Ordinance of the States XXI

1955

Made ... .. 12th October, 1955.
Coming into Operation ... 1st November, 1955.

---

The Non-Contributory Pensions (Implementation) Ordinance, 1955.

THE STATES, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by sections three and fourteen of the Non-Contributory Pensions (Guernsey) Law, 1955, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby order:—

PART I

Determination of Need

1. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the need of an applicant shall be determined by the Administrator on a weekly basis at the amount calculated by deducting from his requirements, computed in accordance with the provisions of Part I of the First Schedule to this Ordinance, his available Determination of need for a pension.

resources, computed in accordance with the provisions of Part II of the said Schedule.

Adjustment
in special circumstances.

2. In making any calculation for the purposes of the last preceding section, any special circumstances or considerations which, in the opinion of the Authority, affect the financial position of a person may be taken into account to such extent as may be determined by the Authority and the said calculation shall be adjusted accordingly by the Administrator.

Minor adjustments.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in the two last preceding sections—

- (a) where the amount calculated in accordance therewith is less than one shilling the applicant shall be deemed not to be in need of assistance; and subject thereto
- (b) where such amount is not a multiple of sixpence it shall be treated as the amount nearest thereto which is a multiple of sixpence, an amount of threepence being treated as an amount of sixpence.

PART II

Administration of Pensions

Applications.

4. (1) Every application shall be made in writing on the form approved by the Administrator and shall be given or sent to the Administrator or to such other person as the Administrator may appoint in that behalf.

(2) A person shall be treated as having made an application on the date on which the application is received by the Administrator or such other person as aforesaid.

5. (1) The Administrator may at any time demand for his inspection and information the production by an applicant of all bank pass books, certificates, statements, books of account and other documents whatsoever in the possession of or under the control of that applicant containing or likely to contain evidence of the means of that applicant.

Information to be given on application or on change of circumstances.

(2) Every applicant shall comply with any directions which may be given by the Administrator as to reporting to him any change of circumstances affecting that applicant's need of a pension or the amount thereof.

(3) Every applicant shall furnish to the Administrator at least once in every year and oftener if the Administrator requires, in the form approved by the Administrator, a declaration of his means declaring in particular whether—

- (a) there has been any change in his means;
- (b) the spouse of that applicant is alive and is living with him and whether there has been any change in the means of that spouse; and
- (c) there has been any change in the means of any dependant of his;

since a pension was first granted to that applicant or since a declaration was last made by him under this section, as the case may be.

6. A decision shall have effect from the date specified therein and may be reviewed at any time save that—

Effective date of decisions.

- (a) no decision on an application shall have effect from a date earlier than the date on which the applicant is treated in accordance with subsection (2) of section four of this Ordinance as having made the application;
- (b) the decision of the tribunal on an appeal against a decision of the Administrator shall not take effect earlier than the earliest date on which the decision which is the subject of appeal could have been made to take effect.

Notice of Administrator's decision.

7. Notice of the decision of the Administrator shall be given in writing to the person to whom the decision relates :

PROVIDED that where the decision is on an application which is made in person, notice thereof need not be given in writing unless the applicant so requests.

Orders for payment.

8. (1) Orders issued by the Authority to enable a person to obtain payment of a pension shall remain the property of the Authority.

(2) Any person having such an order as aforesaid shall, on ceasing to be entitled to the receipt of a pension to which the order relates, or when so required by the Administrator, deliver the order to the Administrator or to such person as he may direct.

PART III

Appeals

Appointment of Registrar.

9. The Authority shall appoint a Registrar and one or more deputy Registrars who shall perform such duties in connection with appeals to which this Ordinance refers as the Authority may direct subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Convening of tribunal.

