Confiscation orders

Confiscation orders.

2. (1) Where a defendant appears before [the Court] to be sentenced in respect of one or more drug trafficking offences (and has not previously been sentenced or otherwise dealt with in respect of his conviction for the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned), then –

- (a) if Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under this section, or
- (b) if the Court considers that, even though Her Majesty's Procureur has not asked it to do so, it is appropriate for it to proceed under this section, it shall act as follows.

(2) The Court shall first determine whether the defendant has benefitted from drug trafficking.

(3) For the purposes of this Law, a person has benefitted from drug trafficking if he has at any time [(whether before or after the coming into force of this Law and whether directly or indirectly) acquired or received any payment or other reward (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any interest, dividend or other form of income or accrued value deriving directly, or indirectly, from that payment or reward)] in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another person [and if he has derived a pecuniary advantage as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct, he is to be treated as if he had obtained instead a sum of money equal to the value of the pecuniary advantage].

(4) If the Court determines that the defendant has so benefitted, the Court shall, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned, determine in accordance with section 5 the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of this section.

(5) The Court shall then, in respect of the offence or offences concerned –

- (a) order the defendant to pay that amount,
- (b) take account of the order before –
 - (i) imposing any fine on him,
 - (ii) making any order involving any payment by him, or
 - (iii) making any order under section 26 of the 1974 Law (forfeiture orders), and
- (c) subject to paragraph (b), leave the order out of account in determining the appropriate sentence or other manner of dealing with him.

(6) No enactment restricting the power of a court dealing with an offender in a particular way from dealing with him also in any other way shall by reason only of the making of an order under this section restrict the Court from dealing with an offender in any way it considers appropriate in respect of a drug trafficking offence.

(7) The standard of proof required to determine any question arising under this Law as to –

(a) whether a person has benefitted from drug trafficking, or

(b) the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of this section, is that applicable in civil proceedings [(that is to say, a balance of probabilities)].

(8) In this Law, "confiscation order" means an order under this section and includes, in particular, such an order made by virtue of section 13, 14 or 19.

NOTES

In section 2,

the words in square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Criminal Justice (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2022, section 3(2), with effect from 21st December, 2022;

the words in the first pair of square brackets in subsection (3) were substituted by the Drug Trafficking (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) (No. 2) Ordinance, 2010, section 1(2), with effect from 28th July, 2010;

the words in, first, the second pair of square brackets in subsection (3) and, second, square brackets in subsection (7) were inserted by the Drug Trafficking (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2007, respectively section 2 and section 3, with effect from 3rd December, 2007.

The following cases have referred to section 2:

Law Officers of the Crown v. Hutchinson (2004) (Unreported, Court of Appeal, 16th December) (Guernsey Judgment No. 61/2004); Gilbert v. Law Officers of the Crown (2006) (Unreported, Court of Appeal, 19th September) (Guernsey Judgment No 44/2006); 2005–06 GLR Note 30.

Postponed determinations.

3. (1) Where the Court is acting under section 2 but considers that it requires further information before –

- (a) determining whether the defendant has benefitted from drug trafficking, or
- (b) determining the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of that section, it may, for the purpose of enabling that information to be obtained, postpone making the determination for such period as it may specify.

(2) More than one postponement may be made under subsection (1) in relation to the same case.

(3) Unless it is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, the Court shall not specify a period under subsection (1) which –

- (a) by itself, or
- (b) where there have been one or more previous postponements under subsection (1) or (4), when taken together with the earlier specified period or periods, exceeds six months beginning with the date of conviction.

(4) Where the defendant appeals against his conviction, the Court may, on that account –

- (a) postpone making either or both of the determinations mentioned in subsection (1) for such period as it may specify, or
- (b) where it has already exercised its powers under this section to postpone, extend the specified period.

(5) A postponement or extension under subsection (1) or (4) may be made –

- (a) on application by the defendant or Her Majesty's Procureur, or
- (b) by the Court of its own motion.

(6) Unless the Court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, any postponement or extension under subsection (4) shall not exceed the period ending three months after the date on which the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.

(7) Where the Court exercises its power under subsection (1) or (4), it may nevertheless proceed to sentence, or otherwise deal with, the defendant in respect of the relevant offence or any of the relevant offences.

(8) Where the Court has so proceeded, section 2 shall have effect as if –

- (a) in subsection (4), the words ", before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned," were omitted, and

- (b) in subsection (5)(c), after "determining" there were inserted "in relation to any offence in respect of which he has not been sentenced or otherwise dealt with".

(9) In sentencing, or otherwise dealing with, the defendant in respect of the relevant offence or any of the relevant offences at any time during the specified period, the Court shall not –

- (a) impose any fine on him, or
- (b) make any such order as is mentioned in section 2(5)(b)(ii) or (iii).

