

Island of  Guernsey

Ordinance of the States XVII
1956

Made 16th May, 1956.

Coming into Operation .. 21st May, 1956.

The Export of Produce (Control of Export and Delivery for Export) Ordinance, 1956-

THE STATES, on the representations of the States Committee for Horticulture, hereby order:—

1. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

“the Board” means the States Board of Administration;

“export” means export by way of trade and “exported” shall be construed accordingly;

“the Island” means the Islands of Guernsey, Herm and Jethou;

“preserved” means treated by drying, tinning, bottling, cooking, pickling or deep-freezing;

“produce” means fruit, vegetables, tomatoes, potatoes, mushrooms, roots, flowers, ferns, herbs, foliage, or any other agricultural or horticultural produce grown in the Island, but does not include any such produce which is preserved.

Prohibition of export except from harbour or airport.

2. A person shall not, save under special or general authority in writing in that behalf of the Board, export, cause to be exported or attempt to export produce from the Island otherwise than from the Harbour of St. Peter Port or the States Airport and otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of any regulation made by the Board under section three of this Ordinance.

Regulations by Board.

3. The Board may, from time to time, by regulation—

- (a) prescribe the hours during which, and the conditions subject to which, produce or categories of produce may be delivered for export to the Harbour of St. Peter Port or the States Airport or any other place duly authorised for that purpose;
- (b) control, whether by absolute prohibition or partial restriction, the movement, on the quays or jetties of the said Harbour or within the precincts of the said Airport or of any other place duly authorised for the export of produce, of any vehicles carrying produce for export which arrive at a time other than during the hours prescribed under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

Offences.

4. Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Ordinance or of any regulation made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds.

5. The Ordinances set out in the first column of the Schedule to this Ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent set out in the second column of that Schedule.

6. This Ordinance shall come into force on the 21st day of May, 1956.
