PART II

Conditions which must be complied with

1. A packet for transmission by registered post shall:-
 - (a) be handed for registration to an officer of the States Post Office on duty at a post office; or
 - (b) be handed for registration to some officer of the States Post Office authorised to receive packets for registration though not on duty at a post office, and any registered postal packet which has been transmitted to its original address, and which is redirected in pursuance of section twenty-two of this Order, shall also be handed to such an officer as aforesaid.

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the fee chargeable for the registration of the packet, and any other sum chargeable thereon, shall be prepaid.

(2) On the posting of the packet the person handing over the packet shall obtain a certificate bearing thereon an acknowledgement that the registration fee has been paid.

(3) Where a registered postal packet which has been transmitted to its original address is redirected, sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply, and if the person tendering the packet for registration does not prepay any sum chargeable on that packet, a certificate of posting stating that the said sum has not been paid shall be obtained.

3. (1) A packet for transmission by registered post shall be made up in a reasonably strong cover appropriate to its contents.

(2) Except in the case of a packet consisting of articles for the use of the blind, or a current registered newspaper:-

- (a) the packet shall be fastened with wax, gum or other adhesive substance, or where suitable, securely tied with string which is sealed with wax or which is secured at each end by means of a lead, steel or strong metal seal crushed with a press;
- (b) where the packet is fastened by means of strips of adhesive paper or tape each strip shall have printed, stamped or written on it the trade mark, name or initials of the sender or the name or initials of the person who tenders the packet for transmission;
- (c) where the packet is fastened by means of strips of adhesive tape, the tape shall (except as the Board may otherwise permit) be transparent and uncoloured;
- (d) the packet shall be so made up that no part of the contents can be removed without either breaking or tearing the case, wrapper or cover or forcing two adhesive surfaces apart or breaking a seal.

(3) Any article contained in the packet shall be adequately packed as a protection against damage in course of transmission. In particular:-

- (a) an article which is of a fragile nature shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength and shall be surrounded in that container with sufficient and suitable material to protect the article against the effects of concussion, pressure and knocks to which postal packets are ordinarily exposed in transmission, and the packet shall bear the words "FRAGILE WITH CARE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;
- (b) an article which is liable to be damaged by bending shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength to prevent the article from being bent in transmission, and the words "DO NOT BEND" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address.

(4) If the packet contains coin, the coin shall be packed in such a way that it cannot move about and coin of total value in excess of five pounds shall not be enclosed in any one postal packet except where the value of each coin exceeds its face-value.

(5) The following articles, if tendered for transmission by registered post, shall (except as the Board may otherwise permit) be enclosed in one of the registered letter envelopes sold by the States Post Office Board and be tendered for transmission by registered letter post:-

- (a) any uncrossed postal order in which the name of the payee has not been inserted;
- (b) any cheque or dividend warrant which is uncrossed and payable to bearer;
- (c) any bearer security (including a share warrant, scrip or subscription certificate, bond or relative coupon);
- (d) any bank note or currency note, being current in the Bailiwick or elsewhere;
- (e) any unobliterated postage or revenue stamp available for current use in the Bailiwick or elsewhere (except a revenue stamp embossed or impressed on an instrument which has been executed);
- (f) any National Savings stamp;
- (g) any coupon, voucher, token, card, stamp or similar document, exchangeable (singly or with any other such document) for money, goods or services;
- (h) coin.

(6) The address of the person to whom the packet is to be transmitted shall be written fully and correctly on the cover or on a label securely affixed to such cover by gum or other adhesive substance.

4. No packet for transmission by registered post shall contain any article or thing which by or under any enactment or the provisions of this Order it is unlawful to send by post.

5. Where a registered postal packet has been delivered and it is alleged that loss or abstraction of or damage to the contents or any of the contents of the packet occurred whilst it was in course of transmission by post, the following things shall be produced on demand for the Board's inspection, in the condition as nearly as possible in which they were when the packet was delivered:-

- (a) where loss or abstraction is alleged, the cover of the packet;
- (b) where damage is alleged, the cover of the packet, the damaged article, its packing material, and any container in which the damaged article was enclosed.