(10) Where the Court has sentenced the defendant under subsection (7) during the specified period it may, after the end of that period, vary the sentence by imposing a fine or making an order as mentioned in section 2(5)(b)(ii) or (iii).

(11) In this section –

"the date of conviction" means –

- (a) the date on which the defendant was convicted, or
- (b) where he appeared to be sentenced in respect of more than one conviction, and those convictions were not all on the same date, the date of the latest of those convictions, and

"the relevant offence" means the drug trafficking offence in respect of which the defendant appears (as mentioned in section 2(1)) before the Court.

Assessing the proceeds of drug trafficking.

4. (1) For the purposes of this Law –

- (a) any payments or other rewards received by a person at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this Law) in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another person are his proceeds of drug trafficking, and
- (b) the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking is the aggregate of the values of the payments or other rewards.

(2) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the Court shall, for the purpose –

- (a) of determining whether the defendant has benefitted from drug trafficking, and
- (b) if he has, of assessing the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, make the required assumptions.

(3) The required assumptions are –

- (a) that any property appearing to the Court –
 - (i) to have been held by the defendant at any time since his conviction, or
 - (ii) to have been transferred to him at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, was received by him, at the earliest time at which he appears to the Court to have held it, as a payment or reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him,

- (b) that any expenditure of his since the beginning of that period was met out of payments received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him, and
- (c) that, for the purpose of valuing any property received or assumed to have been received by him at any time as such a reward, he received the property free of any other interests in it.

(4) The Court shall not make any required assumption in relation to any particular property or expenditure if –

- (a) that assumption is shown to be incorrect in the defendant's case, or
- (b) the Court is satisfied that there would be a serious risk of injustice in the defendant's case if the assumption were to be made, and where, by virtue of this subsection, the Court does not make one or more of the required assumptions, it shall state its reasons.

(5) Subsection (2) does not apply if the only drug trafficking offence in respect of which the defendant appears before the Court to be sentenced is an offence under section 57, 58 or 59.

(6) For the purpose of assessing the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking in a case where a confiscation order has previously been made against him, the Court shall leave out of account any of his proceeds of drug trafficking that are shown to the Court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under that order.

(7) References in subsection (6) to a confiscation order include a reference to a confiscation order within the meaning of the 1988 Law.

[(8) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a) a required assumption is not shown to be incorrect in the defendant's case in relation to any property or expenditure by reason of it being shown that –

- (a) the property was received by him as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him or another person or, as the case may be,
- (b) the expenditure was met out of payments received by him as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him or another person.

(9) In this section "criminal conduct" has the meaning it has in section 1(1) of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1999.]

NOTES

In section 4, subsection (8) and subsection (9) were inserted by the Drug Trafficking (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2007, section 4, with effect from 3rd December, 2007.

The following cases have referred to section 4:

Law Officers of the Crown v. Hutchinson (2004) (Unreported, Court of Appeal, 16th December) (Guernsey Judgment No. 61/2004); Gilbert v. Law Officers of the Crown (2006) (Unreported, Court of Appeal, 19th September) (Guernsey Judgment No 44/2006); 2005–06 GLR Note 30;

Amount to be recovered under confiscation order.

5. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the amount to be recovered in the defendant's case under the confiscation order is the amount the Court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking.

(2) If the Court is satisfied as to any matter relevant for determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made (whether by reason of the acceptance of an allegation made in a statement given under section 11 or made in the giving of information under section 12, or otherwise) the Court may issue a certificate giving the Court's opinion as to the matters concerned, and shall do so if satisfied as mentioned in subsection (3).

(3) If the Court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made is less than the amount the Court assesses to be the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, the amount to be recovered in the defendant's case under the confiscation order shall be –

- (a) the amount appearing to the Court to be the amount that might be so realised, or
- (b) a nominal amount, where it appears to the Court (on the information available to it at the time) that the amount that might be so realised is nil.

Meaning of "amount that might be realised" and "realisable property".

6. (1) For the purposes of this Law, the amount that might be realised at the time a confiscation order is made against the defendant is –

- (a) the total of the values at that time of all the realisable property held by the defendant, less
- (b) where there are obligations having priority at that time, the total amount payable in pursuance of such obligations, together with the total of the values at that time of all gifts caught by this Law.

(2) In this Law, "realisable property" means, subject to subsection (3) –

- (a) any property held by the defendant, and
- (b) any property held by a person to whom the defendant has directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Law.

