The Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2008

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 26th November, 2008^a, and in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 46 of the Banking Supervision (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1994^b, and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby order:-

The Scheme

Establishment of the Guernsey Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme.

1. (1) The Guernsey Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme ("the Scheme") is hereby established.

(2) The Scheme shall be administered by the Guernsey Banking Deposit Compensation Board ("the Board").

NOTE

In accordance with the provisions of the Charities etc. (Guernsey and Alderney) Ordinance, 2021, section 52(3), Schedule 8, paragraph 4(1)(c) and paragraph 4(2)(i), with effect from 29th April, 2022, for any reference in this enactment, however expressed, to an organisation that is a charity or other non profit organisation, there is substituted a reference to an organisation that is a non profit organisation.

a Billet d'État No. XVIII of 2008.

b No. XIII of 1994; amended by Nos. XVII and XXI of 2002; No. XVI of 2003; No. XVI of 2008 (the Banking Supervision (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2008). Also amended by Ordinance No. XXXIII of 2003; and Guernsey Statutory Instrument No.1 of 2008.

Participants in the Scheme.

2. (1) A person who holds a banking licence ("a participant") shall participate in the Scheme.

(2) A participant may only withdraw from the Scheme where –

(a) its banking licence has been revoked under section 8 of the Law, or it has surrendered its banking licence under section 11 thereof, and

(b) it has given the Board at least 6 months' written notice.

(3) A former participant shall be deemed to be a participant in respect of a default which occurred while it was a participant.

The Board

The Guernsey Banking Deposit Compensation Board.

3. (1) [The Committee] shall appoint the Board.

(2) Pending the appointment of the Board, its functions under this Ordinance shall be carried out by [the Committee].

(3) The Board shall consist of the following members –

(a) a Chairman, and

(b) up to 4 ordinary members.

[(3A) For the avoidance of doubt, the appointment of a member of the Board under this section may be made on such terms as to remuneration, expenses, pensions, retirement and other conditions of service as the Board thinks fit.]

(4) The appointment of a member of the Board under this section shall be laid before a meeting of the States as soon as possible and shall, if at that or the next meeting the States resolve to annul it, cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything done by the Board or by that member during his appointment.

(5) A member of the Board –

(a) shall[, subject to the provisions of this subsection and to the terms and conditions of that member's appointment,] hold office for a term not exceeding 5 years,

(b) is eligible for reappointment if he has not been dismissed,

(c) may[, subject to the provisions of this subsection and to the terms and conditions of that member's appointment as to resignation (and in particular any notice period),] resign by notice in writing to [the Committee] at any time, and

(d) may be dismissed by [the Committee] if –

(i) he is under a legal disability,

(ii) he is bankrupt or has made an arrangement or compromise with his creditors,

(iii) he is convicted of an indictable offence,

(iv) he is disqualified from acting as a director under Part XXV of the Companies Law, or

(v) he is otherwise unable or unfit to continue.

(6) The names of the members of the Board and any resignation, dismissal and appointment of a member of the Board shall be published.

[(7) The Board shall act with a quorum of 2 members, one of whom must be –

(a) the Chairman, or

(b) the Deputy Chairman, who shall be a member of the Board nominated by the Chairman to act as the Deputy Chairman either generally or for the purpose of a specified meeting or meetings (and if the Chairman has made no such appointment and is absent or indisposed then the Deputy Chairman may be appointed for the purposes of a particular meeting by a resolution of that meeting).]

(8) The Chairman has an original vote and also, where there is an equality of votes, a casting vote.

(9) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), [the Committee] may prescribe the procedures of the Board, which may include the procedures by which the members of the Board may appoint alternates.

(10) For the avoidance of doubt, if a member of the Board is, by any means, in communication with one or more other members so that each member participating in the communication can hear or read what is said or communicated by each of the others, each member so participating is deemed to be present at a meeting with the other members so participating.

(11) No vacancy in the membership of the Board or irregularity in the appointment of any member shall invalidate its proceedings.

NOTES

In section 3,

the words "T/the Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st May, 2016;

first, subsection (3A) was substituted, second, the words in square brackets in subsection (5)(a) and, third, the words in the first pair of square brackets in subsection (5)(c) were inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2020, respectively section 1(a), section 1(b) and section 1(c), with effect from 21st May, 2020;

subsection (7) was substituted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1(b), with effect from 24th September, 2014.

Status and powers of the Board.

4. (1) The Board –

- (a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession, and
- (b) may sue and be sued in its name.

(2) The Board may exercise all the powers that a company registered in Guernsey with unlimited objects may exercise for the purpose of carrying out its functions and, without limitation, may exercise the powers set out in Schedule 1.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), the Board may insure all, or any part of, the risk of the payment of compensation pursuant to the Scheme in such manner as the Board considers appropriate.

Confidentiality and disclosure of information.

5. (1) A [member of, employee, servant or agent of the Board] shall not disclose or cause or permit the disclosure of any document or information which relates to the business or affairs of any person and which is acquired by him in the course of carrying out his functions as a [member of, or for or on behalf of, the Board], except –

- (a) with the consent of the person to whom the document or information relates and (if different) the person from whom it was acquired,
- (b) where at the time of disclosure, the document or information is or has already been made available to the public from other sources or information in the form of a summary or collection of information so framed as not to enable information relating to any particular person to be ascertained from it, [...]
- (c) to the extent that the disclosure is necessary –
 - (i) to enable him to perform his functions as a [member of, or for or on behalf of, the Board],
 - (ii) for the purposes of the investigation, prevention or detection of crime or with a view to the instigation of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any criminal, regulatory or disciplinary proceedings, whether in the Bailiwick or elsewhere, or

(iii) to comply with an [order of court, or]

[(d) where the disclosure is made to the Commission.]

