

"Guyana	the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Home Affairs"
"India	the Ministry of Home Affairs"
"Panama	the Ministry of Government and Justice"
"South Africa	the Department of Foreign Affairs"
"Uruguay	the Ministry of Education and Culture"

(3) The following entries are inserted in the appropriate places in the Second Schedule to the Ordinance:

"Argentina	when a judge has asked that a person be detained for the purpose of testifying in connection with the commission of an offence."
"Guyana	when a charge has been laid against a person for an offence."
"India	(a) when information relating to commission of any crime is received by any law enforcement agency empowered to investigate such crime under the law for the time being in force and laid before a court of law; (b) when any allegation is made orally or in writing to a court of law that a person has committed an offence; (c) when a person is charged with an offence;

(d) when any investigation or inquiry into the commission of any offence is directed by a court of law."

"Panama when a person has been charged with an offence."

"South Africa (a) when a summons is issued in respect of an offence;

(b) when a person is charged with an offence;

(c) when a bill of indictment is preferred."

"Uruguay when criminal proceedings are instituted by a judicial authority."

Citation

2. This Ordinance may be cited as the Drug Trafficking Offences (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1988 (Specified Countries and Territories) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1994.

K. H. TOUGH,
Her Majesty's Greffier.