(3) Property is not realisable property if there is in force in respect of it an order under any of the following enactments, namely –

- (a) section 26 of the 1974 Law (forfeiture orders),
- (b) section 11(2), (3) or (4) of the Prevention of Terrorism (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1990^b.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (1), an obligation has priority at any time if it is an obligation of the defendant –

- (a) to pay an amount due in respect of a fine, or other order of a court, imposed or made on conviction of an offence, where the fine was imposed or the order was made before the confiscation order, or
- (b) to pay any sum which, if the defendant's affairs had been declared to be in a state of désastre, would be included among the preferred debts (within the meaning of section 1 of the Preferred Debts (Guernsey) Law, 1983^c; and for the purposes of the said section 1 the relevant date shall be the date of the confiscation order.

7. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section and to section 8 [and section 8A], for the purposes of this Law the value of property (other than cash) in relation to any person holding the property is the market value of the property, except that, where any other person holds an interest in the property, the value is –

- (a) the market value of the first-mentioned person's beneficial interest in the property, less
- (b) the amount to discharge any encumbrance (other than a charging order) on that interest.

(2) Subject to section 8(2) [and section 8A], references in this Law to the value at any time (referred to in subsection (3) as "the material time") of a gift caught by this Law or of any payment or reward are references to –

- (a) the value of the gift, payment or reward to the recipient when he received it, adjusted to take account of subsequent changes in the value of money, or
- (b) where subsection (3) applies, the value there mentioned, whichever is the greater.

(3) Subject to section 8(2) [and section 8A], if at the material time the recipient holds –

- (a) the property which he received (not being cash), or
- (b) property which, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly represents in his hands the property which he received, the value referred to in subsection (2)(b) is the value to him at the material time of the property mentioned in paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, of the property mentioned in paragraph (b) so far as it so represents the property which he received, but disregarding in either case any charging order.

(4) References in this section to a charging order include a reference to a charging order within the meaning of the 1988 Law.

NOTE

In section 7, the words, figure and letter "and section 8A" in square brackets in, first, subsection (1) and, second, subsection (2) and subsection (3) were inserted by the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime and Drug Trafficking) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2023, respectively section 1(2)(a) and section 1(2)(b), with effect from 15th August, 2023.

Gifts caught by this Law.

8. (1) [Subject to section 8A,] a gift (including a gift made before the commencement of this Law) is caught by this Law if –

- (a) it was made by the defendant at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, or

(b) it was made by the defendant at any time and was a gift of property –

(i) received by the defendant in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another, or

(ii) which in whole or in part directly or indirectly represented in the defendant's hands property received by him in that connection.

(2) For the purposes of this Law –

(a) the circumstances in which the defendant is to be treated as making a gift can include those where he transfers property to another person directly or indirectly for a consideration the value of which is significantly less than the value of the consideration provided by the defendant, and

(b) in those circumstances, the provisions of subsection (1) and of section 7 shall apply as if the defendant had made a gift of such share in the property as bears to the whole property the same proportion as the difference between the values referred to in paragraph (a) bears to the value of the consideration provided by the defendant.

NOTE

In section 8, the words, figure and letter in square brackets in subsection (1) were inserted by the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime and Drug Trafficking) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2023, section 1(2)(c), with effect from 15th August, 2023.

[Treatment of real property vested by "saisie" proceedings.]

8A. (1) Subsection (2) applies where –

- (a) a final vesting order is made in relation to the real property of a debtor ("D"), and
- (b) D is subsequently a defendant in criminal proceedings instituted not more than six years after that final vesting order is made, and a confiscation order is made in those criminal proceedings.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where this subsection applies, the relevant amount shall, for the purposes of realising the amount in which the confiscation order is made, be treated as a gift made by D that is caught by this Law.

(3) In the criminal proceedings in which the confiscation order is made, the court may treat some or all of the relevant amount other than as a gift made by D that is caught by this Law, where it considers that to do so is in the interests of justice.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, subsection (2) applies whether or not D is connected in any way to the person in whom the real property has been vested by and under the final vesting order.

(5) In this section –

- (a) "the relevant amount" means the market value of the real property subject to the final vesting order at the time of the making of that order, and
- (b) other words and phrases in this section have the same meaning as in the Saisie Procedure (Simplification) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 1952.]

NOTE

Section 8A was inserted by the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime and Drug Trafficking) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2023, section 1(2)(d), with effect from 15th August, 2023.

Procedures for enforcing confiscation orders.

9. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where the Court orders the defendant to pay any amount under section 2, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order the defendant to be imprisoned in default of payment of the amount.

(2) When exercising its powers under subsection (1), the Court may in respect of a confiscation order of an amount in Column 1 below impose a term of imprisonment not exceeding the maximum period set out opposite that amount in Column 2 –

Column 1 Amount of confiscation order	Column 2 Maximum period
An amount not exceeding £200	7 days

An amount exceeding £250,000 but not exceeding £1 million	5 years
An amount exceeding £1 million	10 years and the States may by Ordinance amend the amounts and periods set out in the above table.

