Ordinance of the States XVIII
1981

Made 1st October, 1981.
Came into Operation ... 1st October, 1981.

The Road Traffic (Compulsory Third-Party Insurance) (Amendment) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 1981

THE STATES, on the representations of the States Board of Administration and in exercise of the powers now vested in them by section twelve and section fourteen of the Road Traffic (Compulsory Third-Party Insurance) (Guernsey) Law, 1936, as amended(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby order:—

1. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Part 2 of the Schedule to the Road Traffic (Compulsory Third-Party Insurance) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 1972, as amended(b), are hereby repealed and the following paragraphs are hereby respectively substituted therefor—

Amendments to the Ordinance of 1972.

“1. Every certificate shall be printed and completed in black on white paper or similar material. This provision shall not prevent the reproduction of a seal or monogram or similar device referred to in paragraph 2 of this Part of this Schedule, or the presence of a background pattern (of whatever form and whether coloured or not) on the face of the form which does not materially affect the legibility of the certificate.

2. No certificate shall contain any advertising matter, either on the face or on the back thereof:

Provided that the name and address of the company by whom the certificate is issued, or a reproduction of the seal of the company or any monogram or similar device of the company, or the name and address of an insurance broker, shall not be deemed to be advertising matter for the purposes of this paragraph if it is printed or stamped at the foot or on the back of such certificate, or if it forms, or forms part of, any such background pattern as is referred to in the foregoing paragraph.”.