(2) Where any document or information is disclosed to any person under [subsection (1)(a), (c)(i), (c)(ii) or (d)], that person shall not disclose it or cause or permit its disclosure to a third party without the consent of the Board.

(3) A person who discloses or causes or permits the disclosure of any document or information in contravention of subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence and liable –

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine, or to both, or
- (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months, or to a fine of up to level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both.

NOTES

In section 5,

the words in the first and second pairs of square brackets were substituted, the word omitted in the third pair of square brackets was repealed, the words in the fourth and fifth pairs of square brackets were substituted and paragraph (d) of subsection (1) was inserted by the Banking

Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (c)(i), paragraph (c)(ii), paragraph (c)(iii), paragraph (c)(iv), paragraph (c)(v) and paragraph (c)(vi), with effect from 24th September, 2014;

The funds

Establishment of funds.

6. (1) The Board shall establish –
- (a) an administration fund ("the administration fund"), and
 - (b) where a declaration of default is made under section 9(1) ("a declaration of default"), a compensation fund in respect of that default ("a compensation fund"), which shall together be known as "the funds".

(2) The Board shall hold, manage and apply the funds in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(3) The Board may transfer money between the funds as it thinks fit for the purpose of the Scheme in accordance with sections 7 and 8.

The administration fund.

7. (1) The Board shall pay into the administration fund –
- (a) the annual fees paid under section 16,

- (b) any levy imposed on participants under section 17 ("an insurance levy"),
 - (c) any money borrowed by the Board for the purposes of administering the Scheme,
 - (d) any money which would be paid into a compensation fund under section 8 but for the fact that such a fund has not been established,
 - (e) where any money is invested, any income from such investments, and
 - (f) any other money received by the Board for the purposes of the Scheme, not being money required to be paid into a compensation fund.
- (2) The Board shall pay out of the administration fund –
- [(a) the costs, fees or expenses incurred by the Board in or in connection with performing its functions under the Ordinance, including the expenses of the members of the Board [and any negative interest charge in respect of monies held in the administration fund],]
 - (b) any money required for the repayment of (or interest on or charges in connection with) any money borrowed for the purposes of the Scheme,
 - (c) any money for the purpose of investment,

- (d) any insurance premium or other costs of an insurance arrangement established under section 4(3), and
- (e) any money described in subsection (1)(d) for the purpose of being paid into a compensation fund.

NOTES

the words in square brackets within paragraph (a) of subsection (2) were inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2020, section 1(d), with effect from 21st May, 2020.

Compensation funds.

8. (1) The Board shall pay into a compensation fund established on a declaration of default of a participant –

- (a) any levy imposed on participants under section 18 in respect of that default ("a compensation levy"),
- [(ab) where the Board has recovered any amount as described in section 14(4)(b) or (5)(b), such amount to the extent that it has not been used to pay compensation in respect of those previous defaults,]
- (b) where money received by way of a compensation levy is invested, any income from such investments,

- (c) any money borrowed by the Board for the purposes of that default,
 - (d) any money received by the Board from a liquidator, receiver or administrator of the participant in default, and
 - (e) any money received by the Board from a policy of insurance or payment under any insurance arrangement established under section 4(3).
- (2) The Board shall pay out of a compensation fund –
- (a) any money determined by the Board to be compensation for qualifying claimants, [including any amount as described in section 14(4)(b) or (5)(b),]
 - (b) any money required for the repayment of (or interest on or charges in connection with) any money borrowed for the purposes of the default,
 - (c) any money for the purpose of investment,
 - (d) any money to be paid to [qualifying claimants under section 23(4),]
 - (e) any money to be paid to [participants under section 23(5), and]
 - [(f) any costs, fees and expenses incurred by the Board –

- (i) in or in connection with the processing of claims, and
- (ii) generally in connection with the declaration of default in question[, including any negative interest charge in respect of monies held in the compensation fund].]

NOTES

In section 8,

paragraph (ab) of subsection (1) was inserted, the words in square brackets in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) were inserted, the words in square brackets in paragraph (d) of subsection (2) were substituted, the words in square brackets in paragraph (e) of subsection (2) were substituted and paragraph (f) of subsection (2) was inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (f)(i), paragraph (f)(ii), paragraph (f)(iii), paragraph (f)(iv) and paragraph (f)(v), with effect from 24th September, 2014;

the words in square brackets within paragraph (f)(i) of subsection (2) were inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2020, section 1(e), with effect from 21st May, 2020.

Default and compensation

Default.

9. (1) The Commission shall make a declaration of default in respect of a participant where it is satisfied that subsection (2)(a) or (b) applies.

(2) The Commission shall make a declaration under subsection (1) within 21 days of the date of any of the following events –

Consolidated text

- (a) in respect of a participant incorporated in Guernsey –
 - (i) an arrangement or compromise with the participant's creditors has taken place to which Part VIII of the Companies Law applies,
 - (ii) a voluntary winding up resolution has been passed under Part XXII of the Companies Law,
 - (iii) a winding up order has been made under Part XXIII of the Companies Law,
 - (iv) the participant has been struck off the Register of Companies under Part XX of the Companies Law,
 - (v) an administration order has been made under Part XXI of the Companies Law,
 - (vi) the participant's affairs have been declared en désastre at a meeting of its arresting creditors held before a Commissioner of the Royal Court, the Court of Alderney or the Court of the Sénéchal, or
 - (vii) an interim vesting order has been made in respect of any real property held by the participant in the Bailiwick, or
- (b) in respect of a participant incorporated outside Guernsey, the Commission considers that an event corresponding to any of those listed in paragraph (a) has occurred.

