Coming into force11th May, 1989

THE DOGS (CONTROLLED PLACES) ORDINANCE, 1989

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the tenth day of May, 1989, hereby order:-

Controlled places.

1. For the purposes of this Ordinance –
 - (a) the places mentioned in Part I of the Schedule (including the footpaths adjacent to them) are controlled places at all times; and
 - (b) the places mentioned in Part II of the Schedule are controlled places in the months of June, July, August and September.

Control of dogs in controlled places.

- 2.(1) The owner of a dog shall not permit it to be –
 - (a) in any of the controlled places mentioned in Part II of the Schedule at any time during the months of June, July, August and September; or
 - (b) in any other controlled place, unless it is in his charge or in the charge of another person.
- (2) A person in charge of a dog in any controlled place shall keep that dog on a lead.
- (3) A person in charge of a dog shall not permit it to foul any controlled place by depositing its excrement or urinating thereon.
