(No. XX—1963)

The Road Traffic (Parking Places)
Ordinance, 1963

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the twenty-seventh day of February, nineteen hundred and sixty-three, and on the representations of the Island Police Committee, hereby order:—

Powers of Committee
as respects parking places.

1. (1) The Island Police Committee (hereinafter referred to as “the Committee”) may, from time to time, by order:—

(a) designate such areas or parts of public highways (hereinafter referred to as “disc parking places”) as it considers necessary or desirable for use for the parking of vehicles using a parking disc in accordance with the provisions of section three of this Ordinance;

- (b) designate such areas or parts of public highways (hereinafter referred to as "approved parking places") as it considers necessary or desirable for use for the parking of vehicles or motor bicycles;
- (c) prescribe the conditions subject to which a person, being in charge of a vehicle or a motor bicycle, may park that vehicle or motor bicycle in a disc parking place or an approved parking place;
- (d) prescribe the period during which a person, being in charge of a vehicle or a motor bicycle, may park that vehicle or motor bicycle in a disc parking place or an approved parking place;
- (e) prescribe the class of vehicle or motor bicycle which may be parked in a disc parking place or an approved parking place.

(2) An order made under the provisions of the last preceding subsection may make different provisions for different disc parking places and for different approved parking places and for different classes of vehicles and may make different provisions for different categories of vehicles within those classes.

2. Subject to the provision of any order made under the provisions of the last preceding section, a person, being in charge of a vehicle or a motor bicycle—

Persons may park in parking places.

- (a) may, subject to the provisions of the next succeeding section, park that vehicle in a disc parking place, and
- (b) may park that vehicle or motor bicycle in an approved parking place.

 Persons must use discs in certain parking places.

3. A person who, being in charge of a vehicle, parks that vehicle in a disc parking place on any weekday shall, as soon as may be after arriving thereat, set the clock hands of a parking disc to indicate the time at which the vehicle arrived at the disc parking place and shall fix the parking disc against the internal face of the windscreen of the vehicle or, if the vehicle has no windscreen, at a convenient place, on the left or near side of the vehicle, in such manner that the clock face on the parking disc may be distinctly seen by a person outside or alongside the vehicle.

Time during which parking permitted.

4. (1) A person, being in charge of a vehicle, shall not allow that vehicle to remain parked in a disc parking place or an approved parking place for any continuous period reckoned from the time at which the vehicle arrived thereat, greater than that prescribed as respects that disc parking place or approved parking place, as the case may be, by an order made under the provisions of section one of this Ordinance and such person shall, at the expiration of such period, remove that vehicle from within the limits of that disc parking place or approved parking place.

(2) For the purposes of the last preceding subsection as respects disc parking places, the time indicated by the clock hands of a parking disc fixed to a vehicle parked in a disc parking place shall, until the contrary be proved, be presumed to be the time at which the vehicle last arrived thereat.

Parking Signs.

5. The Committee may, from time to time, erect, maintain and alter on or near any public highway signs indicating—

- (i) the limits of any disc parking place or approved parking place;
- (ii) the conditions upon and the manner in which any disc parking place or approved parking place shall be used.

6. The Committee shall, as soon as may be after the making of an order under the provisions of section one of this Ordinance, cause a notice to be published in "La Gazette Officielle" setting out the contents of the order.

Notices as to orders made.

7. Any person who—

Offences.

- (a) contravenes the provisions of section three or section four of this Ordinance; or
- (b) contravenes the provisions of an order made under the provisions of section one of this Ordinance or fails to comply with any condition prescribed in any such order; or
- (c) parks a vehicle in a disc parking place and knowingly sets the clock hands of the parking disc fixed to the vehicle in such manner as to indicate an incorrect time of arrival; or
- (d) with intent to deceive, alters the clock hands of a parking disc fixed to a vehicle parked in a disc parking place;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten pounds and, on a second or any subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds.

8. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say—

Interpretation.

"park" means the stationing on a public highway of a vehicle or a motor bicycle, as the case may be, whether attended or unattended, but does not include the stopping of a vehicle or a motor bicycle to set down or pick up passengers;

"parking disc" means a parking disc of such type as may, from time to time, be approved by the Committee;

"public highway" includes any road, street, lane or public place;

- 1963
 "vehicle" means a mechanically propelled vehicle intended or adapted for use on the public highway and includes a motor bicycle combination and a motor tricycle but does not include a motor bicycle.
- Repeals. 9. The Ordinances set out in the left hand column of the Schedule to this Ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent set out in the right hand column thereof.
- Citation. 10. This Ordinance may be cited as the Motor Vehicles (Parking Places) Ordinance, 1963.
- Commencement. 11. This Ordinance shall come into force on the twelfth day of August, nineteen hundred and sixty-three.
