THE POST OFFICE (OVERSEAS PARCEL POST) ORDER, 1973

THE STATES POST OFFICE BOARD, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by sections thirteen, sixteen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty-three, twenty-eight and sixty-eight of the Post Office (Guernsey) Law, 1969, as amended, hereby orders:-

PART I

Rates of Postage and General Conditions

Rates of postage

1.(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), there shall be charged and paid on outgoing parcels postage at the rates specified in Part I of the First Schedule to this Order.

(2) In the case of outgoing parcels (other than air parcels):

- (a) addressed to a person on board a ship of the Royal Navy (whether on the high seas or in any port or place outside the Bailiwick); or
- (b) posted for transmission through a British Forces' Post Office to a member of the armed forces of the United Kingdom or of any other Commonwealth country serving outside the Bailiwick, or to a member of the armed forces of a State allied to the United Kingdom serving outside the Bailiwick with the armed forces of the United Kingdom or of any other Commonwealth country, there shall be charged and paid thereon postage at the rates specified in Part 2 of the First Schedule to this Order.

Prohibitions

2. (1) Save as the Board may either generally or in any particular case allow, there shall not be conveyed or delivered by post any parcel of a description referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) of section nineteen of the Law.

(2) Subject to the powers of the Board under section eight of this Order, there shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any parcel:-

- (a) containing:-
 - (i) opium, morphine, cocaine or other narcotic: Provided that such narcotics may be sent for medical or scientific purposes to countries which admit them when sent for those purposes by parcel post;
 - (ii) any living creatures, other than bees, leeches and silkworms;
 - (iii) anything which by the law of the country or place in which the parcel is posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass, it is unlawful respectively to send, import or convey by parcel post;
 - (iv) save as the Board may either generally or in any particular case allow, coin, gold bullion, and silver bullion, or silver partly manufactured exceeding two hundred pounds in value;
 - (v) any imitation of a bank note or States of Guernsey note within the meaning of subsection (1) of section four of the Legal Tender (Guernsey) Ordinance, 1970.
- (b) containing or bearing any fictitious stamp (not being a fictitious stamp made with the approval of the Board), or any counterfeit impression of a franking machine used under the direction or by the permission of the Board, or any counterfeit of any other impression authorised by or under the provisions of this Order to be used to denote payment of postage or fees;

- (c) containing or having thereon any letter, except so far as may be permitted by the relative postal arrangement;
 - (d) having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, letters or marks (used without due authority) which signify or imply, or may reasonably lead the recipient thereof to believe, that the parcel is sent on Her Majesty's Service or on behalf of the States;
 - (e) of such a form or colour or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely in the opinion of the Board to embarrass the officers of the States Post Office in dealing with the parcel;
 - (f) having anything written, printed or otherwise impressed upon or attached to any part of the parcel which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address of the parcel or by inconvenient proximity to the stamp or stamps used to denote payment of postage or fees, or in any other way, is in itself, or in the manner in which it is written, printed, impressed or attached, likely in the opinion of the Board to embarrass the officers of the States Post Office in dealing with the parcel;
 - (g) bearing any stamp or impression of a franking machine, press or device denoting payment of postage or fees which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced within the meaning of this provision by reason only that it is distinctively perforated with initials by means of a punch if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps;
 - (h) whereon the payment of any postage or fees purports to be denoted by any stamp or impression which has been previously used to denote payment of the postage or fees on any postal packet or on any other tax, duty or impost;
 - (i) consisting of or containing two or more parcels or other postal packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons who are at different addresses.
- (3) Subject as aforesaid, there shall not be posted or conveyed by post an outgoing uninsured parcel containing coin, bank notes, currency notes, securities or instruments payable to bearer, platinum, gold or silver whether manufactured or not, jewellery, or other valuable articles:-
- (a) addressed to a country or place to which, under the relative postal arrangement, insured parcels may be sent from the Bailiwick; or
 - (b) addressed to any other country or place, if the parcel does not comply with the provisions of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section seventeen of this Order.

Packing

3. Every parcel shall be made up and secured in such manner as in the opinion of the Board is calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, to prevent any tampering with the contents, and to prevent injury to any other postal packet in course of conveyance, or to any receptacle in which the same is conveyed, or to an officer of the States Post Office or other person who may deal with such packet.

