The Legal Tender (Guernsey) Ordinance, 1983

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the twenty-fifth day of March, nineteen hundred and eighty-two, hereby order: –

Notes.

1. A tender of payment of money if made in –
  - (a) bank notes which immediately before the commencement of the Currency and Bank Notes Act, 1954, were legal tender in England and Wales,
  - (b) bank notes issued under section one of the Currency and Bank Notes Act, 1954,
  - (c) currency notes issued by Her Majesty's Treasury which are for the time being legal tender in England and Wales,
  - (d) States of Guernsey notes of any of the designs first issued on the twentieth day of March, nineteen hundred and eighty, mounted specimens of which for the purposes of identification have been signed by the Bailiff, endorsed by him with the said date and lodged at the Greffe,
  - (e) States of Guernsey notes of any design, other than those referred to in the last preceding paragraph, mounted specimens of which for the purposes of identification have been signed by the Bailiff, endorsed by him with the date on which they were first issued and lodged at the Greffe, shall be a legal tender for a payment of any amount.

Coins.

2. (1) A tender of payment of money, if made in coins which have been issued by the Mint in accordance with the provisions of section two of the Decimal Currency Act, 1967, or in accordance with the provisions of the Coinage Acts, 1870 to 1946, and which have not been called in by proclamation under paragraph (5) of section eleven of the Coinage Act, 1870, or if made in coins issued by the States of Guernsey, shall be a legal tender –

- (a) in the case of coins of a face value of one pound or more, for the payment of any amount,
- (b) in the case of coins of a face value of more than ten new pence but less than one pound sterling, for the payment of any amount not exceeding ten pounds sterling,
- (c) in the case of coins of a face value of not more than ten new pence but not less than five new pence, for the payment of any amount not exceeding five pounds sterling,
- (d) in the case of coins of a face value of less than five new pence, [but not less than one new penny,] for the