10. (1) Where notice of appeal has been given in accordance with this Ordinance, the Registrar shall, if a tribunal has been appointed by the Court with authority to determine such appeal, convene that tribunal for the determination of that appeal; if there is no such tribunal, or if the tribunal is unwilling to determine such appeal, the Registrar shall so inform one of the Law Officers of the Crown, who shall apply to the Court, either personally or through a person appointed by that Law Officer in that behalf, to appoint a tribunal for the determination of that appeal, and on such appointment being made the Registrar shall convene that tribunal for the determination of that appeal.

(2) Different tribunals may be convened for deciding in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance whether notice of appeal given after the expiration of the period prescribed by this Ordinance shall be entertained, and for determining the appeal.

11. (1) Notice of appeal under subsection (1) of section thirteen of the Law by any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Administrator shall be in writing in the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance, shall contain a statement of the facts and contentions upon which the appellant relies in support of his appeal and there shall be attached thereto a copy of the Administrator's decision to which such appeal relates. Notice of appeal.

(2) Such notice shall be sent to the Registrar within twenty-eight days after the date of the notice of the decision, provided that notice sent after the expiry of that period may, with the consent of the tribunal, be accepted.

(3) The Registrar shall furnish a copy of such notice to the Administrator and within seven days thereafter the Administrator shall send to the Registrar a statement setting out the facts and grounds on which he relies in support of the decision and a copy of such statement shall be sent by the Registrar to the appellant.

(4) Such notice may be withdrawn at any time by sending to the Registrar a notice of withdrawal in writing, and the Registrar shall thereupon send notice thereof to the Administrator.

12. The tribunal may at any time require the appellant or the Administrator to furnish it with Further particulars.

further particulars in writing and within such time as it may direct with regard to any appeal, and may at any stage of the proceedings allow the amendment of any notice of appeal, statement or particulars and extend the time for furnishing any statement or particulars.

Notice of hearing.

13. The Chairman shall as soon as may be practicable fix a date and place for the hearing, and the Registrar shall send not less than seven days' notice thereof to the Administrator and to the appellant.

Procedure at hearing.

14. (1) The Registrar shall be present at all sittings of the tribunal and the appellant, who in the case of a woman may be accompanied by another person, and the Administrator shall be entitled to be present during the hearing:

PROVIDED that for the purpose of discussing its decision on any matter the tribunal may order all persons, not being members of the tribunal or the Registrar, to withdraw from the sitting of the tribunal.

(2) The appellant shall be entitled to be heard at the hearing, either personally or through a member of his family, an advocate of the Court or, with the consent of the tribunal, any other person.

(3) The Administrator shall be entitled to be heard at the hearing, either personally or through a Law Officer of the Crown or such other person as the Administrator may appoint for the purpose.

(4) The Administrator and the appellant shall, subject to any legal objection, submit to be examined by the tribunal on oath or affirmation in relation to the matters in dispute and shall, subject as aforesaid, produce before the tribunal all books, deeds, papers, accounts, writings and documents within their possession or power respectively which may be required or called for, and do all other things which during the proceedings on the appeal the tribunal may require.

(5) The tribunal may adjourn the hearing from time to time as it may think fit.

(6) The tribunal may, if it thinks fit, admit any duly authenticated written statement or other material as prima facie evidence of any fact or facts in any case in which it thinks it just and proper so to do.

(7) The tribunal may, if it thinks fit, call for such documents and examine such witnesses, on oath, affirmation or otherwise, as appear to it likely to afford evidence relevant and material to the issue although not tendered by either the appellant or the Administrator.

(8) The Chairman or any party to any appeal may cause a summons to be served on any person, in the same manner as a summons may be served upon any person in respect of a civil action in the Magistrate's Court, summoning that person to attend any hearing by the tribunal for the purposes of giving evidence or of producing any document, and a person so summoned shall be under a like obligation as to the giving of any evidence and the production of any document as if he were so summoned in respect of a civil action before the said Court.

(9) If, after notice of the hearing has been duly given, the appellant or the Administrator fails to appear at the hearing, the tribunal may proceed to determine the matter as to which appeal is made notwithstanding the absence of both or either of them, or may give such directions with a view to the determination of the appeal as it thinks just and proper.