Limits of weight and size

4. (1) Save as the Board may either generally or in any particular case allow, no parcel shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post the length of which exceeds three feet six inches or the combined length and girth of which exceeds six feet seven inches (the girth to be measured round the thickest part) or the weight of which exceeds twenty-two pounds or such lesser length, combined length and girth, or weight as may be provided for in the relative postal arrangement.

(2) Save as aforesaid, no parcel shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post unless its size is within the following minimum limits:-

- (a) where the parcel is made up in the form of a roll, its length and twice its diameter taken together shall be not less than six and three quarter inches, and either its length or its diameter shall be not less than four inches;
- (b) otherwise, the parcel shall have at least one surface measuring not less than five and one half inches in length and not less than three and one half inches in breadth:
Provided that the foregoing minimum limits of size shall not apply to a parcel having securely tied or affixed to it a rectangular address label of cardboard or strong paper of which two adjacent sides together measure not less than six and three quarter inches and of which the shorter side measures not less than two and three quarter inches.

Fees for dutiable parcels

5. Where an incoming parcel contains any article liable to any tax, duty or impôt, and the Board so directs, there shall be charged and paid by the addressee if the parcel shall be delivered to him the further fee of twenty-five new pence.

Posting

6. (1) All outgoing parcels shall be posted: (a) by being handed to an officer of the States Post Office on duty at the counter of a post office designated by the Board for that purpose, on the days and within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of parcels, or (b) (in circumstances in which the Board permits that mode of posting) by being handed to an officer of the States Post Office for the time being authorised by the Board to receive parcels for the post otherwise than as aforesaid.

(2) Every outgoing parcel shall bear the name and full address of the addressee, which shall be written by means other than a pencil, or by means of a copying-ink pencil applied to a surface made damp for the purpose.

(3) On the posting of an outgoing parcel, the sender shall fill up a despatch note in a specified form if required so to do, and shall fill up such customs declarations, certificates, and other documents and affix such labels respecting the contents of the parcel as may be required by the law of the country or place in which the parcel is posted or to which it is addressed, or as the Board may direct.

Payment of postage and fees

7. (1) Except as the Board may otherwise direct, and subject to the provisions of this Order, the postage and fees payable on every outgoing parcel shall be prepaid.

(2) The provisions of this Order with reference to prepayment of postage and fees shall not apply to postage and fees payable on parcels with respect to which the Board has entered into an arrangement with the senders thereof for the grant of credit facilities.

(3) Payment of postage fees payable under the provisions of this Order may be denoted:-

- (a) by adhesive postage stamps;
- (b) by embossed, impressed or printed postage stamps which have been cut out of, or otherwise detached from, any envelopes, covers, wrappers, cards or letter forms authorised by the Board for postal use or other postal forms;
- (c) by means of impressions made by franking machines, printing presses, or other printing or stamping devices, being machines, presses or devices operated under the direction, or with the authority, of the Board;
- (d) in such other manner as the Board may from time to time permit.

(4) No stamp indicating on the face thereof payment of a registration fee (with or without postage) shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees on any uninsured parcel.

(5) Parcels bearing the impression of franking machines or intended for impression by franking machines, and parcels on which payment of postage is denoted by a printed impression, or by an impression made by any other device authorised by the Board, shall be accepted only at such post offices, within such hours, and under and subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Board may consider appropriate.

(6) The stamp or impression denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed in such position on the parcel as the Board may consider appropriate.

(7) No stamp or impression which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed, shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or impressed across it within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps.

Treatment of irregular parcels

8. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this Order, any parcel which is found when in the post not to comply with a provision of the law of the country or place in which the parcel was posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass (including the Law and this Order), or not to be accompanied by a document required by any such provision, or to have been posted otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of section six of this Order, may be either detained or returned or given up to the sender, or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as the Board may think fit.

(2) Any incoming parcel which is found when in the post not to comply with the provisions of paragraph (i) of subsection (2) of section two of this Order may, if the Board thinks fit, be delivered to the addressee subject to such charge as the Board may fix in that particular case, not exceeding the aggregate amount of the separate charges which would have been payable in respect of all the individual parcels or other postal packets contained therein if each of them had been posted separately without prepayment of postage in the Bailiwick addressed to the country or place of origin of the parcel.

Charges on incoming parcels

9. (1) There shall be charged on an incoming parcel and paid by the addressee on its delivery, the amount of any deficient postage, and any fees and charges payable in respect of the parcel under the law of the Bailiwick or any country or place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted but have not been paid.

