Ordinance of the States XXII

Made .. .. 12th December, 1951.
Coming into operation .. 12th December, 1951.

1951

The States Insurance Authority (Constitution) Ordinance, 1951.

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 14th day of November, 1951, under and by virtue of the powers vested in them by the National Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1951, hereby order:—

1. The States Insurance Authority (hereinafter referred to as “the Authority”) to be constituted for the purpose of administering the provisions of the National Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1951, and for the purpose of controlling the system of insurance instituted thereby, shall be constituted in manner provided in this Ordinance.

2. (1) The Authority shall consist of a President, the Administrator and four other members (hereinafter referred to as “ordinary members”).

(2) The Administrator shall have a voice but shall have no vote.

(3) The President and the ordinary members shall be members of the States and shall be elected by the States. After the institution of the system of insurance referred to in section one of this Ordinance, two at least of such ordinary members shall be persons who are contributors thereto.

3. The term of office of the President of the Authority shall be that prescribed from time to time by resolution of the States with respect to Presidents of States committees.

4. (1) The Authority shall elect annually a Vice-President of the Authority from among the ordinary members, and the person so elected shall, if he so long continues to be an ordinary member, hold office as Vice-President of the Authority for a period of one year commencing on the 1st day of February next following the date of such election, provided that the person first elected as Vice-President of the Authority shall, if he so long continues to be an ordinary member, hold office from the date of election until the 31st day of January, 1953.

(2) On the death or retirement otherwise than by effluxion of time of the person holding the office of Vice-President of the Authority, the Authority shall elect one of the ordinary members to fill the office so vacated for the remainder of the term then current.

5. A meeting of the Authority shall, in the absence of the President and Vice-President, be presided over by one of the ordinary members appointed for that meeting by the ordinary members present thereat.

6. (1) Two ordinary members of the Authority shall retire from office on the 31st day of January, 1954, and thereafter two such members shall retire on the 31st day of January terminating each succeeding period of two years.

(2) The two ordinary members to retire in accordance with the provisions of the last foregoing subsection shall be the two ordinary members who have held office longest since they were last elected by the States, provided that where more than two ordinary members were elected on the same date the order of their retirement shall be determined by agreement among themselves, or failing such agreement, by lot.

7. This Ordinance shall come into force on the 12th day of December, 1951.
