
GUERNSEY STATUTORY INSTRUMENT

1978 - No. 26

The Social Insurance (General Benefit)(Guernsey) Regulations, 1978

Made 4th December, 1978
Laid before the States
Coming into operation 1st January, 1979

THE STATES INSURANCE AUTHORITY, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section twenty, section sixty, section sixty-two, section sixty-five, section sixty-seven, section sixty-eight, section sixty-nine, and section seventy-two of the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1978, and by Part II of the Fourth Schedule to that Law, and in exercise of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby orders:-

Interpretation

1.(1) In these regulations, except where the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:-

"appointed day" means the first day of January, nineteen hundred and seventy-nine;

"the determining authority" means, as the case may require, the Administrator or the Tribunal;

"the Law" means the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1978;

and any other expressions have the same meanings as in the Law.

(2) Except where the context otherwise requires, any reference in these regulations to any enactment or regulations shall be construed as including a reference to that enactment or those regulations, as the case may be, as amended, repealed, replaced or revoked by or under any other enactment or by any other regulations.

(3) The Interpretation (Guernsey) Law, 1948, shall apply to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of a Guernsey enactment.

Calculation of yearly average of reckonable contributions

2. For the purposes of subsection (4) of section twenty of the Law the yearly average of reckonable contributions paid by or credited to any person in relation to widow's benefit, an old age pension, a child's special allowance or death grant shall be calculated by dividing, by the number of years comprised in the period over which, under the said subsection, the average is to be calculated, the sum total of the reckonable contributions paid by or credited to that person in respect of that period other than reckonable contributions derived from the following contributions:-

- (a) contributions which are not paid on their due dates and are not treated in accordance with regulations under the Law as so paid for the purposes of widow's benefit, old age pension, child's special allowance or death grant;
- (b) contributions credited under the Law only for purposes other than for the purposes of widow's benefit, old age pension, child's special allowance or death grant.

Increase of benefit for wife

3. For the purposes of an increase of unemployment benefit, sickness benefit, invalidity benefit or industrial injury benefit under section sixty of the Law, or of an increase of an old age pension under section sixty-one of the Law, two spouses shall not be deemed to have ceased to reside together by reason of any absence of either or both of them while receiving medical or other treatment as an in-patient in a hospital or similar institution, notwithstanding that such absence is not temporary.

Increase of benefit for female person having care of child

4. For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of section sixty and subsection (1) of section sixty-two of the Law, the following further conditions shall apply:-

- (a) a beneficiary shall not be entitled to an increase of benefit of any description under the said paragraph (c) or the said subsection (1) in respect of any female person unless -
- (i) she is residing with the beneficiary; or
 - (ii) she is employed by the beneficiary in an employment from which her weekly earnings (calculated or estimated in such manner and on such basis as may be decided by the determining authority to be appropriate, having regard to all the circumstances of the case) are not less than the amount for the time being determined by the States by Ordinance under subsection (3) of section sixty or section sixty-one of the Law in relation to benefit of that description, and was so employed by him before he became unemployed or incapable of work or entitled to an old age pension, as the case may be, subject to the qualification that the condition of employment before that event shall not apply in a case where the necessity for her employment first arose thereafter; or
 - (iii) the beneficiary is contributing to her maintenance at a weekly rate of not less than the amount for the time being determined by the States by Ordinance as aforesaid in relation to benefit of that description;

- (b) a beneficiary shall not be entitled to an increase of benefit under paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of section sixty or section sixty-two of the Law in respect of any female person for any period during which that female person -
- (i) is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody; or
 - (ii) is absent from Guernsey, except in the case of sickness benefit, invalidity benefit, industrial injury benefit and old age pension for any period during which she is residing with the beneficiary outside Guernsey and for which, by virtue of the provisions of the Social Insurance (Residence and Persons Abroad) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1978, the beneficiary is not disqualified for receiving that benefit; and
- (c) a beneficiary shall not be entitled to an increase of benefit under paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of section sixty or section sixty-two of the Law in respect of any such female person unless the beneficiary is entitled to an increase of benefit in respect of a child of his family as specified in the said paragraph (c) and section sixty-two, or would be so entitled but for the provisions of any regulations for the time being in force under the Law relating to overlapping benefits.

Provisions as to maintenance

5.(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this regulation, for the purposes of the provisions of Part IV of the Law a beneficiary shall not be deemed to be wholly or mainly maintaining another person unless the beneficiary -

- (a) when unemployed, or incapable of work, or, as the case may be, entitled to an old age pension, contributes towards the maintenance of that person an amount not less than the amount of the increase of benefit received in respect of that person; and
- (b) when in employment, or not incapable of work, or, as the case may be, not so entitled (except in a case where the dependency did not arise until after that time) contributed more than one half of the actual cost of maintenance of that person;

(2) Where -

- (i) a person is partly maintained by each of two or more other persons (being persons entitled to benefit under the Law), each of whom would be entitled to an increase of benefit under the Law in respect of that person if he were wholly or mainly maintaining that person; and
- (ii) the contributions made by those other persons towards the maintenance of that person amount in the aggregate to sums which would, if they had been contributed by one of them, be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of this regulation;

that person shall be deemed to be wholly or mainly maintained by that one of the said other persons who makes the largest contribution or, if there is no such person, by the elder or eldest of the said other persons, or (if a majority thereof by notice in writing signed by them and addressed to the Authority designate any one of their number) by that one designated so long as the person deemed to be so maintaining that person continues to be entitled to benefit under the Law and to satisfy the condition contained in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) of this regulation.