Decision of the tribunal.

15. The decision on any matter of the majority of the tribunal shall be the decision of the tribunal and the decision of the tribunal shall be in writing and signed by the Chairman or Deputy Chairman and shall be sent by the Registrar as soon as may be practicable to the Administrator and to the appellant; the Chairman or Deputy Chairman may correct in any decision of the tribunal any clerical error or mistake arising from any accidental slip or omission.

General provisions as to proceedings before the tribunal.

16. Subject to the provisions of the Law and of this Ordinance, the procedure on any matter shall be such as the Chairman of the tribunal may determine.

References by tribunal to the Court.

17. (1) If, at the hearing of any appeal under the provisions of subsection (1) of section thirteen of the Law, the tribunal decide that a question of law has arisen in connection with the determination of such appeal which it ought properly to refer to the Court for decision under subsection (2) of that section, it may refer such question to the Court in the manner prescribed by Order of the Court and the Chairman shall announce such decision of the tribunal to the appellant and to the Administrator, if either of them is present at the hearing, whereupon he shall forthwith adjourn the hearing.

(2) In the case of a decision by the tribunal being made in respect of any appeal under the foregoing subsection of this section, the Registrar shall in every case notify in writing the Administrator and the appellant of the decision.

(3) Where the tribunal has decided to refer a question of law to the Court, no further hearings of the appeal to which that question relates shall take place until the Court has notified the tribunal of its decision on that question, unless the Court shall request the tribunal to continue such hearing.

18. The Chairman shall, as soon as may be after the receipt by him of the notification of a decision by the Court on a question of law referred to the Court, reopen the hearing of the appeal to which the decision relates, and the tribunal shall proceed to determine the appeal in accordance with this Ordinance.

Reopening of hearing by the tribunal.

19. (1) The costs of any appeal shall be in the discretion of the tribunal, who may direct to and by whom and in what manner those costs or any part thereof shall be paid, and may settle the amount of costs to be so paid or any part thereof.

Costs of proceedings.

(2) In settling the amount of costs to be paid under the provisions of the last preceding sub-section the tribunal may include in such amount such portion of the fee of an advocate employed for the purposes of the appeal by the person to whom the costs are directed to be paid as is in the opinion of the tribunal reasonable.

20. No person shall sit as a member of the tribunal during the consideration of a matter—

cation of persons sitting on the tribunal.

(a) in which he appears as a representative of or accompanies the appellant; or

(b) by which he is or may be affected; and it is hereby declared that should any person so sit, the proceedings of the tribunal on the consideration of that matter shall be null and void.

21. (1) A copy of a decision of the Administrator shall be authenticated by the signature of an officer of the Authority, and a copy purporting to be signed by such officer shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be so signed.

Authentication of copies of Administrator's and tribunal's decisions.

(2) A copy of the decision of the tribunal on any appeal under section thirteen of the Law shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or Deputy Chairman, and a copy purporting to be so signed shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be so signed.

PART IV

General and Repeals

Suspension of the payment of a pension for non-compliance with the Ordinance.

22. Where a pensioner refuses or neglects without reasonable cause to comply with any of the provisions of Part II of this Ordinance, the Administrator may suspend the payment of a pension to that pensioner during the continuance of such refusal or neglect and the decision of the Administrator to that effect shall be notified in writing by the Administrator to that pensioner.

Persons unable to act.

23. (1) In the case of any person who is, or who is alleged to be, in need of a pension under the Law, or by whom or on whose behalf, an application has been made, and who is unable for the time being to act, where no guardian has been appointed, the Administrator may, upon written request being made to him, appoint a person to exercise on behalf of the person who is unable to act any right to which that person may be entitled under the Law and to receive and deal with any sums payable or assistance given in kind under the provisions of Part II of the Law to or by such person save that—

- (a) any such appointment by the Administrator shall terminate immediately on his being notified that a guardian has been so appointed;
- (b) a person who has not attained the age of twenty shall not be capable of being appointed to act under this section;
- (c) the Administrator may at any time in his absolute discretion revoke any appointment made under this section; and

(d) any person appointed under this section may, on giving the Administrator one month's notice in writing of his intention to do so, resign his office.

