Under paragraph 26 of Schedule 2 to the Act the owners or agents of a ship or aircraft employed to carry passengers for reward are prohibited from arranging, without the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor, for the ship or aircraft to call at a port in the Bailiwick other than a port of entry for the purpose of disembarking passengers, if any of them may not enter the Bailiwick without leave and have not been given leave, or for the purpose of embarking passengers unless the owners or agents have reasonable cause to believe all of them to be patrial. An owner or agent who contravenes the provisions of paragraph 26 commits an offence under section 27 of the Act.