(2) In this section "deficient postage", in relation to a parcel, means, if no part of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid, the full amount of the postage which ought to have been prepaid thereon, and if part only of such postage has been prepaid, the difference between such full amount and the amount of such postage which has been prepaid.

Return of outgoing parcels

10. (1) Where an outgoing parcel is received back from a country or place outside the Bailiwick for return to the sender in accordance with the relative postal arrangement, there shall be charged on the parcel so received and paid by the sender, whether or not the parcel is returned to the sender:-

- (a) the amount of any deficient postage, and the amount of any fees and charges payable in respect of the parcel under the law of the Bailiwick or any country or place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted but have not been paid; and
- (b) postage in respect of the return transmission at such rate and such other charges as the Board may consider appropriate having regard to the terms of the relative postal arrangement.

(2) In this section "deficient postage" has the same meaning as in section nine of this Order.

PART II

Postal FacilitiesGeneral

14. The postal facilities referred to in this Order may be provided by the Board at such times, during such periods, and at such post offices, in such circumstances, and on such conditions (not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Order) as the Board may from time to time consider expedient.

Express delivery

15. Upon every outgoing parcel marked with the word "Express" or with such other word or words as may indicate the desire of the sender that the postal packet may be delivered by special messenger, being a parcel addressed to a country or place wherein delivery by special messenger is provided for by the relative postal arrangement, there shall be charged and prepaid the fee of twenty new pence.

Delivery free of charges

16. (1) Where the relative postal arrangement so provides, the sender of an outgoing parcel may request that the parcel shall be delivered free of any customs duty, postal fees and charges which would otherwise be payable by the addressee under the law of the country or place of destination and in such case the following provisions shall apply:-

- (a) the sender shall pay at the time of posting such sum as the Board may require as a deposit in respect of any such customs duty, postal fees and charges as, in the opinion of the Board, might otherwise be so payable, and shall sign an undertaking in the prescribed form to pay to the Board on demand the aggregate amount of the customs duty, postal fees and charges which are charged in the country or place of destination; any deposit so paid shall be appropriated in or towards the amount payable under such undertaking;
- (b) the sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel either the words "To be delivered free of charges" or the words "Franco de droits";
- (c) the Board shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgement that the said deposit has been paid;
- (d) if the deposit paid exceeds the aggregate amount of the customs duty, postal fees and charges which are charged in the country or place of destination, the Board shall repay the excess to the sender.

Insured parcels

17. (1) Where the relative postal arrangement so provides, an outgoing parcel may be insured, and in such case the following provisions shall apply:-

- (a) the parcel shall not be addressed to an addressee identified by initials only, or addressed by means of a pencil;
- (b) the parcel shall be sealed by lead or steel seals, or by wax seals all of the same kind of wax, in a manner and quantity calculated to prevent tampering with the contents without damage to the wrapping or seals, each seal shall bear the same private mark of the sender;
- (c) the seals, labels and postage stamps affixed to the parcel shall be so spaced that they cannot conceal injuries to the cover; and no label or postage stamp shall be folded over two sides of
- (d) where the contents include coin, bullion or jewellery, they shall be enclosed in a strong metal box, or in a case made of wood of a minimum thickness of three eighths of an inch, unless plywood is used and the edges are reinforced by metal angle strips, in which case the minimum thickness of the wood shall be one fifth of an inch. The box or case shall be sewn up or otherwise fastened in a wrapper of linen, canvas, strong paper or other substantial material. The address shall be written on the actual outer covering of the parcel and seals not more than three inches apart shall be placed along the edges of each joint or loose flap. Where the contents exceed one hundred and twenty pounds in value the box or case shall be at least three feet six inches in length and girth combined;

(e) the sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel (by means other than a pencil) the words "Insured for" followed by the amount of money (in words and figures) for which the parcel is to be insured, which amount shall not exceed whichever

(i) in any case, the real monetary value of the contents and the packing, and (ii) in the case of a parcel for transmission through a British Forces' Post Office or to a ship of the Royal Navy, the sum of fifty pounds, and in any other case the sum of five hundred pounds or such smaller amount as may be fixed from time to time by the relative postal arrangement;

(f) where the sender is required to fill up a despatch note, he shall mark thereon (by means other than a pencil) the amount in words and figures for which the parcel is to be insured;

(g) no erasure or correction shall be made in the address or in the amount for which the parcel is to be insured, wherever those particulars are to be shown;

(h) there shall be charged and paid at the time of posting, in addition to the postage and any other charges payable on the parcel, an insurance fee appropriate to the amount for which the parcel is to be insured according to the scale of fees set out in Part I of the Second Schedule to this Order;

(i) on the posting of the parcel, the Board shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgment that the insurance fee has been paid and stating the amount for which the parcel has been insured.

