The Swine Fever (Amendment) Ordinance, 1959

THE STATES LEGISLATION COMMITTEE, under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon them by paragraph (3) of Article sixty-six of the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, and upon the representations of the States Board of Administration, hereby order:—

1. Subsection (1) of section twenty-one of the Swine Fever Ordinance, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Ordinance”) is hereby repealed and the following subsection substituted therefor—

“(1) The Board may by order—

- (a) declare any of the Islands of Guernsey, Herm and Jethou, or any part of any of them, to be an Infected Area and such order shall have effect, subject to any exemption in writing granted by the Board and to such conditions as the Board may from time to time attach thereto, so as to—
 - (i) prohibit the movement of any swine out of or into the Infected Area;
 - (ii) prohibit the movement of any swine, other than carcasses thereof, from any premises in the Infected Area on which the swine were situate immediately prior to the coming into force of such order;
 - (iii) prohibit the slaughter of swine at any place in the Infected Area save that swine may be slaughtered in an Infected Place or at the States Slaughterhouse whether or not that Slaughterhouse is within the Infected Area;
 - (iv) require, during the continuance in force of such order, the owner of any swine which die in the Infected Area or which die outside the Infected Area having been in the Infected Area during the two weeks immediately preceding death to report the fact of such death, as soon as may be thereafter, to the States Veterinary Officer;
- (b) prohibit the export of any swine from any of the said Islands.”

2. This Ordinance and the principal Ordinance may be cited together as the Swine Fever Ordinances, 1955 and 1959.

3. This Ordinance shall come into force on the twenty-fourth day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.