(3) The Court may, in its discretion, defer such imprisonment on such terms as it thinks fit.

(4) Where an order of imprisonment is made under this section, it shall cease to have effect on payment of the full amount ordered to be paid under section 2.

(5) Where an order of imprisonment is made under this section and payment is made of part of the amount ordered under section 2, the term of imprisonment to be served as a result of the order under this section shall be reduced in proportion to the amount paid.

(6) A term of imprisonment imposed under this section in default of payment shall be served consecutively to any term of imprisonment which the defendant may be liable to serve in respect of the offence or offences.

(7) The reference in subsection (6) to any term of imprisonment which the defendant is liable to serve in respect of the offence or offences is a reference to the term of imprisonment or youth detention (as the case may be) which he is liable to serve in respect of the offence or offences; and for the purposes of this subsection –

- (a) consecutive terms and terms which are wholly or partly concurrent are treated as a single term, and
- (b) the Court shall disregard any sentence which is suspended under section 1 of the Criminal Justice (Power to Suspend Sentence) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972^d and which has not been activated at the time when a term of imprisonment is imposed under this section.

(8) Where the defendant serves a term of imprisonment imposed under this section without satisfying the amount due under a confiscation order, his serving that term does not prevent the confiscation order from continuing to have effect, so far as any other method of enforcement is concerned.

(9) This section applies in relation to confiscation orders made by the Criminal Division of the Court of Appeal in the same way as it applies to such orders made by the Court, and references in this section to the Court shall be construed accordingly.

Interest on sums unpaid under confiscation orders.

10. (1) If any sum required to be paid by a person under a confiscation order is not paid when it is required to be paid, that person shall be liable to pay interest on that sum for the period for which it remains unpaid; and the amount of the interest shall for the purposes of enforcement be treated as part of the amount to be recovered from him under the confiscation order.

(2) The Court may, on the application of Her Majesty's Procureur, increase the term of imprisonment fixed in respect of the confiscation order under section 9(1) where subsection (1) applies and interest has accrued.

(3) The rate of interest under subsection (1) shall be that for the time being applying to a judgment debt under section 2 of the Judgments (Interest) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1985^e.

^e Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXIX, p. 133; amended by Order of the Royal Court No. I of 1996.

Statements relating to drug trafficking.

11. (1) Where Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under section 2, he shall give the Court, within such period as it may direct, a statement of matters which he considers relevant in connection with –

- (a) determining whether the defendant has benefitted from drug trafficking, or
- (b) assessing the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking.

(2) In this section, such a statement is referred to as a "prosecutor's statement".

(3) Where the Court proceeds under section 2 without Her Majesty's Procureur having asked it to do so, it may require him to give it a prosecutor's statement, within such period as it may direct.

(4) Where Her Majesty's Procureur has given a prosecutor's statement –

- (a) he may at any time give the Court a further such statement, and
- (b) the Court may at any time require him to give it a further such statement, within such period as it may direct.

(5) Where any prosecutor's statement has been given and the Court is satisfied that a copy of the statement has been served on the defendant, it may require the defendant –

Consolidated text

- (a) to indicate to it, within such period as it may direct, the extent to which he accepts each allegation in the statement, and
- (b) so far as he does not accept any such allegation, to give particulars of any matters on which he proposes to rely.

(6) Where the Court has given a direction or made a requirement under this section it may at any time vary it by giving a further direction or making a further requirement, as the case may be.

(7) Where the defendant accepts to any extent any allegation in any prosecutor's statement, the Court may, for the purposes of –

- (a) determining whether the defendant has benefitted from drug trafficking, or
- (b) assessing the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, treat his acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(8) If the defendant fails in any respect to comply with a requirement under subsection (5) he may be treated for the purposes of this section as accepting every allegation in the prosecutor's statement in question apart from –

- (a) any allegation in respect of which he has complied with the requirement, and
- (b) any allegation that he has benefitted from drug trafficking or that any payment or other reward was received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another person.

- (9) Where –
- (a) there is given to the Court by the defendant a statement as to any matters relevant to determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made, and
 - (b) Her Majesty's Procureur accepts to any extent any allegation in the statement, the Court may, for the purposes of that determination, treat the acceptance by Her Majesty's Procureur as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(10) An allegation may be accepted, or particulars of any matter may be given, for the purposes of this section in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of Court or as the Court may direct.

(11) No acceptance by the defendant under this section that any payment or other reward was received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another person shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings for an offence.

Provision of information by defendant.

- 12. (1) This section applies where –
- (a) Her Majesty's Procureur has asked the Court to proceed under section 2, or
 - (b) no such request has been made but the Court is nevertheless proceeding, or considering whether to proceed, under section 2.

