2001 - 10000	15.00	15.45	16.35

PART II

Conditions which must be complied with

1. A packet for transmission by Special Delivery shall:-

- (a) be handed for special delivery to an officer of the States Post Office on duty at a post office; or
- (b) be handed for special delivery to some officer of the States Post Office authorised to receive packets for special delivery though not on duty at a post office, and any Special Delivery packet which has been transmitted to its original address, and which is redirected in pursuance of section twenty-two of this Order, shall also be handed to such an officer as aforesaid.

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the fee chargeable for the special delivery of the packet, and any other sum chargeable thereon, shall be prepaid.

(2) On the posting of the packet the person handing over the packet shall obtain a certificate bearing thereon an acknowledgement that the special delivery fee has been paid.

(3) Where a special delivery postal packet which has been transmitted to its original address is redirected, sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply, and if the person tendering the packet for special delivery does not prepay any sum chargeable on that packet, a certificate of posting stating that the said sum has not been paid shall be obtained.

3. (1) A packet for transmission by special delivery shall be made up in a reasonably strong cover appropriate to its contents.

(2) Except in the case of a packet consisting of articles for the use of the blind, or a current registered newspaper:-

- (a) the packet shall be fastened with wax, gum or other adhesive substance, or where suitable, securely tied with string which is sealed with wax or which is secured at each end by means of a lead, steel or strong metal seal crushed with a press;
- (b) where the packet is fastened by means of strips of adhesive paper or tape each strip shall have printed, stamped or written on it the trade mark, name or initials of the sender or the name or initials of the person who tenders the packet for transmission;
- (c) where the packet is fastened by means of strips of adhesive tape, the tape shall (except as the Board may otherwise permit) be transparent and uncoloured;
- (d) the packet shall be so made up that no part of the contents can be removed without either breaking or tearing the case, wrapper or cover or forcing two adhesive surfaces apart or breaking a seal.

(3) Any article contained in the packet shall be adequately packed as a protection against damage in course of transmission. In particular:-

- (a) an article which is of a fragile nature shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength and shall be surrounded in that container with sufficient and suitable material to protect the article against the effects of concussion, pressure and knocks to which postal packets are ordinarily exposed in transmission, and the packet shall bear the words "FRAGILE WITH CARE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;
- (b) an article which is liable to be damaged by bending shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength to prevent the article from being bent in transmission, and the words "DO NOT BEND" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address.

(4) If the packet contains coin, the coin shall be packed in such a way that it cannot move about and coin of total value in excess of five pounds shall not be enclosed in any one postal packet except where the value of each coin exceeds its face-value.

(5) The following articles, if tendered for transmission by special delivery post, shall (except as the Board may otherwise permit) be enclosed in one of the special delivery envelopes sold by the States Post Office Board and be tendered for transmission by special delivery letter post:-

- (a) any uncrossed postal order in which the name of the payee has not been inserted;
- (b) any cheque or dividend warrant which is uncrossed and payable to bearer;
- (c) any bearer security (including a share warrant, scrip or subscription certificate, bond or relative coupon);
- (d) any bank note or currency note, being current in the Bailiwick or elsewhere;
- (e) any unobliterated postage or revenue stamp available for current use in the Bailiwick or elsewhere (except a revenue stamp embossed or impressed on an instrument which has been executed);
- (f) any National Savings stamp;
- (g) any coupon, voucher, token, card, stamp or similar document, exchangeable (singly or with any other such document) for money, goods or services;
- (h) coin.

(6) The address of the person to whom the packet is to be transmitted shall be written fully and correctly on the cover or on a label securely affixed to such cover by gum or other adhesive substance.

4. No packet for transmission by special delivery shall contain any article or thing which by or under any enactment or the provisions of this Order it is unlawful to send by post.

5. Where a special delivery postal packet has been delivered and it is alleged that loss or abstraction of or damage to the contents or any of the contents of the packet occurred whilst it was in course of transmission by post, the following things shall be produced on demand for the Board's inspection, in the condition as nearly as possible in which they were when the packet was delivered:-

- (a) where loss or abstraction is alleged, the cover of the packet;
- (b) where damage is alleged, the cover of the packet, the damaged article, its packing material, and any container in which the damaged article was enclosed.

PART II

Articles for loss of, or damage to, which no compensation may be paid:

- (a) any uncrossed postal order in which the name of the payee has not been inserted;
- (b) any cheque or dividend warrant which is uncrossed and payable to the bearer;
- (c) any bearer security (including a share warrant, scrip or subscription certificate, bond or relative coupon);
- (d) any bank note or currency note, being current in the Bailiwick or elsewhere;
- (e) any unobliterated postage or revenue stamp available for current use in the Bailiwick or elsewhere (except a revenue stamp embossed or impressed on an instrument which has been executed);
- (f) any National Savings stamp;
- (g) any coupon, voucher, token, card, stamp or similar document, exchangeable (singly or with any other such document) for money, goods or services;
- (h) coin.

PART III

Conditions which must be complied with

1. The sender of the parcel shall write on the prescribed form the name of the addressee and the address thereof, and on the posting of the parcel the person handing over the parcel shall obtain on that form a certificate of posting on which the amount of the compensation fee paid in accordance with subsection (2) of section thirty-two of the Order, or the amount of the compensation fee charged to the sender, is specified.

2. The parcel shall be made up in a reasonably strong cover appropriate to its contents and shall be securely tied, stitched, sealed or otherwise securely fastened.

3. Any article contained in the parcel shall be adequately packed as a protection against damage in course of transmission, in particular:-

(a) an article which is of a fragile nature shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength and shall be surrounded in that container with sufficient and suitable material to protect the article against the effects of concussion, pressure and knocks to which postal packets are ordinarily exposed in transmission, and the parcel shall bear the words "FRAGILE WITH CARE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;

(b) an article which is liable to be damaged by bending shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength to prevent the article from being bent in transmission, and the parcel shall bear the words "DO NOT BEND" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;

(c) a parcel containing any perishable article shall bear the words "PERISHABLE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address.

The address of the person to whom the parcel is to be transmitted shall be written fully and correctly on the cover thereof or on a label securely affixed or tied thereto.

5. There shall not appear on the cover of the parcel or on any label affixed or tied thereto any word, phrase or mark indicating or conveying the impression that the parcel is, or is intended to be, registered, or that a compensation fee has been, or is intended to be, paid.

6. The parcel shall not contain anything the posting of which in a postal packet is prohibited by or under any enactment or this Order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Order amends the Post Office (Inland Post) Order, 1993:

- (i) by amending the rates of postage for parcels within the Bailiwick and to the United Kingdom;
- (ii) by amending the rates for several miscellaneous services.