(2) If an outgoing uninsured parcel addressed to such a country or place as is referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section two of this Order is found in the post to contain any such thing as is mentioned in that paragraph, the parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Board may think fit.

(3) On the delivery of an incoming insured parcel, the recipient shall give a written receipt therefor in the specified form, Where such a receipt is not obtained, the parcel may nevertheless be delivered, or it may be withheld and dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Board may think fit.

(4) If an incoming uninsured parcel posted in such a country or place as is referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section two of this Order is found in the post to contain any such thing as is mentioned in that paragraph, the parcel may (if the Board thinks fit) be delivered on payment of a fee equal to the parcel compensation fee charged under the Post Office (Inland Post) Order, 1973, in respect of an inland parcel, or be returned to the postal administration of the country or place of origin.

Compensation

18. (1) If a parcel, or any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of a parcel, be lost or damaged whilst in the course of conveyance by post under the provisions of this Order, the Board may pay such sum as it may think just to any person or foreign administration, if in its opinion such person or administration establishes a reasonable claim to compensation:

Provided that:-

- (a) in the case of an uninsured parcel, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum appropriate thereto according to the scale set out in Part II of the Second Schedule to this Order, having regard to the weight of the parcel;
- (b) in the case of an outgoing insured parcel, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum appropriate thereto according to the scale set out in Part I of the Second Schedule to this Order, having regard to the insurance fee paid in respect of the parcel;

(c) in the case of an incoming insured parcel, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of five hundred pounds or such smaller sum as, having regard to the insurance fee paid in respect of the parcel, may be fixed by the relative postal arrangement.

(2) Compensation shall not be payable in respect of the loss of or damage to any parcel or any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of any parcel where:-

(a) an application relating to the parcel is not received, either by the Board or by the postal administration of the country or place from or to which the parcel was transmitted, from the person claiming compensation, within one year of the date of posting of the parcel;

(b) the cause of such loss or damage was beyond the control of the Board and of the postal administration of any country or place under whose administration the parcel was at the time of such loss or damage; or

(c) the parcel cannot be traced or otherwise accounted for by reason of the destruction of official documents where the cause of such destruction was beyond the control of the Board and of the postal administration of any other country or place.

(3) The decision of the Board on all questions arising between it and any person claiming payment in respect of the loss of or damage to a parcel, or of or to any article enclosed in or forming part thereof, shall be final and conclusive.

(4) If compensation has been paid to any person in respect of the loss of an insured parcel which the sender has insured for a sum exceeding the real value of the contents and the packing, and the parcel subsequently comes into the possession of the Board, then upon tender of the parcel to that person (whether or not he accepts it), he shall repay to the Board the sum paid by way of compensation or such part thereof as the Board may require.

Redirection by the public

19. (1) An incoming parcel may be redirected from its original address, or any substituted address, to the same addressee at any other address either within or outside the Bailiwick if (a) the parcel is eligible for transmission to the country or place of the new address and complies with the conditions applicable to such transmission, (b) the sender has not forbidden redirection by means of a note to that effect on the address side of the parcel in English or in any other language understood by the officers of the States Post Office handling the packet, and (c) the parcel does not appear to have been opened or altered otherwise than by the substitution of a new address of the same addressee which must not be so placed as to obscure the original writing of the name of the addressee.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, on redirection of an incoming parcel to an address within the Bailiwick, there shall be charged thereon additional postage of an amount equal to the amount of postage which would be charged and payable thereon if it were posted anew in that area to that address; and if such additional postage is not prepaid by the person redirecting the parcel, it shall be payable by the addressee on delivery of the parcel, and the Board may withhold delivery unless it is paid.

(3) The Board may (without prejudice to its general power of remission under section twenty-three of this Order) remit the additional postage payable under subsection (2) of this section if (a) the parcel is redirected on the day of its delivery at the address from which it is redirected or on the next day following (Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday and bank holidays being disregarded for this purpose), and (b) the address to which it is so redirected is an address served from the same delivery office as the address from which it is redirected, or is an address in the same local parcel delivery area.