(2) For the purpose of obtaining information to assist it in carrying out its functions, the Court may at any time order the defendant to give it such information as may be specified in the order.

(3) An order under subsection (2) may require all, or any specified part, of the required information to be given to the Court in such manner, and before such date, as may be specified in the order.

(4) Rules of Court may make provision as to the maximum or minimum period that may be allowed under subsection (3).

(5) If the defendant fails, without reasonable excuse (proof whereof shall lie on him), to comply with any order under this section, the Court may draw such inference from that failure as it considers appropriate.

(6) Where Her Majesty's Procurer accepts to any extent any allegation made by the defendant in giving to the Court information required by an order under this section, the Court may treat that acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(7) For the purposes of this section, an allegation may be accepted in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of Court or as the Court may direct.

Further proceedings in connection with confiscation orders

Reconsideration of case where Court has not proceeded under section 2.

13. (1) This section applies where the defendant has appeared before the Court to be sentenced in respect of one or more drug trafficking offences but the Court has not proceeded under section 2.

- (2) If Her Majesty's Procureur has evidence –
 - (a) which was not available to him when the defendant appeared to be sentenced (and accordingly was not considered by the Court), but
 - (b) which Her Majesty's Procureur believes would have led the Court to determine that the defendant had benefitted from drug trafficking if –
 - (i) Her Majesty's Procureur had asked the Court to proceed under section 2, and
 - (ii) the evidence had been considered by the Court, he may apply to the Court for it to consider the evidence.

(3) The Court shall proceed under section 2 if, having considered the evidence, it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.

(4) In considering whether it is appropriate to proceed under section 2, the Court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(5) Where, having decided to proceed under section 2, the Court proposes to make a confiscation order against the defendant, it shall order the payment of such amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(6) In considering the circumstances of any case the Court shall have regard, in particular, to the amount of any fine or fines imposed on the defendant in respect of the offence or offences in question.

(7) Where the Court is proceeding under section 2 by virtue of this section, subsection (4) of that section shall have effect as if the words ", before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned," were omitted.

(8) The Court may take into account any payment or other reward received by the defendant on or after the date of conviction, but only if Her Majesty's Procureur shows that it was received by the defendant in connection with drug trafficking carried on by the defendant or another person on or before that date.

(9) In considering under this section any evidence which relates to any payment or reward to which subsection (8) applies, the Court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 4.

(10) No application shall be entertained by the Court under this section if it is made after the end of the period of six years beginning with the date of conviction.

(11) Sections 11 and 12 shall apply where Her Majesty's Procureur makes an application under this section as they apply where Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under section 2.

(12) In this section, "the date of conviction" means –

- (a) the date on which the defendant was convicted, or
- (b) where he appeared to be sentenced in respect of more than one conviction, and those convictions were not all on the same date, the date of the latest of those convictions.

Re-assessment of whether defendant has benefitted from drug trafficking.

14. (1) This section applies where the Court has made a determination under section 2(2) ("the section 2(2) determination") that the defendant has not benefitted from drug trafficking.

(2) If Her Majesty's Procureur has evidence –

(a) which was not considered by the Court in making the section 2(2) determination, but

(b) which Her Majesty's Procureur believes would have led the Court to determine that the defendant had benefitted from drug trafficking if it had been considered by the Court, he may apply to the Court for it to consider that evidence.

(3) If, having considered the evidence, the Court is satisfied that it would have determined that the defendant had benefitted from drug trafficking if that evidence had been available to it, the Court –

(a) shall make –

(i) a fresh determination under section 2(2), and

(ii) a determination under section 2(4) of the amount to be recovered by virtue of section 2, and

(b) may make a confiscation order under section 2.

(4) Where the Court is proceeding under section 2 by virtue of this section, subsection (4) of that section shall have effect as if the words ", before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned," were omitted.

(5) The Court may take into account any payment or other reward received by the defendant on or after the date of the section 2(2) determination, but only if Her Majesty's Procurer shows that it was received by the defendant in connection with drug trafficking carried on by the defendant or another person on or before that date.

(6) In considering under this section any evidence which relates to any payment or reward to which subsection (5) applies, the Court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 4.

(7) No application shall be entertained by the Court under this section if it is made after the end of the period of six years beginning with the date of conviction; and, in this subsection, "the date of conviction" has the same meaning as in section 13.

(8) Sections 11 and 12 shall apply where Her Majesty's Procurer makes an application under this section as they apply where Her Majesty's Procurer asks the Court to proceed under section 2.

Revised assessment of proceeds of drug trafficking.

15. (1) This section applies where the Court has made a determination under section 2(4) of the amount to be recovered in a particular case by virtue of section 2 ("the current section 2(4) determination").