(2) Anything required by this Ordinance to be done by or to any such person as aforesaid who is unable to act may be done by or to the guardian, if any, or by or to the person appointed under this section to act on his behalf, and the receipt of any person appointed under this section shall be a good discharge to the Authority for any sum paid, notwithstanding that such person has not attained the age of twenty.

24. Any notice or other document required or authorised to be given or sent to any person or to the Authority or to the Administrator under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed to have been given or sent if it was sent by post, in the case of any person, to that person at his ordinary or last known address, or, in the case of the Authority or the Administrator, to the office of the Authority.

1. The available resources of an applicant shall be taken to be the aggregate amount of the resources of such persons as are mentioned in paragraph 1 of Part I of this Schedule computed in accordance with the provisions of this Part of this Schedule.

Disregard of the value of a residence

2. In taking into account the value to any person of an interest in the dwelling house in which he resides, any sum which might be obtained by him by selling that interest or borrowing money upon the security thereof shall be disregarded.

Treatment of other capital

3. Any capital resources not disregarded by virtue of the last foregoing paragraph shall—

- (a) so far as their aggregate value does not exceed fifty pounds, be disregarded together with all income therefrom;
- (b) so far as their aggregate value exceeds fifty pounds but does not exceed four hundred pounds, be treated as equivalent to a weekly income of sixpence for each complete twenty-five pounds and any actual income therefrom shall be disregarded;
- (c) so far as their aggregate value exceeds four hundred pounds be treated as part of the available resources of the applicant.

Disregard of business premises and stock in trade

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of the last preceding paragraph and subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Part of this Schedule any capital resources which consist of business premises or stock in trade or both which are wholly or partly used as the means of livelihood, other than by way of unearned income, of a person shall, if the Authority, in its discretion, so direct be disregarded.

Disregard of death grants

5. There shall be disregarded any death grant paid to a person under the provisions of the Contributory Pensions Laws, 1935 to 1955.

Disregard of free board and lodging

6. There shall be disregarded the cash value of any free board or free lodging or both which a person is enjoying.

Disregard of certain forms of income

7. (1) Any such payment or part of a payment as is specified in sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph shall be disregarded up to the amount of one pound a week or, if the person in question is in receipt of more than one payment so specified, up to the said amount in the aggregate.

(2) The payments and parts of payments hereinafter referred to are:—

- (a) the first ten shillings and sixpence a week of any payment of sick pay received from a friendly society or trade union;
- (b) the first ten shillings and sixpence a week of any superannuation payment or superannuation payments in respect of previous service or employment from which the recipient has retired or resigned (whether payable by a former employer or not), not being a payment—

- (i) on account of a pension under or by virtue of the Old Age and Blindness Pensions (Guernsey) Laws, 1950 and 1951, or under or by virtue of the Contributory Pensions Laws, 1935 to 1955, or under or by virtue of any enactment repealed by, amending or repealing and replacing those Laws, or
  - (ii) on account of a pension or other benefit payable under or by virtue of any legislation for the time being in force providing for a scheme of contributory pensions or other benefits in any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than this Bailiwick or in a place other than a place in Her Majesty's dominions;
- (c) the first ten shillings and sixpence a week of any of the following payments, that is to say—

  - (v) charitable payments;
  - (vi) annuities;
  - (vii) income from capital over which the owner has no control;
- (d) any dependant's war pension payable in respect of a child, reduced by the amount allowed for that child under either paragraph two or paragraph three of Part I of this Schedule;

