EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Regulation one of these regulations amends regulation twelve of the principal regulations so as to enable a person to be excused liability for the payment of a contribution and to be entitled to the award of a credit in certain cases where he has been engaged in employment for some days in a week and the earnings derived therefrom do not exceed the current lower weekly earnings limit and the remaining days in the week are days of unemployment.

Regulation two repeals paragraphs (1), (1A) and (1B) of regulation fifty-eight of the principal regulations which specifies the lower weekly earnings limit and the lower monthly earnings limit relevant to each contribution year and provides for those earnings limits as respects each contribution year to be the amounts specified in the Seventh Schedule to the principal regulations.