(2) Where Her Majesty's Procureur is of the opinion that the real value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking was greater than their assessed value, Her Majesty's Procureur may apply to the Court for the evidence on which he has formed his opinion to be considered by the Court.

(3) Sections 11 and 12 shall apply where Her Majesty's Procureur makes such an application as they apply where Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under section 2, but subject (in the case of section 11) to subsection (9)(a).

(4) If, having considered the evidence, the Court is satisfied that the real value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking is greater than their assessed value (whether because the real value at the time of the current section 2(4) determination was higher than was thought or because the value of the proceeds in question has subsequently increased), the Court shall make a fresh determination under section 2(4) of the amount to be recovered by virtue of section 2.

(5) In subsections (2) and (4) –

"assessed value" means the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking as assessed by the Court in accordance with section 5(1), and

"real value" means the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking which took place –

- (a) in the period by reference to which the current section 2(4) determination was made, or
- (b) in any earlier period.

(6) Where the Court is proceeding under section 2 by virtue of this section, subsection (4) of that section shall have effect as if the words ", before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned," were omitted.

(7) Any determination under section 2(4) by virtue of this section shall be by reference to the amount that might be realised at the time when the determination is made.

(8) In the case of any determination under section 2(4) by virtue of this section, section 4(6) shall not apply in relation to any of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking taken into account in respect of the current section 2(4) determination.

- (9) In relation to any such determination by virtue of this section –
- (a) sections 5(2), 6(4) and 11(9)(a) shall have effect as if for "confiscation order" there were substituted "determination",
 - (b) section 5(3) shall have effect as if for "confiscation order is made" there were substituted "determination is made", and
 - (c) section 6(1) shall have effect as if for "a confiscation order is made against the defendant" there were substituted "of the determination".

(10) The Court may take into account any payment or other reward received by the defendant on or after the date of the current section 2(4) determination, but only if Her Majesty's Procureur shows that it was received by the defendant in connection with drug trafficking carried on by the defendant or another person on or before that date.

(11) In considering under this section any evidence which relates to any payment or reward to which subsection (10) applies, the Court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 4.

(12) If, as a result of making the fresh determination required by subsection (4), the amount to be recovered exceeds the amount set by the current section 2(4) determination, the Court may substitute for the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order which was made by reference to the current section 2(4) determination such greater amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case ("the substituted amount").

(13) Where the Court varies a confiscation order under subsection (12), it may, if it thinks fit –

- (a) increase the term of imprisonment imposed in respect of the confiscation order, or vary any terms upon which such imprisonment was deferred, under section 9, or
- (b) where it had not previously made such an order of imprisonment, subject to section 9, order the defendant to be imprisoned in default of payment of the substituted amount.

(14) No application shall be entertained by the Court under this section if it is made after the end of the period of six years beginning with the date of conviction; and, in this subsection, "the date of conviction" has the same meaning as in section 13.

Increase in realisable property.

16. (1) This section applies where, by virtue of section 5(3), the amount which a person is ordered to pay by a confiscation order is less than the amount assessed to be the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking.

(2) If, on an application made in accordance with subsection (3), the Court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised in the case of the person in question is greater than the amount taken into account in making the confiscation order (whether it was greater than was thought when the order was made or has subsequently increased) the Court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving the Court's reasons.

(3) An application under subsection (2) may be made either by Her Majesty's Procureur or by Her Majesty's Sheriff as receiver appointed in relation to the realisable property of the person in question under section 26 or 29 or in pursuance of a charging order.

(4) Where a certificate has been issued under subsection (2), Her Majesty's Procureur may apply to the Court for an increase in the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order; and on that application the Court may –

- (a) substitute for that amount such amount (not exceeding the amount assessed as the value referred to in subsection (1)) as appears to the Court to be appropriate having regard to the amount now shown to be realisable ("the substituted amount"), and
- (b) increase the term of imprisonment imposed in respect of the confiscation order, or vary any terms upon which such imprisonment was deferred, under section 9, or, where it had not previously made such an order of imprisonment, subject to section 9, order the defendant to be imprisoned in default of payment of the substituted amount.

Inadequacy of realisable property.

17. (1) If, on an application made in respect of a confiscation order by

- (a) the defendant, or
- (b) Her Majesty's Sheriff as receiver appointed under section 26 or 29 or in pursuance of a charging order, the Court is satisfied that the realisable property is inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be recovered under the confiscation order, the Court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving the Court's reasons.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) –

- (a) in the case of realisable property held by a person whose affairs have been declared to be in a state of désastre, the Court shall take into account the extent to which any property held by him would be included among the preferred debts (within the meaning of section 1 of the Preferred Debts (Guernsey) Law, 1983^f); and for the purposes of the said section 1 the relevant date shall be the date of the confiscation order, and ^f Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXVIII, p. 184; No. VII of 1992; No. III of 1993 and No. IX of 1998.