- (e) any allowance payable by a father in respect of an illegitimate child reduced by the amount allowed for that child under either paragraph two or paragraph three of Part I of this Schedule;
- (f) the first ten shillings and sixpence a week of any of the following payments, that is to say:—
  - (i) any payments in respect of (and including any payment in respect of a dependant's allowance attached to any of the following payments or pensions):—
    - (a) wounds pensions granted to members of the naval, military or air forces of the Crown;
    - (b) retired pay of disabled commissioned officers granted on account of medical unfitness attributable to or aggravated by naval, military or air force service;
    - (c) disablement or disability pensions granted to members, other than commissioned officers, of the naval, military or air forces of the Crown on account of medical unfitness attributable to or aggravated by naval, military or air force service;
    - (d) disablement pensions granted to persons who have been employed in the nursing services of any of the naval, military or air forces of the Crown on account of medical unfitness attributable to or aggravated by naval, military or air force service;
    - (e) injury and disablement pensions payable under any scheme made under the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act 1914, the Injuries in War

(Compensation) Act, 1914 (Section 2), and the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act, 1915, or under any War Risks Compensation Scheme for the Mercantile Marine:

PROVIDED THAT, where the amount of any retired pay or pension to which the provisions of the last foregoing items (a) to (e) apply is not solely attributable to disablement or disability, the relief conferred shall extend only to such part of the said amount as the applicant shall prove to the satisfaction of the Administrator is attributable to disablement or disability;

- (ii) any payment in respect of a disablement pension awarded under the Personal Injuries (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939, including an increase in such a pension in respect of dependants;
- (iii) any payment under the scheme for providing benefits for persons injured or killed in Guernsey by enemy action and the scheme for providing benefits for the personnel of the Royal Guernsey Militia and of other Services engaged in the protection of the inhabitants of the Island against enemy action, both ratified by Resolution of the States on the 8th day of February, 1946;
- (iv) any weekly payment by way of compensation under any enactment relating to workmen's compensation;
- (v) any payment by way of a disablement pension to a person as a result of injuries received on duty as a police officer or as a fireman.

(3) No account shall be taken of the following payments, that is to say:—

- (a) any annuity or pension payable in consequence of a gallantry award to a former member of Her Majesty's Forces;
- (b) any allowances payable under the Family Allowances (Guernsey) Laws, 1950 and 1951;
- (c) any grant by the States Education Council in respect of a person who would be treated as a child for the purposes of the Family Allowances (Guernsey) Law, 1950.

Treatment of Earnings

8. (1) The portion of the earnings of such persons as are mentioned in paragraph one of Part I of this Schedule to be taken into account in computing the resources of an applicant, shall be taken to be the total amount of the net weekly earnings of those persons reduced by the amount allowed in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) The amount (which may be varied at the discretion of the Authority if there are special circumstances) to be allowed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall be as follows, that is to say—

- (a) the first 20s., and any amount in excess of the last complete shilling, where there are two or more such persons; or
- (b) the first 15s., and any amount in excess of the last complete shilling, in any other case.

Contribution towards household expenses

9. Where the applicant is the householder, or the husband or wife of the householder, his resources shall, unless there are special circumstances as determined by the Authority, be taken to include a contribution towards the expenses of the household from any member thereof who is not a dependant of his of an amount of 7s. a week, or of such less amount as determined by the Authority as is reasonable having regard to the said member's circumstances and personal responsibilities:

PROVIDED that where the resources of the said member are derived solely from a gainful occupation or occupations and his net weekly earnings—

- (i) amount to less than 70s. a week but more than 45s. a week, the amount of the contribution shall not be taken to exceed 5s. a week;
- (ii) amount to 45s. a week or less, but more than 25s. a week, the amount of the contribution shall not be taken to exceed 2s. 6d. a week;
- (iii) amount to 25s. a week or less, no contribution shall be taken to be so included.

Treatment of other resources

10. In computing the available resources of a person there shall be taken into account any resources not particularly mentioned in this Part of this Schedule.

Application of rules to aggregated resources

11. Where the resources of two or more persons are to be aggregated paragraphs three and seven of this Part of this Schedule shall apply to the aggregate of the resources of both or all the said persons.