(3) In the event of a declaration of default being made, the Board shall, if it has not already done so, appoint auditors to audit its [own] financial affairs.

(4) No auditor may be appointed under subsection (3) unless he is qualified for appointment as an auditor under the Companies Law.

NOTE

In section 9, the word in square brackets in subsection (3) was inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1(g), with effect from 24th September, 2014.

Application forms for compensation.

10. (1) The Board shall, within 21 days of the date of a declaration of default, make available an application form for the purpose of claiming compensation ("an application form") to any person who claims that he had made a qualifying deposit with the participant in default ("a claimant").

(2) An application form shall require a claimant to provide –

- (a) his name and address,
- (b) information about the capacity in which he is claiming compensation,
- (c) the amount and any evidence in respect of the qualifying deposit for which he is claiming compensation,

- (d) the date (if any) upon which the qualifying deposit would become due, and
- (e) any evidence that he has made a claim to –
 - (i) the liquidator, receiver or administrator (or the equivalent elsewhere than in the Bailiwick) of the participant in default (as the case may be), or
 - (ii) any equivalent scheme elsewhere than in the Bailiwick in respect of the participant in default, and the application form shall be accompanied by such other documents and information, verified in such form and in such manner, as the Board may require.

Applications for compensation.

11. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Board shall consider each application for compensation.

(2) The Board may only consider an application by a claimant if it is submitted –

- (a) within 6 months of the date on which the person became aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware, of the declaration of default, unless the Board determines that, by reason of exceptional circumstances, it ought to be considered after that period has expired, and
- (c) in any event, within 12 months of the date of the declaration of the default.

(3) The Board may reject an application where the claimant does not provide any document, information or evidence requested by or under section 10(2).

Compensation.

12. (1) The Board shall, subject to sections 10 and 11, pay compensation in sterling to a claimant ("a qualifying claimant") in respect of a qualifying deposit held by a participant if –

- (a) a declaration of default has been made in respect of the participant, and
- (b) the Board is satisfied that on the basis of evidence –
 - (i) produced by or on behalf of that claimant, or
 - (ii) otherwise available to the Board,

the participant in default holds that qualifying deposit.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4), the total amount of compensation payable to any qualifying claimant shall be limited to the lesser of –

- (a) the total amount of all qualifying deposits with the participant in respect of which he is a claimant, or
- (b) £50,000.

(3) For the purposes of ascertaining the amount of compensation payable, a qualifying deposit held in a joint account shall be divided according to the holders' shares in the account or equally if there is no indication of the share of each holder, but, subject to subsection (4), no more than the amount specified in subsection (2) shall be paid to each holder of a share in a joint account.

- [(4) Where a deposit of monies is made by –
- (a) the trustee for the purposes of a retirement annuity trust scheme,
 - (b) a parent for the benefit of his child, or
 - (c) an administrator or executor of the estate of a deceased person where the deposit represents the proceeds of that estate (or part thereof), then the trustee, parent, administrator or executor (as the case may be) shall be treated as a qualifying claimant on behalf of the scheme, child or estate (as the case may be) and the deposit shall be treated as a qualifying deposit for which compensation may be paid to the trustee, parent, administrator or executor (as the case may be) in addition to that payable in respect of any other deposit which may be held in the name of the trustee, parent, administrator or executor in any other capacity.]

- [(4A) Where –
- (a) in the case of a retirement annuity trust scheme, more than one trustee has made a deposit for the purposes of the scheme,
 - (b) in the case of a child, more than one parent has made a deposit for the benefit of that child, or

- (c) in the case of a deceased person's estate, more than one administrator or executor, or an administrator and an executor, has made a deposit representing the proceeds of that estate (or part thereof), only one trustee, parent, executor or administrator (as the case may be) shall be treated as the qualifying claimant for the purposes of subsection (4).]

(5) The Board may in its absolute discretion deduct an administration charge from each qualifying deposit, provided that such charge does not exceed £50.

(6) ...

(7) The compensation to which a qualifying claimant is entitled shall be reduced by the amount of any repayment that the Board is satisfied that he receives in respect of the qualifying deposit, including any payment –

- (a) from an equivalent scheme elsewhere than in the Bailiwick,
- (b) from an insurance policy taken out by or on behalf of the claimant [in respect of the deposit, or]
- (c) from the liquidator, receiver or administrator (or the equivalent elsewhere than in the Bailiwick) of the [participant in default.]
- (d) ...

[(7A) The total amount of any qualifying deposits held by a qualifying claimant with a participant shall be reduced for the purposes of subsection (2) by the lesser of –

- (a) the outstanding balance on the date of default on any loan or other credit facility for which the claimant is liable to the participant and which is secured by a relevant security over any such deposits, and
- (b) the value of the deposits subject to the relevant security, and where there is any dispute as to any reduction which may apply under this subsection, the Board's decision shall be final.]

[(7ZA) Without prejudice to subsection (7), the compensation to which a qualifying claimant is entitled shall also be reduced by any amount as the Board may determine represents an appropriate deduction to reflect any negative interest rate which applied to a qualifying deposit before a declaration of default has been made in respect of the participant holding that deposit.]

(8) The Board may decide to delay payment to a qualifying claimant until the determination of –

- (a) any criminal charge brought against him or any other person entitled to or interested in a qualifying deposit held by him,
- (b) any confiscation or forfeiture proceedings brought against him or any other such person, or
- (c) any investigation which may lead to any such charge or proceedings being brought against him or any other such person, under the provisions of –

- (i) the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1999^c,
- (ii) the Drug Trafficking (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2000^d,
- (iii) the Terrorism and Crime (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2002^e,
- (iv) the Forfeiture of Money, etc in Civil Proceedings (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2007^f, or
- (v) any equivalent provisions in any other jurisdiction.