- (b) the Court may disregard any inadequacy in the realisable property which appears to the Court to be attributable wholly or partly to anything done by the defendant for the purpose of preserving any property held by a person to whom the defendant had directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Law from any risk of realisation under this Law.

(3) Where a certificate has been issued under subsection (1), the person who applied for it may apply to the Court for an order reducing the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order.

(4) The Court, on an application under subsection (3) –

- (a) shall substitute for the amount to be recovered under the order such lesser amount as the Court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case, and
- (b) may substitute for the term of imprisonment imposed under section 9 in respect of the amount to be recovered under the order a shorter term in respect of the lesser amount, or vary any terms upon which such imprisonment was deferred.

(5) Rules of Court may make provision –

- (a) for the giving of notice of any application under this section, and
- (b) for any person appearing to the Court to be likely to be affected by any exercise of its powers under this section to be given an opportunity to make representations to the Court.

Compensation.

18. (1) If proceedings are instituted against a person for a drug trafficking offence or offences and either –

- (a) the proceedings do not result in his conviction for any drug trafficking offence, or
- (b) he is convicted of one or more drug trafficking offences but –
 - (i) the conviction or convictions concerned are quashed, or
 - (ii) he is pardoned by Her Majesty in respect of the conviction or convictions concerned, the Court may, on an application by a person who held property which was realisable property, order compensation to be paid to the applicant if, having regard to all the circumstances, it considers it appropriate to make such an order.

(2) The Court shall not order compensation to be paid in any case unless the Court is satisfied –

- (a) that there has been some serious default on the part of a person concerned in the investigation or prosecution of the offence or offences concerned, and
- (b) that the applicant has suffered loss in consequence of anything done in relation to the property by or in pursuance of an order of the Court under sections 26 to 29.

(3) The Court shall not order compensation to be paid in any case where it appears to the Court that the proceedings would have been instituted or continued even if the serious default had not occurred.

(4) The amount of compensation to be paid under this section shall be such as the Court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(5) Compensation payable under this section shall be paid by the States of Guernsey.

Confiscation orders where defendant has absconded or died

Powers of Court where defendant has absconded or died.

19. (1) Subsection (2) applies where a person has been convicted of one or more drug trafficking offences.

(2) If Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under this section, the Court may exercise its powers under this Law to make a confiscation order against the defendant if satisfied that the defendant has died or absconded.

(3) Subsection (4) applies where proceedings for one or more drug trafficking offences have been instituted against a person but have not been concluded.

(4) If Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under this section, the Court may exercise its powers under this Law to make a confiscation order against the defendant if satisfied that the defendant has absconded.

(5) The power conferred by subsection (4) may not be exercised at any time within two years from the date on which, in the opinion of the Court, the defendant absconded.

(6) In any proceedings on an application under this section –

- (a) section 4(2) shall not apply,
- (b) section 11 shall apply as it applies where Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under section 2, but with the omission of subsections (5), (7) and (8),
- (c) the Court shall not make a confiscation order against a person who has absconded unless it is satisfied that Her Majesty's Procureur has taken reasonable steps to contact him, and
- (d) any person appearing to the Court to be likely to be affected by the making of a confiscation order by the Court shall be entitled to appear before the Court and make representations.

(7) Where the Court makes a confiscation order under this section against a person who has absconded, it may make such order as it thinks fit under section 9.

(8) Where the Court –

- (a) has been asked to proceed under this section in relation to a defendant who has absconded, but

- (b) has decided not to make a confiscation order against him, section 14 shall not apply at any time while he remains an absconder.

(9) Where a confiscation order has been made in relation to any defendant by virtue of this section, section 15 shall not apply at any time while he remains an absconder.

Effect of conviction where Court has acted under section 19.

20. (1) Where, in the case of any defendant, the Court has made a confiscation order by virtue of section 19, the Court shall, in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned –

- (a) take account of the order before –
 - (i) imposing any fine on the defendant,
 - (ii) making any order involving any payment by him, or
 - (iii) making any order under section 26 of the 1974 Law (forfeiture orders), and
- (b) subject to paragraph (a), leave the order out of account in determining the appropriate sentence or other manner of dealing with him.

(2) Where the Court has made a confiscation order by virtue of section 19 and the defendant subsequently appears before the Court to be sentenced in respect of one or more of the offences concerned, section 2(1) shall not apply so far as his appearance is in respect of that offence or those offences.

Variation of confiscation orders made by virtue of section 19.

