Ordinance of the States XXVIII
1988

Made 28th September, 1988.
Came into Operation ... 28th September, 1988.

The Gambling (Cinema Racing)
Ordinance, 1988

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 27th day of April, 1988, hereby order:—

1. (1) “Cinema racing” shall be defined as the showing of films of races where in respect of each runner tickets have been on sale prior to the commencement of each race and where the holder of a winning ticket receives a cash prize calculated in accordance with his stake (whether at odds or not). Definition of racing”.

(2) Bets made on cinema racing shall be lawful and not deemed to be “pool betting” within the meaning of section 13(1) of the Gambling (Guernsey) Law, 1971(a), provided that a lawfully operated Totalisator is used. “Totalisator” shall have the same meaning as in section 38(1) of the Gambling (Betting) Ordinance, 1973(b).

(a) Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXIII, p. 109.

(b) Recueil d'Ordonnances Tome XIX, p. 147.

Permits for cinema
racing.

2. (1) Cinema racing shall be permitted only in accordance with the conditions and requirements imposed by this Ordinance and the Schedule thereto.

(2) Cinema racing may take place only when promoted by or on behalf of a society organised wholly or mainly for one of the following:—

- (a) charitable purposes;
- (b) participating in or support of athletic sports, games (including chess, draughts, bridge or whist), or cultural activities;
- (c) other purposes, not for private gain nor in the pursuance of any commercial undertaking.

(3) The States Gambling Control Committee ("the Committee") shall be responsible for the granting of permits authorising cinema racing, subject to the conditions and requirements listed in the Schedule to this Ordinance.

(4) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Committee, either to refuse an application for the granting of a permit or to impose conditions or requirements on a permit, shall have the right to appeal to the Royal Court sitting as an Ordinary Court within 30 days' notice of the decision appealed against, on the grounds that the decision of the Committee was ultra vires or an unreasonable exercise of its powers.

3. This Ordinance may be cited as the Gambling (Cinema Racing) Ordinance, 1988.

CONDITIONS AND REQUIREMENTS TO BE IMPOSED FOR CINEMA RACING EVENTS

1. Each cinema racing event shall be promoted under and in accordance with the conditions of a permit granted by the Committee.
2. Applications for permits shall be in such form as the Committee may prescribe and shall be submitted to the Committee at least twenty-one clear days before the event takes place.
3. Each event shall have a promoter who shall be a member of the society authorised in writing by the governing body of the society.
4. No remuneration shall be paid in respect of the event to the promoter or to any person assisting in the conduct of the event.
5. The proceeds of the event, after deducting reasonable expenses and the winnings shall be applied for the purposes of the society as defined in section 2(2) of this Ordinance.
6. No payment of expenses or winnings in connection with the event shall be made out of moneys of the society not being proceeds of the event.
7. Cinema racing shall take place only as an incident of a social event staged by, or on behalf of a society such as a dinner, dance, or other event of a similar character, but only where the opportunity to participate in cinema racing is not the only inducement to persons to attend the event.

8. Only members of the society or their bona fide guests shall participate in the betting at cinema racing events.
9. No admission charge of any kind shall be made for the betting.
10. There shall be no public advertising of cinema racing events except to members of the society or at the normal meeting places of the society.
11. No person under eighteen years of age shall be permitted to participate in the betting except with the permission and in the presence of a parent or guardian.
12. The permit issued by the Committee shall be displayed in a prominent position at the venue of the event so that it can be clearly seen by persons attending.
13. No more than four applications by a society for a permit shall be granted by the Committee within a period of twelve months.
14. The promoter shall, not later than the end of the second month following the month when the event took place send to the Committee a return in such manner as specified by the Committee and certified by two other members of the society showing:—
 - (i) the total amount of proceeds raised from the event;
 - (ii) the sums appropriated for expenses and for prizes respectively;

- (iii) the purposes to which the proceeds were applied; and the amounts applied for each purpose.
15. The Committee shall preserve such returns for not less than twelve months from date of receipt, during which period they shall be available for inspection by the public at the Committee's offices free of charge.
 16. A fee shall be paid by the promoter in respect of each permit granted and the amount of the fee shall be £30 in respect of each permit granted.
 17. The Committee may refuse a permit to a promoter who has been convicted of an offence under the Gambling (Guernsey) Law, 1971, or of an offence punishable with imprisonment in Guernsey, Jersey or the United Kingdom, or if the society is not or has ceased to be, a society whose purposes fall within section 2(2) of this Ordinance.
 18. In granting a permit the Committee may impose such additional conditions as it considers necessary or expedient, including a condition limiting the amount of individual stakes payable at each event.
