1994 No. 1325

UNITED NATIONS

The Haiti (United Nations Sanctions)
(Channel Islands) Order 1994

Made	- - - -	18th May 1994
Laid before Parliament		19th May 1994
Coming into force	- -	23rd May 1994

Whereas under Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations the Security Council of the United Nations has, by resolutions adopted on 16th June 1993 and 6th May 1994, called upon Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and all other States to apply certain measures to give effect to a decision of that Council in relation to Haiti:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946(1), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Citation, commencement, operation and extent

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Haiti (United Nations Sanctions) (Channel Islands) Order 1994 and shall come into force on 23rd May 1994.

(2) If, after the making of this Order, the Security Council of the United Nations takes a decision which has the effect of cancelling or suspending the operation of the resolutions adopted by it on 16th June 1993 and 6th May 1994, this Order shall cease to have effect or its operation shall be suspended, as the case may be, in accordance with that decision; and particulars of that decision shall be published by the Secretary of State in a notice in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes.

(3) This Order shall extend to the Channel Islands so as to be law, respectively, in the Bailiwick of Guernsey and in the Bailiwick of Jersey only.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order the following expressions have, except where otherwise expressly provided, the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say—

“the 1993 Order” means the Haiti (United Nations Sanctions) (Channel Islands) Order 1993(2);

(2) Any reference to a provision of an Act of Parliament or of an enactment made under an Act of Parliament shall, in the case of a provision which has been extended to the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the Bailiwick of Jersey, be construed as a reference to that provision as it has effect in the Bailiwick in question and, in the case of a provision which has not been so extended, be construed as a reference to that provision as it has effect in the United Kingdom.

Prohibition of flights

3.—(1) Subject to article 5, no aircraft, wherever registered, shall, except with the permission of the Secretary of State granted under this article or under such authority as is referred to in article 8, take off from, land in or fly over the territory of the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the Bailiwick of Jersey, if its destination is, or if, since 23rd May 1994, it has taken off from, Haiti.

(2) If any aircraft is used in contravention of the provisions of this article, then the operator and the commander of the aircraft shall be guilty of an offence.

Powers of airport operator

4.—(1) For the purpose of enforcing the prohibitions contained in article 3, it shall be the duty of an airport operator to take all such steps as may be necessary to secure that any aircraft at his airport:

- (a) whose commander or operator has indicated an intention to fly the aircraft to a destination in Haiti or which the airport operator otherwise has reason to suspect will be flown to such a destination; or
- (b) which the airport operator knows or has reason to suspect has, since 23rd May 1994, taken off from Haiti, is prevented from taking off unless permission to do so has been granted under article 3 or article 8.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1) above, such steps may include:

- (a) the refusal of any refuelling service for the aircraft;
- (b) the placing of obstacles in the path of a parked aircraft to prevent it from leaving its parked position; and
- (c) requiring the commander or operator of the aircraft to move it, or to secure that it is moved, to another part of the airport.

(3) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, obstructs an airport operator, his servants or agents acting in accordance with the provisions of this article, or refuses or fails within a reasonable time to comply with a request by any such persons made in accordance with paragraph 2(c) above, shall be guilty of an offence.

Saving for scheduled passenger flights

5. Nothing in article 3 or 4 shall apply to an aircraft carrying passengers and undertaking a scheduled journey for the purpose of public transport.

Supply of goods to Haiti

6.—(1) Except under the authority of a licence granted under this article or the 1993 Order—

- (a) in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (b) in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, by the Finance and Economics Committee, no person mentioned in article 11 shall—

- (i) supply or deliver;
- (ii) agree to supply or deliver; or
- (iii) do any act calculated to promote the supply or delivery of, any goods other than foodstuffs, or goods which that person has reason to believe are intended to be used for medical purposes to or to the order of a person connected with Haiti.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1)(ii) or (iii) above shall apply where the supply or delivery of the goods to the person concerned is authorised by a licence granted under this article or article 7 or under the 1993 Order.

Exportation of goods to and from Haiti

7.—(1) Except under the authority of a licence granted under this article—

- (a) in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (b) in the case of Bailiwick of Jersey, by the Finance and Economics Committee, all goods other than foodstuffs, or goods which the operator has reason to believe are intended to be used for medical purposes, are prohibited to be exported from any of the Channel Islands to any destination in Haiti or to any destination for the purpose of delivery, directly or indirectly, to or to the order of any person connected with Haiti.

(2) Except under the authority of a licence granted under this article—

- (a) in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (b) in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, by the Finance and Economics Committee, all goods originating in Haiti are prohibited to be imported into the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey.

(3) Except under the authority of a licence granted under this article—

- (a) in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (b) in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, by the Finance and Economics Committee, no person mentioned in article 11 shall do any act calculated to promote the exportation of any goods from Haiti.

(4) Except under the authority of a licence granted under this article—

- (a) in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (b) in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, by the Finance and Economics Committee, in respect of any goods that have been exported from Haiti after 23rd May 1994, no person mentioned in article 11 shall, by way of trade or otherwise for gain—

- (i) acquire or dispose of such goods or of any property or interest in them or in any right to or charge upon them;

- (ii) process them; or
- (iii) do any act calculated to promote any such acquisition, disposal or processing by himself or any other person.