(9) Where a qualifying deposit is held in a currency other than

^c Order in Council No. VIII of 1999; amended by No. II of 2005; No. XV of 2007; also amended by Ordinance XXVIII of 1999; Ordinance XII of 2002; Ordinance XXXIII of 2003; Ordinance XLVII of 2007; and Guernsey Statutory Instrument No. 27 of 2002; and No. 33 of 2007.

^d Order in Council No. VII of 2000; amended by No. II of 2005; and Nos. XVI and XVII of 2007. Also amended by Ordinance No. XXXIII of 2003.

^e Order in Council No. XVI of 2002.

^f Order in Council No. XVII of 2008. Also amended by the Forfeiture of Money, etc in Civil Proceedings (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2007 (Amendment) Ordinance, 2008.

sterling, the relevant exchange rate between that currency and sterling for the purpose of calculation of the amount specified in section 12(2) shall be the middle market rate on the date of the declaration of default.

(10) Where any money remains after the payment of compensation to qualifying claimants and in respect of other costs, that money shall be repaid to the contributing participants in proportion to their contributions.

(11) Where a claimant is aggrieved by a decision of the Board relating to compensation (including, without limitation, his entitlement thereto), he may appeal to the Court in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 3.

NOTES

In section 12,

first, subsection (4) was substituted, second, subsection (4A) was inserted, third, subsection (6) was repealed, fourth, the words in square brackets in paragraph (b) of subsection (7) were substituted, fifth, the words in square brackets in paragraph (c) of subsection (7) were substituted, sixth, paragraph (d) of subsection (7) was repealed and, seventh, subsection (7A) was inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (h)(i), paragraph (h)(ii), paragraph (h)(iii), paragraph (h)(iv), paragraph (h)(v), paragraph (h)(vi) and paragraph (h)(vii), with effect from 24th September, 2014;

subsection (7ZA) was inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2020, section 1(f), with effect from 21st May, 2020.

The Forfeiture of Money, etc in Civil Proceedings (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2007 has since been repealed by the Forfeiture of Assets in Civil Proceedings (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2023, section 146(a), with effect from 26th April, 2024, subject to the transitional and savings provisions in section 147 of and Schedule 4 to the 2023 Law.

Interest on qualifying deposits.

13. (1) Where interest has accrued on any qualifying deposit before a declaration of default has been made in respect of the participant holding that deposit, the Board may in its absolute discretion pay interest to a qualifying claimant, and where it does so, it may pay that interest at such rate and for such period as it determines.

(2) Where the Board pays any sum of interest under subsection (1), the combined total of the compensation and that sum shall not exceed the relevant amount specified in section 12(2).

(3) Notwithstanding the date of the maturity of the deposit, when a declaration of default is made in respect of a participant holding qualifying deposits, interest may not be awarded by the Board in respect of any period after the date on which the declaration is made.

Maximum liability of the Scheme.

14. (1) The total liability of the Scheme to pay compensation within any 5 year period in respect of one or more declarations of default shall not exceed £100,000,000.

[(1A) A 5 year period mentioned in subsection (1) shall only commence when –

- (a) a declaration of default is made, and
- (b) any previous 5 year period has expired.]

(2) Where the total amount of compensation payable to qualifying claimants exceeds £100,000,000, the compensation shall be apportioned pari passu.

[(3) Where more than one declaration of default is made in a 5 year period and the second declaration of default is made within 14 days of the first declaration of default then –

- (a) the payment of compensation in respect of the first declaration of default shall be suspended,
- (b) the total liability of the Scheme to pay compensation shall be calculated by reference to the compensation payable to qualifying claimants in respect of both declarations of default, and
- (c) if the total amount of compensation payable to qualifying claimants in respect of both declarations of default exceeds £100,000,000, the compensation shall be apportioned pari passu.

(3A) Where a third or subsequent declaration of default is made in a 5 year period within 14 days of the first or second declaration of default then –

- (a) the payment of compensation by the Board shall be suspended, and
- (b) the Board shall request [the Committee] to suspend the operation of the Scheme in accordance with subsection (3B).

(3B) Where the Board has made a request under subsection (3A)(b), [the Committee] may suspend the Scheme by order for such period and on such conditions as it sees fit.

(4) Where more than one declaration of default is made in a 5 year period and the second declaration of default is not made within 14 days of the first

declaration of default then the total amount available for the payment of compensation to qualifying claimants in relation to that second or any subsequent declaration of default shall be the sum of –

- (a) the residual amount of the total liability of the Scheme remaining after the payment of compensation to qualifying claimants of previous declarations of default in the 5 year period, and
- (b) any amount recovered by the Board as at the date of the declaration of default by reason of its right of subrogation under section 23 in respect of such previous declarations of default in the 5 year period to the extent it has not been used to pay compensation in respect of those previous defaults.

(5) Where a third or subsequent declaration of default is made in a 5 year period otherwise than in accordance with subsection (3A), then the total amount available for the payment of compensation to qualifying claimants in relation to each such declaration shall be the sum of –

- (a) the residual amount of the total liability of the Scheme remaining after the payment of compensation to qualifying claimants of previous declarations of default in the 5 year period, and

defaults.]

NOTES

In section 14,

first, subsection (1A) and, second, subsection (3), subsection (3A), subsection (3B), subsection (4) and subsection (5) were inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (i)(i) and paragraph (i)(ii), with effect from 24th September, 2014;

the words "the Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

Payment of compensation.

15. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board shall pay compensation to each qualifying claimant within 3 months of –

- (a) the date of the declaration of default, or
- (b) the date of the receipt of his application under section 11, whichever is later.

[(2) Where the Board is satisfied on reasonable grounds that –

- (a) compensation is payable under this section to a qualifying claimant, but
- (b) immediate payment in full would not be prudent, having regard to the quantum of any claims for compensation which may be made on the Scheme (whether as a result of this or any other declaration of default), it may make an interim payment to the qualifying claimant of a portion of the compensation payable, the amount of which shall be determined in the absolute discretion of the Board.]

(3) Where a portion of the compensation payable is paid under subsection (2), the Board shall pay [...] further portions, of such amounts and at such times determined in the absolute discretion of the Board, until, subject to section 14, the full amount of compensation is paid.

[(4) Where the Commission makes a declaration of default, the Board shall within 7 days of that declaration make a public statement relating to that default containing, in so far as the Board is able to provide it, the following information –

- (a) the extent to which any compensation payable is limited by the operation of any provision of section 14, and
- (b) whether it intends to pay compensation to qualifying claimants in full or in portions.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Board from suspending the payment of compensation to qualifying claimants where, in the absolute discretion of the Board, it considers that it is prudent to do so.]

NOTE

In section 15, first, subsection (2) was substituted, second, the words omitted in square brackets in subsection (3) were repealed and, third, subsection (4) and subsection (5) were inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (j), paragraph (k) and paragraph (l), with effect from 24th September, 2014.

Funding of the Scheme

Annual fees.

16. (1) In respect of each calendar year, each participant shall pay an annual fee which shall be determined by the Board.

(2) The annual fee in respect of any calendar year becomes due –

(a) in the case of an institution which becomes a participant at any time during that calendar year, at that time (but the institution will only pay the fee in proportion to the number of full months remaining in that calendar year), and

(b) in the case of any other participant, before the 1st January of that calendar year or such later time the Board may decide.

(3) If, when determining the amount of the annual fee for a forthcoming calendar year, it appears to the Board that there is a sufficient credit balance in the administration fund to cover the expected payments from the fund under section 7(2) in that year, the Board may determine to waive the annual fee for that year and shall notify the participants accordingly.

(4) The Board shall not charge a fee under this section for the calendar year ending 31st December 2008, for which the administrative expenses will be paid by the States.

Levies on participants for the purposes of insurance.

17. (1) The Board may [in any calendar year] impose on all participants a levy ("an insurance levy") to meet the costs of any insurance premium payable pursuant to section 4(3) in that year.

[(1A) If in any calendar year a person is granted a banking licence and accordingly becomes a participant in the Scheme in accordance with section 2, the Board may for the avoidance of doubt impose an insurance levy on that person in respect of that year.]

(2) The liability of [each participant to contribute to an insurance levy] shall be determined by the Board on such basis as [the Committee] may prescribe by regulations.

[(2A) Where the Board imposes an insurance levy, it shall (without prejudice to the provisions of any regulations under subsection (2)) give written notice to each participant liable to contribute stating –

- (a) the amount of the participant's contribution,
- (b) the method by which it is calculated, and
- (c) the date on which it is due (which may not be earlier than 14 days after the date of the notice).

(2B) An insurance levy is payable on or before the due date stated in the notice.]

(3) The Board shall publish the criteria by which the liability of each participant is to be calculated.

(4) The Board may require each participant to provide it with any information that the Board may reasonably require to determine the liability of that participant.

(5) The liability of each participant is confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person other than the Commission[, except with the consent of the participant in question].

NOTES

In section 17,

first, the words in square brackets in subsection (1) were inserted, second, subsection (1A) was inserted, third, the words in square brackets in subsection (2) were substituted, fourth, subsection (2A) and subsection (2B) were inserted and, fifth, the words in square brackets in subsection (5) were inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (m)(i), paragraph (m)(ii), paragraph (m)(iii), paragraph (m)(iv) and paragraph (m)(v), with effect from 24th September, 2014;

the words "the Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

The following Regulations have been made under section 17:

Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Liability of Participants to Compensation Levy) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2010.

Levies on participants for the purposes of compensation.

18. (1) If a participant is declared to be in default, the Board may impose on all other participants a compensation levy or series of such levies to meet

- (a) claims for the compensation of qualifying creditors, and
- (b) other costs, expenses and payments which may be paid out of the compensation fund under section 8(2).

(2) The liability of [each participant to contribute to a compensation levy shall be determined by the Board] in accordance with Schedule 2.

(3) Where the Board proposes to impose a compensation levy, it shall, having regard to any money which has been paid or is to be paid under a policy of insurance or any other insurance arrangement under section 4(3), estimate the total of any compensation levy or series of such levies which the Board might impose and provide this estimate to each participant.

[(4) The Board may not require a participant to pay in any calendar year an aggregate amount by way of a contribution to a compensation levy which would exceed a total of £2,000,000, provided that the element of the compensation levy payable under paragraph (a) of Schedule 2 shall not be subject to such limitation and shall accordingly be disregarded in calculating the maximum aggregate amount payable by virtue of this subsection.]

[(5) Where the amount raised by a compensation levy is not sufficient to meet the claims of qualifying claimants, the Board may impose a further compensation levy on all other participants for the purpose of raising the outstanding money, subject to the limitations set out in subsection (4).]

(6) Where the total raised by a compensation levy or series of such levies exceeds the amount of the claims and costs referred to in subsection (1), as finally determined, the Board shall repay the excess to the participants in proportion to their contributions.