(3) A notice and the designation contained therein given under the last foregoing paragraph may be revoked at any time by a fresh notice signed by a majority of such persons, and another one of their number may be designated therein, and accordingly the provisions of that paragraph shall apply to the one so last designated.

Contribution to maintenance of adult dependant

6. For the purposes of the provisions of subsection (1) of section sixty and section sixty-one of the Law or of sub-paragraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of regulation four of these regulations -

- (a) in relation to benefit of any description, a beneficiary shall not be deemed to satisfy the requirement contained in any of those provisions that he is contributing to the maintenance of the wife or female person, as the case may be, at a weekly rate of not less than the amount for the time being determined by the States by Ordinance under subsection (3) of the said section sixty or the said section sixty-one in relation to benefit of that description, unless when in employment, or not incapable of work, or not entitled to an old age pension, as the case may be (except in a case where the dependency did not arise until after that time) he contributed to her maintenance at a weekly rate of not less than that amount; and

- (b) in a case where an increase of benefit of any description is, apart from the said requirement, payable at a weekly rate less than the amount determined as aforesaid in relation to benefit of that description a beneficiary shall, subject to paragraph (a) of this regulation, be deemed to satisfy the said requirement, if he is contributing to the maintenance of the wife or female person as the case may be, at a weekly rate of not less than that of the increase.

Exceptions from disqualification for imprisonment, etc.

7.(1) The following provisions of this regulation shall have effect to except benefit from the operation of those provisions of subsection (1) of section sixty-seven of the Law which provide that (except where regulations otherwise provide) a person shall be disqualified for receiving any benefit, and an increase of benefit shall not be payable in respect of any person as the beneficiary's wife or husband for any period during which that person is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody (hereafter in this regulation referred to as "the said provisions").

(2) The said provisions shall not operate to disqualify a person for receiving a guardian's allowance.

(3) The said provisions shall not operate to disqualify a person for receiving industrial medical benefit, sickness benefit, invalidity benefit, industrial injury benefit, industrial disablement benefit, maternity allowance, widow's benefit, old age pension or child's special allowance or to make an increase of benefit not payable in respect of a person, for any period during which that person is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody in connection with a charge brought or intended to be brought against him in criminal proceedings or pursuant to any sentence or order for detention made by a court in such proceedings unless, in relation to him, a penalty is imposed at the conclusion of those proceedings.

Suspension of payment of benefit during imprisonment, etc.

8.(1) The payment to any person of any benefit -

- (a) which is excepted from the operation of sub-section (1) of section sixty-seven of the Law by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of the last foregoing regulation; or
- (b) which is payable otherwise than in respect of a period during which he is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody;

shall be suspended while that person is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody:

Provided that a guardian's allowance or any benefit to which sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph applies may nevertheless be paid while the beneficiary is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody to any person appointed for the purpose by or on behalf of the Authority to receive and deal with any sums payable on behalf of the beneficiary on account of that benefit, and the receipt of any person so appointed shall be a good discharge to the Authority for any sum so paid.

(2) Where, by virtue of paragraph (1) of this regulation, payment of benefit is suspended for any period, the period of suspension shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of twelve months referred to in paragraph (1) of regulation eleven of the Social Insurance (Claims and Payments) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1978, for the purpose of the application of that regulation in relation to that benefit.

Interim payments, arrears and repayments

9.(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, benefit shall be payable in accordance with an award, notwithstanding that an appeal against the award is pending, and, subject as aforesaid and to the provisions of regulation fifteen of the Social Insurance (Determination of Claims and Questions)(Guernsey) Regulations, 1978, shall be treated as having been duly paid and shall not be recoverable under the provisions of the Law or otherwise.

(2) Where an appeal to the Ordinary Court from an award of the Tribunal is made within twenty-one days of the date on which an award was given, payment of the benefit (or that part of the benefit) to which the appeal relates shall, in the case of any of the following benefits, be suspended until the appeal has been determined:--

- (a) unemployment benefit, if the ground of the appeal is that the claimant ought to be disqualified for receiving benefit by reason of the provisions of subsection (1) of section twenty-five of the Law; and
- (b) maternity benefit, widow's benefit, child's special allowance, a guardian's allowance, an old age pension, or a death grant.

