EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE IMPORT DUTIES (ASSOCIATED STATES AND MEDITERRANEAN COUNTRIES)

(BAILLIWICK OF GUERNSEY) ORDER, 1975

This order, which became effective on 1 January 1975, makes provisions for the tariff treatment of goods of certain countries and territories associated with the European Economic Community, whereby the rate of duty chargeable shall be that which applied in the Bailiwick prior to accession of the United Kingdom to the EEC, if that rate is lower than the current full rate, in accordance with Articles 109 to 111 and 119 of the Treaty of Accession.

The Order makes similar provisions for the tariff treatment of goods of certain Mediterranean countries pending the conclusion of negotiations between these countries and the EEC, with the exception of Algerian wines of heading 22.05 which shall be chargeable to duty at the Full rate reduced by 40%.

In the case of goods of Cyprus, Egypt, Malta, Morocco, Tunisia and Turkey, the Order provides for the full rate of duty to be reduced in the same proportion as the full rate of the Common Customs Tariff is reduced in respect of goods imported into one of the original six States of the EEC. With the exception of goods of Malta and Turkey, this reduced rate shall not be less than the "MF" rate applicable to the like goods.

The Order also provides that in the case of wines of heading 22.05 originating in Morocco, Tunisia and Turkey import duty shall be chargeable at the full rate of duty reduced by 40%.