(4) If the person redirecting an incoming parcel to an address outside the Bailiwick desires that the parcel shall be delivered free of any charge in respect of its transmission consequent upon such redirection (except customs duty and other fees and charges (if any) of a kind referred to in section sixteen of this Order), he shall pay thereon when redirecting it additional postage of an amount equal to the amount of postage which would be payable thereon if it were posted anew in that area to that address.

Advice of delivery and enquiries

20. (1) (a) The sender of an outgoing insured parcel, on making a request in a specified form at the time of posting or within one year thereafter, and on payment of an advice of delivery fee of 7.5p if the request is made at the time of posting or ten new pence if the request is made after posting, may obtain an advice of delivery of the parcel.

(b) The advice of delivery form may if the sender of the parcel so requires be transmitted by air to, or from, or both to and from, the country of place of address of the parcel; and the sender shall if the Board so directs pay a further fee of one new penny for each transmission of the advice of delivery form by air.

(2) The sender of an outgoing insured parcel, on making a request within one year after the day of posting, and (unless an advice of delivery fee has already been paid in respect of the parcel) on payment of an enquiry fee of ten new pence, may cause an enquiry to be made into the suspected loss or non-delivery of the parcel.

Parcels in bond

21. (1) The Board may, on application being made in such manner as it may direct by the addressee of any incoming parcel in bond:-

(a) make a search for the parcel in order that it may if possible receive expedited customs examination;

(b) permit the addressee or his authorised agent, attending at the place where the parcel is, to inspect the parcel;

(c) re-address the parcel to any person either within or outside the Bailiwick;

(d) permit the addressee or his authorised agent, attending at the place where the parcel is, to re-address the parcel to any person either within or outside the Bailiwick; or

(e) transfer a parcel (being a parcel with respect to which a customs notice has been sent to the addressee) from the appointed place where the parcel is to some other appointed place nominated by the addressee.

(2) There shall be charged and paid:-

(a) for each of the facilities mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (e) of subsection (1) of this section, the fee appropriate to the number of parcels comprised in the application, according to the scales of fees set out in columns 1 and 2 of the Third Schedule to this Order;

(b) for the facility mentioned in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of this section, the fee appropriate to the number of parcels comprised in the application, according to the scale of fees set out in columns 1 and 3 of the Third Schedule to this Order.

(3) There shall be charged and paid by the applicant in respect of each parcel which is re-addressed under paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of this section:-

(a) such fee (if any) charged under section five of this Order, and such amount in respect of any deficient postage, fees and charges charged under section nine, as would have been payable by him if the parcel had been delivered to him at the original address; and

(b) if the new address is in a country or place outside the Bailiwick, the same amount of postage and fees as would be charged and payable on the parcel if it were posted anew in that area to that address.

(4) A parcel may not be re-addressed under this section to an address in a country or place either within or outside the Bailiwick, unless it is eligible for transmission to that country or place and complies with the conditions applicable to such transmission.

(5) If the Board stores a parcel in bond while it is awaiting customs clearance or is waiting to be re-addressed in pursuance of an application in that behalf made in accordance with paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of this section, there shall be charged on the parcel for such storage (in addition to any other charges or fees payable under this Order) the following fee:-

(a) where the parcel is stored for a period not exceeding one month, the fee shall be fifty new pence;

(b) where the parcel is stored for a longer period, the fee shall be fifty new pence with an additional sum calculated at the rate of five new pence for each working day (or residual part of such a day) of storage in excess of the first month of that period.

(6) The storage fee charged under subsection (5) of this section with respect to a parcel (other than a parcel which is returned to its sender) shall be paid by the addressee if the parcel shall be delivered to him, or by the original addressee if the parcel shall be re-addressed in accordance with paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of this section.

(7) For the purposes of this section:-

(a) a parcel shall be deemed to be in bond when and so long as it is in the custody of the Board at a place appointed by the States Board of Administration for customs examination;

(b) "appointed place" means a place so appointed for that purpose;

(c) a parcel shall be deemed to be stored in bond by the Board while it is in an appointed place, if and so long as:-

(i) after a customs notice has been sent to the addressee with respect thereto, it is awaiting customs clearance, or is waiting to be readdressed in pursuance of an application in that behalf made under paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of this section; or

