

Island of  Guernsey

Ordinance of the States XXXIV
1977

Made 28th September, 1977.
Coming into Operation ... 1st February, 1978.

The Nursing Homes Ordinance, 1977

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

1. Provision of facilities and services.
2. Limitation of numbers of persons in nursing homes.
3. Inspection of nursing homes.
4. Records.
5. Registration fee.
6. Offences.
7. Obstruction.
8. Interpretation.
9. Citation.
10. Commencement.

The Nursing Homes Ordinance, 1977

THE STATES, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by subsection (2) of section one and section twelve of the Nursing Homes and Residential Homes (Guernsey) Law, 1976(a), and by section five of the Law entitled "Loi précisant les pouvoirs de la Cour des Chef Plaids de décerner la peine d'emprisonnement et d'autoriser la visite des Prémises" registered on the twenty-third day of May, nineteen hundred and thirty-six(b), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby order:—

Provision of facilities and services.

1. The manager of a nursing home registered under the provisions of the Law shall—

- (a) provide for each patient efficient nursing care and for that purpose employ by day and by night suitable qualified and competent staff in numbers which are adequate having regard to the size of the home and the number and condition of the patients received therein;
- (b) provide for each patient in the home by day and by night reasonable accommodation and space having regard to the age, sex and condition of the patient, including the nature and degree of any illness or disability from which he is suffering;
- (c) provide adequate and suitable furniture, bedding, curtains and, where necessary, suitable screens and floor covering in rooms occupied or used by patients;

(a) Ordres en Conseil No. VII of 1976.

(b) Ordres en Conseil Vol. X p. 355.

- (d) provide appropriate and suitable medical and nursing equipment and treatment facilities, having regard to the condition of the patients received therein;
- (e) provide for the use of patients a sufficient number of wash-basins and baths fitted with a hot and cold water supply, a sufficient number of water-closets and any necessary sluicing facilities;
- (f) provide adequate light, heating and ventilation in all parts of the home occupied or used by patients;
- (g) keep all parts of the home occupied or used by patients in good structural repair, clean, tidy and reasonably decorated;
- (h) take adequate precautions against the risk of fire and accident, having regard in particular to the condition of such patients as are received therein;
- (i) provide sufficient and suitable kitchen equipment, crockery and cutlery, together with adequate facilities for the preparation and storage of food;
- (j) supply adequate, suitable and properly prepared food for every patient;
- (k) arrange for the regular laundering of linen and articles of clothing;
- (l) make suitable arrangements for the disposal of soiled dressings and other similar articles;
- (m) arrange as may be necessary for the provision for any patient of medical and dental services;

- (n) make suitable arrangements for the safe keeping and handling of drugs;
- (o) permit persons authorised in writing in that behalf by the Board to interview in private any person received into the home.

Limitation of numbers of persons in nursing homes.

2. (1) The Board may make it a condition of the registration of a person in respect of any nursing home that the number of persons or persons of any description who may be received into the home shall not exceed such number as may be specified in the certificate of registration.

(2) The Board may, upon the application of any person registered in respect of any nursing home or otherwise, vary the number of persons or persons of any description specified under the provisions of this Ordinance for that home and shall serve upon the person registered in respect of that home notice in writing of such variation and of the date (being a date not earlier than thirty days after the service of such notice) upon which the variation shall have effect.

(3) A notice under the last foregoing subsection shall not prohibit the retention in the home of persons accommodated in the home in excess of the permitted number at the time when the notice has effect.

Inspection of nursing homes.

3. A person authorised in writing in that behalf by the Board may (on production of such authority if so required) at all reasonable times enter a nursing home and may make such examination and inquiry as may be necessary to ascertain whether the provisions of this Ordinance are being complied with.

4. (1) The manager of a nursing home shall maintain a register of patients received into the nursing home which register shall include the following particulars:— Records.

- (a) the name and address of the patient;
- (b) the date on which the patient entered the nursing home;
- (c) the date on which the patient left the nursing home;
- (d) if the patient died at the nursing home, the date and hour of death.

(2) In the case of a maternity home, the register of patients maintained in accordance with subsection (1) of this section shall include, in addition to the particulars mentioned in that subsection, the following particulars:—

- (a) the date and hour of delivery of the patient, the number of children then born, their sex and whether born alive or dead;
- (b) the name of the person who delivered the patient;
- (c) the method of feeding each child and, if the method is varied, the period or periods during which each method was followed;
- (d) the date and hour of any miscarriage occurring in the home;
- (e) the date on which any child born to a patient in the nursing home left the nursing home;
- (f) if any child born to a patient in the nursing home died at the nursing home, the date and hour of death.

(3) The manager of a nursing home shall maintain a case record in respect of each patient which shall include the following particulars:—

- (a) in respect of a patient suffering from acute illness, or a patient to whom a child is born in the nursing home, a daily statement of the patient's health;
- (b) in respect of any other patient in the nursing home, a periodical statement of the patient's health.

(4) In the case of a maternity home, the manager shall in addition to the case records maintained in accordance with subsection (3) of this section maintain a case record in respect of each child born in the nursing home which shall include a daily statement of the child's health.

Registration fee.

5. The fee which shall accompany an application made under the provisions of section one of the Law for the registration of a person in respect of a nursing home shall be one pound.

Offences.

6. (1) Where the Board considers that the manager of a nursing home has failed or is failing to conduct the home in accordance with the provisions of section one of this Ordinance the Board may give written notice by post to the manager specifying in what respect the manager, in the opinion of the Board, has failed or is failing to comply with the requirements of that section and what, in the opinion of the Board, it is necessary for the manager to do so as to comply with the said requirements.

(2) Where notice has been given in accordance with the foregoing subsection of this section and a period of three months, or such shorter period as may have been specified in the notice, beginning with the date of the notice, has expired, any manager who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of section one of this Ordinance mentioned in the notice shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or, in the case of a second or subsequent offence, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

(3) Any person who receives persons or persons of any description into a nursing home in contravention of any condition or requirement imposed under section two of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or, in the case of a second or subsequent offence, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

7. Any person who wilfully obstructs—

Obstruction.

(a) the Medical Officer of Health or any person duly authorised in writing by the Board in accordance with the provisions of section nine of the Law in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the said section nine; or

(b) any person duly authorised in writing by the Board in accordance with the provisions of section three of this Ordinance in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the said section three, shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.

8. (1) In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation.

“the Board” means the States Board of Health;

“the Law” means the Nursing Homes and Residential Homes (Guernsey) Law, 1976;

“the manager” means the person or persons registered in respect of a nursing home under the provisions of the Law;

“nursing home” means any premises used or intended to be used for the reception of, and the providing of nursing for, persons suffering from any sickness, injury or infirmity, and includes a maternity home, but does not include any hospital maintained in whole or in part by the States;

and any other expressions have the same meanings as in the Law.

(2) Any reference in this Ordinance to any other enactment shall, except where the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to that enactment as amended, repealed and replaced, extended or applied by or under any other enactment including this Ordinance.

Citation. 9. This Ordinance may be cited as the Nursing Homes Ordinance, 1977.

Commencement. 10. This Ordinance shall come into force on the first day of February, nineteen hundred and seventy-eight.

R. H. VIDELO,
Her Majesty's Greffier.

Copies may be purchased from Her Majesty's Greffier, Royal Court House, Guernsey.

PRICE 8p.