EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Regulation 36 is amended to enable persons of all ages more easily to qualify for maternity, sickness or unemployment benefit after a period of full-time education, assistance which was previously only available when the education had commenced before age 20.

Regulation 55 is amended to prevent an undue increase in the lower earnings limit, which would have had the effect of barring low-paid workers from access to contributory benefits.
