

Island of Alderney

Ordinance of the States ^{IV} 1992

Made	6th May 1992
Came into Operation	6th May 1992

The Fishing (Parlour Pots) Ordinance, 1992

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 6th day of May 1992, hereby order:

1. (1) No person shall in Alderney waters use or cause or permit to be used a parlour pot except under the authority of and in accordance with the conditions of a licence of the Committee.

Use of parlour pots prohibited

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the Alderney uniform scale.

Carrying of parlour pots prohibited

2. (1) A parlour pot shall not be carried on a vessel in Alderney waters except under the authority of and in accordance with the conditions of a licence of the Committee.

(2) Where a contravention of subsection (1) occurs upon a vessel, the master, owner and charterer of the vessel are each guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the Alderney uniform scale.

(3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to prove that, on the occasion of the alleged offence, the parlour pot in question had not been and was not going to be used in Alderney waters.

Interpretation

3. In this Ordinance -

“Alderney waters” means the waters which, on the commencement of this Ordinance, comprise the territorial waters adjacent to Alderney and its dependencies;

“the committee” means the Agricultural and Fisheries Committee or such other committee as the States may by Resolution appoint for the purpose of this Ordinance;

“parlour pot” means any pot which would commonly be so described and includes any pot, basket or cage which is designed, adapted or capable of being used for the taking of crustaceans and which contains, or any chamber of which contains, a trap or other device which is designed to prevent a crustacean which has entered the pot or chamber from leaving it.

- Citation 4. This Ordinance may be cited as the Fishing (Parlour Pots) Ordinance, 1992.
- Commencement 5. This Ordinance shall come into force on the 6th day of May 1992.

D.V. Jenkins,
Clerk of the States.