[(7) Where the Board imposes a compensation levy, it shall give written notice to each participant liable to contribute stating –

- (a) the amount of –
 - (i) the elements of the participant's contribution calculated under paragraph (a) and (b) of Schedule 2, and
 - (ii) the participant's contribution in total,
- (b) the method by which the contribution is calculated, and
- (c) the date on which the element of the contribution calculated under –
 - (i) paragraph (a) of Schedule 2 is due (which may not be later than [5 working] days after the date of the notice), and
 - (ii) paragraph (b) of Schedule 2 is due (which may [not be later than 5 working] days after the date of the notice).]

[(7A) A contribution to a compensation levy is payable on or before the due date stated in the notice.]

(8) If, at any time after a compensation levy is imposed, any participant liable for a contribution to that levy is itself subject to a declaration of default made before it has paid that contribution –

- (a) that liability may be deferred or cancelled in the absolute discretion of the Board, and
- (b) if it does so, the total amount to be raised by the levy shall be reduced accordingly.

(9) [Where a contribution to a compensation levy or any part thereof is not paid by the due date stated on the notice], interest shall accrue on the outstanding balance at a rate 2% above the Bank of England base rate from time to time applicable from the date by which the levy was due to have been paid until the date of payment [and for the avoidance of doubt, the liability of any participant to pay a compensation levy is not reduced by the operation of limits imposed by subsection (4) and, notwithstanding those limits, interest shall accrue on any unpaid balance].

NOTES

In section 18,

first, the words in square brackets in subsection (2), second, subsection (5) and, third, subsection (7) were substituted, fourth, subsection (7A) was inserted, fifth, the words in the first pair of square brackets in subsection (9) were substituted and, sixth, the words in the second pair of square brackets in subsection (9) were inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (n)(i), paragraph (n)(iii), paragraph (n)(iv), paragraph (n)(v), paragraph (n)(vi)(A) and paragraph (n)(vi)(B), with effect from 24th September, 2014;

The following Regulations have been made under section 18:

Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Liability of Participants to Compensation Levy) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2010.

Appeal by participants.

19. Where a participant is aggrieved by a decision of the Board in respect of the amount of –

- (a) annual fees under section 16,
- [(b) its contribution to a compensation levy, or
- (c) its contribution to an insurance levy,]

it may appeal to the Court in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 3.

NOTE

In section 19, paragraph (b) and paragraph (c) were substituted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1(o), with effect from 24th September, 2014.

Miscellaneous

Co-operation.

20. (1) Each participant (including a participant in default) shall co-operate with the Board in making available to it such documents and information in such form and verified in such manner as the Board may require to carry out its functions.

(2) The duty of co-operation extends to any successor of the participant, including –

Consolidated text

- (a) a liquidator, if the participant is being wound up,
- (b) a receiver, if the participant is in receivership,
- (c) an administrator, if the participant is in administration,
- (d) any other person who appears to the Board to be carrying out duties similar to those in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) in respect of the participant or who has continuing responsibility for the affairs of the participant, and
- (e) any person to whom the undertaking of the participant is transferred.

[(3) For the avoidance of doubt, a participant shall –

- (a) promptly provide any documents or information which are required by the Board, and
- (b) subject to the provisions of the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017, provide personal data (including special category data) of claimants to the Board when requested to do so where it is necessary for the carrying out of the Board's functions under this Ordinance.]

NOTE

In section 20, subsection (3) was inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2020, section 1(j), with effect from 21st May, 2020.

Disclosure of information.

21. For the avoidance of doubt, sections 43, 44 and 45 of the Law apply for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Powers of Board in relation to participant in default.

22. The Board –

- (a) has the rights, powers and privileges of a creditor of a participant in default,
- (b) may nominate a member of the Board or any other appropriately qualified person to sit upon any creditors' committee or committee of inspection of the participant, and
- (c) is entitled to –
 - (i) receive any notice addressed to creditors, and
 - (ii) attend (and vote at) any creditors' meeting under the Law, the Companies Law or any other rule of law.

Subrogation.

23. (1) The Board has in respect of a qualifying deposit the right of subrogation to the rights of any qualifying claimant who applies for compensation in respect of that deposit under the Scheme.

(2) No compensation shall be paid to any qualifying claimant in respect of any qualifying deposit until that claimant has agreed in writing that –

- (a) his rights, which includes a right to settle or compromise his claim, in respect of that deposit will vest in the Board,
- (b) he will provide such documents, information and assistance, in such form and verified in such manner as the Board may require, to enable it to exercise those rights, and
- (c) he will pay the Board any amount he receives in respect of those rights.

(3) Any amount received by the Board under this section shall be paid into the compensation fund established in respect of the default in question.

[(4) Where –

- (a) compensation has been paid to a qualifying claimant, and
- (b) the Board has received any amount by reason of its right of subrogation under this section, the Board shall repay to each qualifying claimant any amount received by it in respect of the qualifying claimant's deposit which exceeds the amount of compensation paid in respect of the deposit.]

[(5) The Board shall, after making any repayment under subsection (4), apply any surplus –

- (a) firstly, and in priority to any amount described in paragraph (b), to repay –
 - (i) any interest or charges incurred by it in relation to any money borrowed by it for the purposes of that default, and
 - (ii) any costs, fees or expenses incurred by it in or in connection with performing its functions under the Ordinance, and
- (b) secondly, to repay to each contributing participant in proportion to its contribution to the relevant compensation levy.]

NOTE

In section 23, subsection (4) and subsection (5) were substituted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (p)(i) and paragraph (p)(ii), with effect from 24th September, 2014.

Failure to comply with the Scheme.

