6. This Ordinance may be cited as The Yugoslavia and Serbia Citation. (Freezing of Funds and Prohibition on Investment) (Alderney) Ordinance, 1998.

SCHEDULE

Section 2

INFORMATION

1. (1) The Committee (or any person authorised by it for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) may request any person in or resident in the Bailiwick of Guernsey to furnish to it (or that authorised person) any information in his possession or control, or to produce to it (or that authorised person) any document in his possession or control, which the Committee (or that authorised person) may require for the purpose of ensuring compliance with relevant EC Regulations; and any person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) Nothing in sub-paragraph (1) shall require any person who has acted as counsel or solicitor for any person to disclose any privileged communication made to him in that capacity.

(3) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Schedule of failing to furnish any information or produce any document, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(4) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any such document.

2. Any person who -

- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within the time and in the manner specified (or, if no time has been specified, within a reasonable time) to comply with any request made under this Schedule;
- (b) intentionally furnishes false information or a false explanation to any person exercising his powers under this Schedule; or

- (c) with intent to evade the provisions of this Schedule, destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document, is guilty of an offence.

3. No information furnished or document produced (including any copy of an extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Schedule shall be disclosed except:

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced: provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this subparagraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to possession of that document in his own right; or
- (b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Schedule to request that it be furnished or produced or any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of the Bailiwick of Guernsey; or
- (c) on the authority of the Committee, to the Commission of the Communities or to any of the competent authorities of the Member States referred to in the relevant EC Regulations, for the purpose of assisting the Commission of the Communities or that competent authority to ensure compliance with the relevant EC Regulations; or
- (d) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings for an offence under this Ordinance.
