EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order)

This Order, revoking and replacing the Immigration (Landing and Embarkation Cards) (Guernsey) Order, 1972, extends the categories of persons required to produce landing or embarkation cards when disembarking or embarking in the Bailiwick. While under the previous Order cards were required from aliens only, Article 4 of the new Order makes the requirement general, except for persons travelling on United Kingdom passports who are patrial, i.e. who have under section 2 of the Immigration Act 1971 as extended to the Bailiwick by the Immigration (Guernsey) Order 1972 the right of abode in the Bailiwick. Like the previous Order, this Order does not extend to persons travelling within the common travel area (the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and the Republic of Ireland) except in the case of a person landing from an aircraft coming from the Republic of Ireland who began his journey outside the common travel area and was not given leave to land in the Republic. (Travellers within the common travel area may however be required to produce cards under the Prevention of Terrorism (Supplemental Temporary Provisions) (Guernsey) Order 1974 (S.I. 1974 No. 43).