24. (1) If a participant contravenes any provision of this Ordinance or any prohibition, restriction, condition, requirement, direction or arrangement under it, the Board shall inform the Commission who may, without prejudice to the generality of its powers under the section 8(1)(b) of the Law, revoke the participant's licence under that section.

(2) For the purposes of ensuring compliance with the provisions of this Ordinance, the Board may require a participant to provide such security as the Board considers appropriate in respect of any present or future liability of the participant to pay a compensation levy and any money realised under such security shall be credited to the relevant compensation fund.

(3) Any outstanding amount in respect of annual fees under section 16, an insurance levy or a compensation levy is recoverable by the Board as a civil debt.

Failure to comply with requests by the Board.

25. (1) If any person –

- (a) fails without reasonable excuse to comply with any requirement imposed by or under section 20,
- (b) fails without reasonable excuse to answer any question properly put to him by or on behalf of the Board under section 20, or
- (c) intentionally obstructs the Board’s investigations under section 20, then –

- (i) he is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, and
- (ii) the Board shall inform the Commission.

(2) The Commission may exercise any of its powers in relation to the default (including, without limitation, the powers conferred by sections 25 to 29 of the Law), and the provisions of the Law shall apply accordingly.

False or misleading information; and corporate offences.

26. (1) A person who –
- (a) in connection with an application for compensation,
 - (b) in purported compliance with a requirement imposed by or under this Ordinance or any regulation made under it, or
 - (c) otherwise than as mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) but in circumstances in which the person providing the information or document intends, or could reasonably be expected to know, that the information or document would or might be used by the Board or the Commission for the purpose of exercising its functions under this Ordinance –
 - (i) makes a statement which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular,
 - (ii) dishonestly or otherwise, recklessly makes a statement which is false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular,
 - (iii) produces or furnishes or causes or permits to be produced or furnished any information or document which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular, or

- (iv) dishonestly or otherwise, recklessly produces or furnishes or recklessly causes or permits to be produced or furnished any information or document which is false, deceptive or misleading in a material particular,

is guilty of an offence.

(2) A participant or former participant which fails to provide the Board or the Commission with any information in its possession knowing or having reasonable cause to believe –

- (a) that the information is relevant to the exercise by the Board or the Commission of its functions under this Ordinance in relation to the participant or former participant, and
- (b) that the withholding of the information is likely to result in the Board or the Commission being misled as to any matter which is relevant to and of material significance to the exercise of those functions in relation to the participant or former participant,

is guilty of an offence.

(3) A person who is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) or (2) is liable –

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine, or to both, or

- (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months, or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both.

(4) Where an offence under this Ordinance is committed by a participant and is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, chief executive, controller, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the participant or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the participant is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(5) Where the affairs of a participant are managed by its members, subsection (4) applies to a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director.

(6) In subsections (4) and (5) a participant includes a former participant.

Information to depositors.

27. (1) Every participant shall make information available in a readily comprehensible form in explanatory material to current and intending depositors about the Scheme, which shall include (without limitation) a summary of the provisions of the Scheme, including details of the amount and scope of cover offered.

(2) Every participant shall also, on request, inform current and intending depositors about the conditions for compensation and the procedures for claiming it.

(3) The Board may issue recommended wording for the information required to be given by this section.

Service.

28. (1) Any document to be given [to] or served on the Board under this Ordinance may be given or served by being left at, or sent by post or transmitted to, the principal office of the Board.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) –

- (a) the expression "by post" means by registered post or recorded delivery service, and
- (b) the expression "transmitted" means transmitted by electronic communication, facsimile transmission or other similar means which produce or enable the production of a document containing the text of the communication.

(3) Subsection (2)(b) is without prejudice to –

- (a) the Electronic Transactions (Guernsey) Law, 2000^g,
- (b) the Electronic Transactions (Alderney) Law, 2001^h,
- (c) the Electronic Transactions (Sark) Law, 2001ⁱ, and
- (d) the provisions of any regulations made under section

^g Order in Council No. VIII of 2000.

^h Order in Council No. XXVI of 2001.

ⁱ Order in Council No. X of 2001.

3(9).

(4) Subsections (1) and (2) are without prejudice to any other lawful method of service.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (4), and any other enactment or rule of law in relation to the service of documents, no document to be given to or served on the Board under or for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be deemed to have been given or served until it has been received.

NOTE

In section 28, the word in square brackets in subsection (1) was inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, section 1(q), with effect from 24th September, 2014.

Tax treatment.

- 29. (1) For the purposes of the Income Tax Law, a participant –
- (a) may deduct from its income as an allowable expense any money paid as a contribution to the funds (whether as a fee or levy), and
 - (b) shall treat as a trading receipt any repayment made by the Board under section 18(6).

(2) The funds and the income of the Board are exempt from income tax, and any real property of the Board is exempt from tax on real property.

Immunity from liability.

30. No liability shall be incurred by the Board or [the Committee], or by any member, officer or servant of either of them, in respect of anything done or omitted to be done after the commencement of this Ordinance in the discharge or purported discharge of any function conferred by or under this Ordinance unless the thing was done or omitted to be done in bad faith.

NOTE

In section 30, the words in square brackets were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

Non-retrospectivity of the Scheme.

31. (1) For the avoidance of doubt, where any of the events listed in section 9(2) has occurred in respect of a participant before the commencement of this Ordinance –

- (a) the Commission shall not make a declaration of default in respect of that participant, and
- (b) the Board shall not pay any compensation to any qualifying claimant in respect of any qualifying deposit held by that participant.

