Ordinance of the States. XV
1954

Made 6th October, 1954.
Coming into Operation ... 6th October, 1954.

The Road Traffic (Airport Roads and Traffic Signals) Ordinance, 1954.

THE STATES, on the representations of the States Board of Administration and in pursuance of their Resolution of the 2nd day of June, 1954, hereby order:—

1. The Road Traffic Ordinance, 1948, is hereby repealed.

2. A person being in charge of a vehicle other than a bicycle or of an animal shall not, without the permission of the Airport Commandant or the duty Air Traffic Control Officer, proceed with that vehicle or animal or permit that animal to proceed on or along so much of La Planque Lane in the parishes of the Forest, St. Andrew and St. Saviour as extends from a point twenty yards to the west of the western side of the house known as Le Chalet to a point seventy yards to the east of the eastern side of the house known as La Croute.

3. (1) A person being in charge of a vehicle or of an animal shall not proceed with that vehicle or animal or permit that animal to proceed on or along any road bordering La Villiaze Airport in such manner as to pass any traffic signal on that road when such signal is displaying a red light unless otherwise directed and in such manner as may be prescribed by that traffic signal.

(2) For the purposes of this section the expression "traffic signal" includes any signal, warning, sign post, direction post, sign or other device for the guidance or direction of persons using the roads.

4. The expressions "vehicle" and "animal" shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, have the meanings respectively assigned to them by the Road Traffic (Prohibited and One-way Streets) Ordinance, 1951.

5. Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and on the second and every subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

R. A. MALLETT,

Her Majesty's Deputy Greffier.