(3) Where it appears to the Authority that a question has arisen whether -

- (a) the conditions for the receipt of benefit payable under an award are or were fulfilled; or
- (b) an award of benefit ought to be revised in accordance with the Social Insurance (Determination of Claims and Questions)(Guernsey) Regulations, 1978;

it may direct that payment of the benefit shall be suspended in whole or in part until that question has been determined:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply in any case where the question which has arisen is whether the claimant has ceased to be entitled to receive unemployment benefit by reason of any of the provisions of paragraphs (b) to (e) of subsection (1) of section twenty-six of the Law.

(4) Where two or more claims are made for unemployment benefit by an insured person in respect of different periods in the same period of interruption of employment, and (at the date when a claim in respect of any such first mentioned period is determined, or the decision in respect thereof is revised, in favour of that person by the determining authority) unemployment benefit has been received by him in respect of any days in the said period of interruption of employment subsequent to the days to which that determination or the said revised decision relates, then, if it is shown that by reason of subsection (1) of section twenty-four of the Law unemployment benefit would be overpaid if the benefit payable under the said determination or the said revised decision were paid, the following provisions shall apply:-

- (a) any such benefit so subsequently paid which on the foregoing basis would have been overpaid shall be treated as having been paid on account of the benefit payable under the said determination or the said revised decision, and the amount due under that determination or decision shall be reduced accordingly; and
- (b) for the purposes of requalification for unemployment benefit under subsection (3) of the said section twenty-four, the last day for which the insured person was entitled to any such benefit shall be taken to be the day on which, having regard to the said determination or the said revised decision and the provisions of this regulation, his right to the benefit is exhausted under that section.

(5) Where on appeal or review a decision is reversed or varied or revised and by reason thereof, any sum on account of unemployment benefit is shown to have been paid to any person for days for which he was not entitled thereto, then, in determining for the purposes of the said section twenty-four whether that person has exhausted his right to unemployment benefit and what is the last day for which he was entitled thereto, any days for which any such sum has been so paid in pursuance of the original decision shall be treated as if they were days for which that person was entitled to that benefit notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) of paragraph (1) of regulation six of the Social Insurance (Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1978:

Provided that -

- (a) if any sum was so paid to such a person and that sum or any part thereof is recovered, then there shall be excluded for the purposes of the said determination under the said section twenty-four a number of days (to the nearest whole number) equal to the number to be obtained by dividing the amount recovered by the daily rate at which the benefit was paid; and
- (b) for the purposes of requalification for unemployment benefit under subsection (3) of the said section twenty-four, the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) of the last foregoing paragraph shall apply.

(6) Where -

- (a) on appeal against an award of benefit, a decision is reversed or varied, so that such benefit is not payable or is payable at a less rate; and
- (b) on review, the decision on that appeal is revised so as to make such benefit payable, or payable at a higher rate, from a date before the decision on appeal;

any benefit paid in pursuance of the award before the decision on appeal shall, to the extent to which it would not have been payable if the decision on appeal had been given in the first instance, be treated as having been paid on account of any benefit made payable for the same period by the decision on review, except in so far as it has, in pursuance of the decision on appeal, been repaid or treated as paid on account of the benefit awarded by that decision.

(7) Where, in accordance with a decision given on a review or appeal, any benefit is required to be repaid to the Guernsey Insurance Fund, then, without prejudice to any other method of recovery, such benefit shall be recoverable by deduction from any benefit then or thereafter payable to the person by whom it is to be repaid or any persons entitled to receive his benefit on his death.

Disqualifications to be disregarded for certain purposes

10.(1) Where a person of any class mentioned in the first column of the Schedule to these regulations would be entitled to the benefit set opposite to that class in the second column of that Schedule but for the operation of any provision of the Law disqualifying him for the receipt of that benefit, that person shall be treated as if entitled to that benefit for the purpose of the provisions of the Law set opposite thereto in the third column of the said Schedule and of any regulations made thereunder:

Provided that a person shall not be so treated for the purpose of the provisions of subsection (4) of section fifty-eight of the Law if that person is disqualified for receiving such increase by reason of the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section sixty-seven of the Law.

(2) In determining whether the condition contained in subsection (1) of section sixty-three of the Law is satisfied, a person who would be entitled to any benefit but for the operation of any provision of the Law disqualifying him for the receipt thereof, and who ceases to be so disqualified within a period of three months from the commencement of the disqualification, shall be treated as if entitled thereto.

Repeals

11. The Social Insurance (General Benefit)(Guernsey) Regulations, 1964, the Social Insurance (General Benefit)(Amendment)(Guernsey) Regulations, 1971, and the Social Insurance (General Benefit)(Amendment)(Guernsey) Regulations, 1973, are hereby repealed.

Transitional provisions

12. Where payment of any benefit was, immediately before the appointed day, suspended by virtue of the Social Insurance (General Benefit)(Guernsey) Regulations, 1964, such suspension shall continue to have effect on and after that day as if the said regulations had not been repealed.

Citation

13. These regulations may be cited as the Social Insurance (General Benefit)(Guernsey) Regulations, 1978.

Commencement

14. These regulations shall come into force on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and seventy-nine.

Dated this fourth day of December , nineteen hundred and seventy-eight.