(2) Where in respect of the participant mentioned in subsection (1)

- (a) any of the events listed in section 9(2) occurs in respect of it after the commencement of the Ordinance, and
- (b) that event is linked to the event in subsection (1), the Commission shall not make a declaration of default in respect of that participant, and the Board shall not pay any compensation to any qualifying claimant in respect of any qualifying deposit held by that participant.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "linked" means that the event mentioned in subsection (2)(a) arises from or in respect of the same facts, matters, circumstances or situation from which the event mentioned in subsection (1) arose.

General provisions as to [subordinate legislation].

32. (1) Any [order or] regulation under this Ordinance –

- (a) may be amended or repealed by a subsequent [order or] regulation made hereunder,
- (b) may contain such consequential, incidental, supplementary, transitional and savings provisions as may appear to be necessary or expedient, and
- (c) shall be laid before a meeting of the States as soon as possible and shall, if at that or the next meeting the States resolve to annul it, cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything done under it or to the making of a new [order or] regulation.

(2) Any power conferred by this Ordinance to make any [order or] regulation may be exercised –

- (a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases, and
- (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised –

- (i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),
- (ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes, and
- (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any prescribed conditions.

NOTE

In section 32, first, the words in square brackets in the section heading thereto and, second, the corresponding entry in the Arrangement of Sections were substituted, third, the words "order or" in square brackets wherever occurring in subsection (1) and, fourth, the words in square brackets in subsection (2) were inserted by the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2014, respectively section 1(r)(i), section 1(a)(i), section 1(r)(ii) and section 1(r)(iii), with effect from 24th September, 2014.

Title and extent.

34. (1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2008.

(2) This Ordinance has effect throughout the Bailiwick.

NOTE

The Ordinance was made and came into operation on 26th November, 2008.

SCHEDULE 1
POWERS OF THE BOARD

Section 4(2)

1. Without limitation, the Board may –
 - (a) enter into contracts,
 - (b) acquire, hold and dispose of property (gratuitously or onerously, beneficially or on trust),
 - (c) create, execute or perform trusts,
 - (d) operate bank accounts,
 - (e) invest in stocks, funds, shares, securities and other investments,
 - (f) borrow or lend money (with or without having given or taken security),
 - (g) guarantee the performance of obligations by other persons,
 - (h) participate in joint ventures with other persons, and
 - (i) retain the services of any person, and employ staff, on such terms and conditions (including provision for pensions or gratuities) as it may agree.

2. Where the Board is satisfied that –

- (a) a declaration of default has been made,
- (b) the reputation of Guernsey as a financial centre is at risk,
- (c) the total cost to the Scheme of exercising any of the following powers is likely to be lower than paying compensation, and
- (d) the Commission has been consulted, the Board may –

- (i) take such steps as it considers necessary to restructure the business of a participant by way of altering its capital base or facilitating its sale, merger, or takeover,
- (ii) provide financial assistance to any participant necessary to prevent the failure of that participant,
- (iii) acquire, sell or otherwise deal with the property, assets and undertaking of a participant or any shareholding of a participant at a price it considers reasonable, and
- (iv) appoint such persons as it considers necessary to assist in any of the functions above.

3. The Board may arrange for any of its functions to be performed by a third party.

4. A function performed by the third party pursuant to an arrangement under this Schedule is for all purposes performed by the Board; and every decision taken or other thing done by the third party pursuant to such an arrangement has the same effect as if taken or done at a quorate meeting of the Board.

5. An arrangement under this Schedule for the performance of a function by the third party –
 - (a) may be varied or terminated at any time by the Board, but without prejudice to anything done pursuant to the arrangement or to the making of a new arrangement, and

 - (b) does not prevent the performance of the function by the Board whilst the arrangement subsists.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 18(2)

COMPENSATION LIABILITY OF PARTICIPANTS

Where the Board proposes to impose a compensation levy, the individual liability of each participant shall be determined on the following basis –

- (a) each participant is liable in equal shares with every other participant for the first £10,000,000 of the Board's estimate under section 18(3), and
- (b) each participant shall be liable for the remainder of that estimate on the basis of criteria prescribed by [the Committee] and published by the Board.

NOTES

In Schedule 2, the words in square brackets were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

The following Regulations have been made under Schedule 2:

Banking Deposit Compensation Scheme (Liability of Participants to Compensation Levy) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2010.

SCHEDULE 3

Sections 12(11) and 19

APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF THE BOARD

1. An aggrieved person may appeal to the Court by a summons served on the Board.
2. The summons must state the grounds and material facts on which the appellant relies and must be served within 28 days after the date of the decision appealed against.
3. The grounds of an appeal are that –
 - (a) the decision was ultra vires or there was some other error of law,
 - (b) the decision was unreasonable,
 - (c) the decision was made in bad faith,
 - (d) there was a lack of proportionality, or
 - (e) there was a material error as to the facts or as to the procedure.
4. On an appeal the Court may –
 - (a) set the decision of the Board aside, in whole or in part, and, if the Court considers it appropriate to do so, remit the matter to the Board with or without a direction to make any other decision which the Board may make under this Ordinance, or

- (b) confirm the decision, in whole or in part.
5. On an appeal against a decision of the Board, the Court may, on the application of the claimant, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, suspend or modify the operation of the decision pending the determination of the appeal.
 6. An appeal from a decision of the Court lies to the Court of Appeal on a question of law.
 7. An appeal to the Court of Appeal under this Ordinance lies only with the leave of that Court and section 21 of the Court of Appeal (Guernsey) Law, 1961^r ("powers of a single judge") applies to the powers of the Court of Appeal to give leave to appeal under this Ordinance as it applies to the powers of the Court of Appeal to give leave to appeal under Part II of that Law.
