003

PRINTING OF ADVOCATES' NAMES

I am directed by the Bailiff to issue the following direction:-

Whenever an Advocate's signature appears on a document filed or registered with the Court, the name of the Advocate must be printed below the signature. It may be typewritten, written in block capitals or printed by rubber stamp.

This has become necessary due to the size of the Bar and the difficulty of identifying signatures.
