Made 19th September 2007

Came into force 19th September 2007

THE IRAN (RESTRICTIVE MEASURES) (ALDERNEY) ORDINANCE, 2007

THE STATES OF ALDERNEY, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by sections 1 and 4 of the European Communities (Implementation) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1994(a) and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby order:-

1. Council Regulation (EC) No. 423/2007 of the 19th April, 2007(b), as amended(c), concerning restrictive measures against Iran, in view of the situation in Iran ("the EC Regulation") is applicable in Alderney in all respects as if Alderney, subject to the modifications in section 7, were a Member State.

Application of EC Regulation.

2. Any person who, except under the authority of a licence granted by the Policy Council under this Ordinance, directly or indirectly infringes any of the following prohibitions in the EC Regulation -

Prohibition of certain transactions etc.

- (a) Article 2(a), prohibiting the sale, supply, transfer or export, directly or indirectly, of the following goods and technology, whether or not originating in the Community, to any natural or legal person, entity or body in, or for use in Iran -

(a) Order in Council No. III of 1994.

(c) Commission Regulation (EC) No. 441/2007 of the 20th April, 2007, OJ L 104, 21.04.2007.

- (i) (i) all goods and technology contained in the Nuclear Suppliers Group and Missile Technology Control Regime lists and which are listed in Annex 1 to the EC Regulation, and
 - (ii) (ii) other goods and technology determined by the Sanctions Committee or the United Nations Security Council as goods and technology which could contribute to Iran's enrichment-related, reprocessing, or heavy water-related activities, or to the development of nuclear weapon delivery systems. These goods and technology are also listed in Annex I to the EC Regulation,
- (b) Article 2(b), prohibiting the participation, knowingly and intentionally in activities the object or effect of which is to circumvent the prohibition in Article 2(a),
- (c) Article 4, prohibiting the purchase, import or transport of goods and technology listed in Annex 1 to the EC Regulation, from Iran, whether the item concerned originates or not in Iran,
- (d) Article 5(a), prohibiting the provision, directly or indirectly, of technical assistance or brokering services related to the goods and technology listed in Annex I to the EC Regulation, and to the provision, manufacture, maintenance and use of any goods so listed, to any natural or legal person, entity or body in, or for use in Iran,
- (e) Article 5(b), prohibiting the provision of investment to enterprises in Iran engaged in the manufacture of goods and technology as listed in Annex I to the EC Regulation,
- (f) Article 5(c), prohibiting the provision, directly or indirectly, of financing or financial assistance related to goods and technology listed in Annex I to the EC Regulation, including in particular grants, loans and export credit insurance, for any sale, supply, transfer or export of such items or for any provision of related technical assistance to any natural or legal person, entity or body in, or for use in, Iran,

- (g) Article 5(1)(d), prohibiting the participation, knowingly and intentionally, in activities, the object or effect of which is to circumvent the prohibitions of Article 5(a), (b) or (c),
- (h) Article 7(3), prohibiting the provision, directly or indirectly, of funds or economic resources to or for the benefit of any natural or legal person, entity or body listed in Annexes IV and V to the EC Regulation,
- (i) Article 7(4), prohibiting the participation, knowingly and intentionally in activities the object or effect of which is, directly or indirectly, to circumvent the measures referred to in paragraphs prohibition in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of Article 7,

is guilty of an offence.

3. (1) Authorisation for the transactions or other activities set out in section 2, as provided for in Article 3, 5(2) or 6 of the EC Regulation, shall in Alderney be by way of a licence in writing granted by the Policy Council.

Licences.

- (2) If, for the purpose of obtaining a licence, any person -
 - (a) makes any statement or furnishes any document or information which to his knowledge is false in a material particular, or
 - (b) recklessly makes any statement or furnishes a document or information which is false in a material particular, he is guilty of an offence; and any licence granted in connection with the application for which the false statement was made or the false document or information furnished is void as from the time it was granted.

(3) Any person who, having acted under the authority of a licence granted under this section, fails to comply with any of the requirements or conditions to which the licence is subject is guilty of an offence, unless -

- (a) the licence had been previously modified by the Policy Council without that person's knowledge, and
- (b) the alleged failure to comply would not have been a failure had the licence not been so modified.

Furnishing of false information etc.

4. A person who in purported compliance with Article 3(3) and 13 of the EC Regulation intentionally furnishes any false information, document or explanation, or recklessly furnishes any information, document or explanation which is false, is guilty of an offence.

Penalties and proceedings.

5. (1) A person guilty of an offence under section 2, 3, 4 or paragraph 2(b) or (c) of the Schedule, is liable -

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both, or
- (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale or to both.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under paragraph 2(a) or 3(2) of the Schedule is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both.

(3) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, and the offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (3) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

6. (1) Section 55 of the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972(d) applies to the detention of a person for an offence under section 2 or 3 as it applies to the detention of a person for an offence under the customs Laws or excise Laws.

Certain provisions of customs and excise Law applicable.

(2) Sections 61 to 65 of the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972 apply in relation to offences, penalties and proceedings for offences under this Ordinance as they apply to offences, penalties and proceedings for offences under the customs Laws or excise Laws.

7. The Schedule has effect in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Policy Council, of information for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the EC Regulation.

Information.

SCHEDULE
INFORMATION

Section 6

1. (1) The Policy Council (or any person authorised by it for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) may request any person in or resident in Alderney to furnish or produce to it (or, as the case may be, to that authorised person) any information or document in his possession or control which the Policy Council (or, as the case may be, that authorised person) may require for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the EC Regulation; and a person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) No obligation of secrecy or confidence or other restriction on the disclosure of information to which any person may be subject, whether arising by statute, contract or otherwise, is contravened by reason of the disclosure by that person or by any of his officers, servants or agents of any information or document in compliance with this Schedule.

(3) Nothing in this Schedule compels the production by an advocate or other legal adviser of a communication subject to legal professional privilege; but an advocate or other legal adviser may be required to give the name and address of any client.

(4) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Schedule of failing to furnish any information or produce any document, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(5) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any such document.

2. A person who -

- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within the time and in the manner specified (or, if no time has been specified, within a reasonable time) to comply with a request made under this Schedule,

- (b) intentionally furnishes any false information, document or explanation, or recklessly furnishes any information, document or explanation which is false, to any person exercising his powers under this Schedule, or
- (c) with intent to evade the provisions of this Schedule, destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document, is guilty of an offence.

3. (1) No information furnished or document produced (including any copy or extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Schedule shall be disclosed except -

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced: provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this subparagraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to possession of that document in his own right,
- (b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Schedule to request that it be furnished or produced or any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of Alderney,
- (c) on the authority of the Policy Council, to the European Commission or to any of the competent authorities listed in Annex II to the EC Regulation, for the purpose of assisting the Commission or that competent authority to ensure compliance with the EC Regulation, or
- (d) for the purposes of the investigation, prevention or detection of crime or with a view to the instigation of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any criminal proceedings.

(2) A person who without reasonable excuse discloses any information or document in contravention of subparagraph (1) is guilty of an offence.