21. (1) This section applies where –
- (a) the Court has made a confiscation order by virtue of section 19(4), and
 - (b) the defendant has ceased to be an absconder.
- (2) If the defendant alleges that –
- (a) the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking in the period by reference to which the determination in question was made (the "original value"), or
 - (b) the amount that might have been realised at the time the confiscation order was made, was less than the amount ordered to be paid under the confiscation order, he may apply to the Court for it to consider his evidence.

- (3) If, having considered that evidence, the Court is satisfied that the defendant's allegation is correct, it –
- (a) shall make a fresh determination under section 2(4), and
 - (b) may, if it considers it just in all the circumstances, vary the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order.

Enforcement powers.

42. (1) The powers conferred on an enforcement officer by Schedule 2 shall be exercisable in relation to any ship to which section 40 or 41 applies for the purpose of detecting and the taking of appropriate action in respect of the offences mentioned in those sections.

(2) Her Majesty's Procureur may, either of his own motion or in response to a request from a Convention state, authorise a Convention state to exercise, in relation to a Guernsey ship, powers corresponding to those conferred on enforcement officers by Schedule 2 but subject to such conditions or limitations, if any, as he may impose.

(3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to any agreement made, or which may be made, by the United Kingdom on behalf of the Bailiwick whereby the Bailiwick, or any part thereof, as the case may be, undertakes not to object to the exercise by any other state in relation to a Guernsey ship of powers corresponding to those conferred by Schedule 2.

(3) Service by virtue of this section of any process as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) shall not impose any obligation under the law of any part of the Bailiwick to comply with it.

(4) Any such process served by virtue of this section shall be accompanied by a notice –

- (a) stating the effect of subsection (3),
- (b) indicating that the person on whom it is served may wish to seek advice as to the possible consequences of his failing to comply with the process under the law of the Convention state where it was issued, and

(2) Service of any process outside the Bailiwick by virtue of this section shall not impose any obligation under the law of any part of the Bailiwick to comply with it and accordingly failure to do so shall not constitute contempt of any court or be a ground for issuing a warrant to secure the attendance of the person in question.

(3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to the service of any process (with the usual consequences for non-compliance) on the person in question if subsequently effected in the Bailiwick.

Mutual provision of evidence

(4) In this section, "evidence" includes documents and other articles.

(5) Evidence obtained by virtue of a letter of request shall not without the consent of such an authority as is mentioned in subsection (2)(b) be used for any purpose other than that specified in the letter; and when any document or other article obtained pursuant to a letter of request is no longer required for that purpose (or for any other purpose for which such consent has been obtained), it shall be returned to such an authority unless that authority indicates that the document or article need not be returned.

(6) In exercising any discretion to exclude evidence which is otherwise admissible in relation to a statement contained in evidence taken pursuant to a letter of request the Court shall have regard –

- (a) to whether it was possible to challenge the statement by questioning the person who made it, and

 - (b) that proceedings in respect of that offence have been instituted in that state or that an investigation into that offence is being carried on there,

Her Majesty's Procureur may, if he thinks fit, institute proceedings before the Court for the purpose of receiving such of the evidence to which the request relates as may appear to the Court to be appropriate for the purpose of giving effect to the request.

(3) For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(a) and (b) Her Majesty's Procureur shall regard as conclusive a certificate issued by such authority in the Convention state in question as appears to him to be appropriate.

(4) In this section, "evidence" includes documents and other articles.

(5) Schedule 3 has effect with respect to the proceedings before the Court pursuant to this section.

Additional co-operation powers

Search, etc. for material relevant to overseas investigation.

48. (1) If, on an application made by an officer of police, the Bailiff is satisfied –

- (a) that criminal proceedings have been instituted against a person in the requesting Convention state or that a person has been arrested in the course of a criminal investigation carried on there,
- (b) that the conduct constituting the offence which is the subject of the proceedings or the investigation would constitute a drug trafficking offence if it had occurred in any part of the Bailiwick, and
- (c) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is on premises in the Bailiwick occupied or controlled by that person evidence relating to the offence other than items subject to legal professional privilege, he may issue a warrant authorising an officer of police to enter and search those premises and to seize any such evidence found there.

(2) The power to search conferred by subsection (1) is only a power to search to the extent that is reasonably required for the purpose of discovering such evidence as is there mentioned.

and any evidence seized by an officer of police by virtue of this section shall be furnished by him to Her Majesty's Procureur for transmission to that court, tribunal or authority.

(4) If in order to comply with the request it is necessary for any such evidence to be accompanied by any certificate, affidavit or other verifying document the officer of police shall also furnish for transmission such document of that nature as may be specified by Her Majesty's Procureur.

(5) Where the evidence consists of a document, the original or a copy shall be transmitted and, where it consists of any other article, the article itself or a description, photograph or other representation of it shall be transmitted, as may be necessary in order to comply with the request.
