The Traffic Offences (Fixed Penalties) Ordinance, 1989

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 16th day of March 1988, and on the representations of the Island Police Committee, hereby order: –

Fixed penalty offences.

1. This Ordinance applies to the offences specified in column 1, and broadly described in column 2, of Schedule 1 to this Ordinance, except for offences committed by causing or permitting the use of a vehicle by another person in a particular manner or in particular circumstances; and offences to which this Ordinance applies are referred to in it as "fixed penalty offences".

Fixed penalty notices.

2. (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance a "fixed penalty notice" is a notice in the form set out in Schedule 2 to this Ordinance, with such variations as the circumstances may require, offering the opportunity of the discharge of any liability to conviction of the offence to which it relates by payment of a fixed penalty in accordance with this Ordinance; and a fixed penalty notice may be contained within a cover bearing the words "fixed penalty notice" and instructions for its extraction.

(2) If an authorised police officer finds a person on any occasion and has reason to believe that, on that occasion, that person is committing or has committed any fixed penalty offence, he may issue a fixed penalty notice in respect of that offence by giving it to that person.

(3) If an authorised police officer finds a motor vehicle on any occasion and has reason to believe that, on that occasion, any fixed penalty offence is being or has been committed in respect of that motor vehicle, he may issue a fixed penalty notice in respect of that offence by affixing it to that motor vehicle.

(4) A fixed penalty notice shall not relate to more than one offence.

(5) A fixed penalty notice shall –

(a) give sufficient particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence to which it relates to provide reasonable information about the alleged offence,

(b) bear a number and the date of its issue,

(c) specify –

(i) the amount of the fixed penalty (being the amount specified in relation to the offence concerned in column 3 of Schedule 1 to this Ordinance), and

(ii) the manner in which, and the place (being any of the places for the time being prescribed by an order made under section 5(1) of this Ordinance) at which, the fixed penalty may be paid to the [Chief Accountant], and

(d) state that the fixed penalty may be paid within the 7 days following the date of issue of the notice.

NOTE

In section 2, the words in square brackets were substituted by the States Treasurer (Transfer of Functions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2008, section 1, with effect from 1st February, 2008, subject to the savings and transitional provisions in section 2 of the 2008 Ordinance.

Notice to owner.

3. (1) If, after the expiration of the 7 days following the issue of a fixed penalty notice in relation to an offence committed in respect of a motor vehicle, the amount of the fixed penalty specified in it has not been paid in accordance with this Ordinance, the Chief Officer may serve a notice under this section (a "notice to owner") on the person appearing to him to be the owner of that motor vehicle.

(2) A notice to owner may be in any form from time to time determined by the Chief Officer, but shall contain –

(a) the particulars which were contained in the fixed penalty notice concerned pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of section 2(5) of this Ordinance, and

(b) a request to the person on whom the notice to owner is served either –

(i) to ensure that the amount of the fixed penalty is paid in accordance with this Ordinance, or

(ii) to furnish the Chief Officer with a true statement, signed by that person and in such form (if any) as may be specified in the notice, to the effect that, at the time of the alleged offence, either he was not the owner of the vehicle or it was in the possession of another person without his consent, within 14 days of the date of the notice, and

(c) a statement of the consequences of failing to comply with that request.

(3) Those consequences are that –

(a) proceedings in respect of the offence referred to in the fixed penalty notice concerned may be brought against the person on whom the notice to owner was served, and

(b) for the purposes of those proceedings it shall be conclusively presumed (even if that person is not an individual) that he was in charge of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence and, accordingly, that acts or omissions of the person in charge of the vehicle at that time were his acts or omissions.

Suspending effect of notices.

4. Proceedings shall not be taken against any person for an offence in respect of which a fixed penalty notice has been issued in accordance with section 2 of this Ordinance –

- (a) during the 7 days following the date of issue of the notice, or
- (b) if the amount of the fixed penalty is paid in accordance with this Ordinance within those 7 days, or
- (c) during the 14 days following the date of any notice to owner served in respect of that offence, or
- (d) if the amount of the fixed penalty is paid in accordance with this Ordinance within those 14 days.

Payment of fixed penalty.

5. (1) A fixed penalty is paid in accordance with this Ordinance only if –

- (a) the full amount of the fixed penalty specified in the fixed penalty notice is paid to the [Chief Accountant] within the period specified in that notice or in a notice to owner served in respect of it, and
- (b) the payment is made at such place, and in such manner, as the [States Home Department] may prescribe by an order made under this subsection, and penalty notice, or

(2) An order made under subsection (1) of this section –

- (a) may make different provision for different cases and circumstances,
- (b) may be varied, or revoked and replaced, by a subsequent order so made,
- (c) shall be laid before a meeting of the States as soon as possible after it is made; and if at that meeting or their next meeting the States resolve that the order be annulled it shall cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything done under it or to the making of a new order.

(3) If any requirement of subsection (1) of this section is not complied with by a person [paying] a fixed penalty to the [Chief Accountant], [he shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, repay the amount paid to him in respect of that fixed penalty].

(4) When a fixed penalty is paid in accordance with this Ordinance –

- (a) the [Chief Accountant] shall, as soon as reasonably practicable –
- (i) inform the Chief Officer of the payment, and
 - (ii) if the person making the payment requests a receipt and either makes it in person or gives a name and address to which the receipt may be sent, provide a receipt bearing the number of the fixed penalty notice concerned, and]