(ii) being an air mail parcel addressed to an importer with respect to which the necessary documents for the purpose of making an entry or delivering an account of the goods therein were not delivered to the Chief Revenue Officer on or before its arrival at such a place, it is awaiting customs clearance, or is waiting to be readdressed in pursuance of such an application;

and the period of such storage shall be deemed to have begun at the beginning of the day on which the customs notice was sent or, in the case of such a parcel as is mentioned in (ii) (above), at the beginning of the day on which the parcel was brought into an appointed place, and that period shall be deemed to terminate at the end of the day on which customs clearance is granted, or, if later (in the case of a parcel with respect to which such an application has been made), at the end of the day on which the parcel is re-addressed; and in the case of a parcel which has been transferred under paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section, the period of storage shall be deemed to have continued unbroken while it was in course of transit to the nominated place;

(d) "customs notice" means a notice sent by the Chief Revenue Officer requiring entry to be made of goods contained in a parcel in bond, or requiring an account of them to be delivered;

(e) "working day" means a day on which the appointed place in which a parcel is stored is open for public business.

Application of the Post Office (Inland Post) Order, 1973

22. The provisions of the Post Office (Inland Post) Order, 1973, set out in the Fourth Schedule to this Order shall apply to parcels transmitted by post under the provisions of this Order, to the extent and subject to the modifications set out in the said Schedule.

Remission of postage

23. The Board may remit the whole or in part any postage or other sums chargeable under the provisions of this Order in such cases or classes of case as the Board may determine.

Revocation

24. The Orders set out in the Fifth Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked.

Interpretation

25. (1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:-

"air mail service" means a service established by or under the direction of the Board for the conveyance of mails by air;

"air parcel" means an outgoing parcel intended by the sender to be conveyed through any part of its course in the post by an air mail service;

"bank holiday" has the meaning assigned to it by section one of the Bills of Exchange (Guernsey) Law, 1958;

"bullion" means uncoined and unmanufactured metal;

"Chief Revenue Officer" includes any States Revenue Officer acting by or under the authority of the Chief Revenue Officer;

"coin" means coin whether or not current in the Bailiwick or elsewhere, except such as is used or designed for purposes of ornament;

"importer" in relation to any goods at any time between their importation and the time when they are delivered out of the charge of the States Board of Administration, includes any owner or other person for the time being possessed of or beneficially interested in the goods;

"incoming" means received at a post office in the Bailiwick through the post;

"jewellery" means:-

(a) gold, silver or platinum or other precious metal in a manufactured state (that is to say, a state in which value is added to the raw material by skilled workmanship), and in this definition are included any coins used or designed for purposes of ornament;

(b) diamonds and precious stones;

(c) watches, the cases of which are entirely or mainly composed of gold, silver or platinum or other precious metal; and

(d) any article of a like nature which, apart from workmanship, has an intrinsic or marketable value;

"the Law" means the Post Office (Guernsey) Law, 1969;

"letter" includes any communication in the nature of current and personal correspondence;

"member of the armed forces of the United Kingdom or of any other Commonwealth country" and "member of the armed forces of any state allied with the United Kingdom" include a member of any auxiliary service to such forces (although not a member thereof) who is permitted to use a forces address;

"outgoing" means posted in the Bailiwick;

"parcel" means a postal packet which is posted as a parcel in accordance with the provisions of this Order or any Order amending or replacing the same, or is received at a post office in the Bailiwick from abroad by parcel post;

"postal arrangement" means an arrangement made by the States with respect to the conveyance by post of parcels between the Bailiwick and places outside the Bailiwick or between places outside the Bailiwick, whether through the Bailiwick or not;

"postal form" means a form issued by or under the authority of the Board;

"specified" means specified by the Board;

and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Law.

(2) Except where the context otherwise requires, any reference in this Order to any enactment, or Order shall be construed as including a reference to that enactment or that Order, as the case may be, as amended, repealed and replaced or revoked by or under any other enactment or by any other Order.

(3) The Interpretation (Guernsey) Law, 1948, shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of a Guernsey enactment.

Application

26. The provisions of this Order except where otherwise expressed, apply exclusively to parcels transmitted by post from or to the Bailiwick otherwise than under the Post Office (Inland Post) Order, 1973.

Citation

27. This Order may be cited as the Post Office (Overseas Parcel Post) Order, 1973.

Commencement

28. This Order shall come into force on the first day of May, nineteen hundred and seventy-three.

Dated this thirtieth day of April, nineteen hundred and seventy-three.

(PEPPINO SANTANGELO)
President of the States Post Office Board, for and on behalf of the Board.