(5) Nothing in paragraph (3) of (4) of this article shall apply where the importation of the goods into the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey is or was authorised by a licence granted under this article—

- (a) in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (b) in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, by the Finance and Economics Committee.

Carriage of goods destined for Haiti

8.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of article 6, and except under the authority of a licence granted under this article or the 1993 Order—

- (a) in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (b) in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, by the Finance and Economics Committee, no ship or aircraft to which this article applies and no vehicle within the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey shall be used for the carriage of any goods if the carriage is, or forms part of, carriage from any place outside Haiti to any destination therein, or to any person connected with Haiti.

(2) This article applies to ships registered in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the Bailiwick of Jersey, to aircraft registered in the United Kingdom and to any other ship or aircraft that is for the time being chartered to any person who is—

- (a) a British citizen, a British Dependent Territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen, a British subject or a British protected person and is ordinarily resident in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the Bailiwick of Jersey, or
- (b) a body incorporated or constituted under the law of any part of the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the law of the Bailiwick of Jersey.

(3) If any ship, aircraft or vehicle is used in contravention of paragraph (1) above, then—

- (a) in the case of a ship registered in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey, or any aircraft registered in the United Kingdom, the owner and master of the ship or, as the case may be, the operator and the commander of the aircraft; or
- (b) in the case of any other ship or aircraft, the person to whom the ship or aircraft is for the time being chartered and, if he is such a person as is referred to in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of paragraph (2) above, the master of the ship or, as the case may be, the operator and the commander of the aircraft; or

- (c) in the case of a vehicle, the operator of the vehicle, shall be guilty of an offence unless he proves that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the carriage of the goods in question was, or formed part of, carriage from any place outside Haiti to any destination therein or to any person connected with Haiti.

(4) Nothing in paragraph (1) above shall apply where the supply or delivery or exportation from the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey of the goods concerned to Haiti was authorised by a licence granted by the relevant authority under article 6 or article 7 or under the 1993 Order.

(5) Nothing in this article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law prohibiting or restricting the use of ships, aircraft or vehicles.

Assets of Haiti

9.—(1) Except with permission granted by or on behalf of the Treasury, no person mentioned in article 11 shall—

- (a) make any payment or part with any gold, securities or investments; or
- (b) make any change in the persons to whose credit any sum is to stand or to whose order any gold, securities or investments are to be held, where any such action is action to which this article applies.

(2) This article applies to action which is likely to make available to or for the benefit of any persons or bodies exercising for the time being public functions in Haiti any funds or other financial or economic resources, whether by their removal from the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the Bailiwick of Jersey or otherwise, or otherwise to remit or transfer funds or other such resources to or for the benefit of such persons or bodies.

(3) Any permission granted by or on behalf of the Treasury under this article may be granted absolutely or subject to conditions and may be varied or revoked at any time by or on behalf of the Treasury.

(4) In this article—

- (a) “gold”, “payment” and “securities” shall have the meanings they bear in section 2 of the Emergency Laws (Re-enactment and Repeals) Act 1964<sup>(5)</sup>; and
- (b) “investments” means any asset, right or interest falling within any paragraph of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Act 1986<sup>(6)</sup> which is not a security.

Bonds

10.—(1) Except under the authority of a licence granted under this article—

- (a) in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (b) in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, by the Finance and Economics Committee, no person mentioned in article 11 shall—

- (i) make any payment to or to the order of any person connected with Haiti under or in respect of a bond to which this article applies; or
- (ii) do any act for the purpose of obtaining a payment or make any payment, in respect of any right to indemnity in respect of any bond in which this article applies where payment under the bond is, or if payment were to be made by a person referred to in article 11 of this Order would be, unlawful by virtue of sub-paragraph (i) of this paragraph.

(2) This article applies to any bond given in connection with the performance of a contract the performance of which is unlawful, wholly or in part, by virtue of this Order, the 1993 Order or any law of any place which substantially corresponds with the relevant provisions of this Order.

(3) In this article—

- (a) “bond” means an agreement under which a person (“the obligor”) agrees that, if called upon to do so, or if a third party fails to fulfil contractual obligations owed to another, the obligor will make payment to or to the order of the other party to the agreement;
- (b) “make any payment” means make payment by any method, including but not restricted to the grant, or any agreement to the exercise, of any right to set off, accord and satisfaction and adjustment of any account, or any similar means.

(5) 1964 c. 60.

(6) 1986 c. 60.

Application of articles 6, 7, 9 and 10

11.—(1) The provisions of articles 6, 7(3) and (4), 9 and 10 shall apply to any person within the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the Bailiwick of Jersey and to any person elsewhere who—

- (a) is a British citizen, a British Dependent Territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen, a British subject or a British protected person and is ordinarily resident in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the Bailiwick of Jersey; or
- (b) is a body incorporated or constituted under the law of any part of the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the law of the Bailiwick of Jersey.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) below, any person specified in paragraph (1) above who contravenes the provisions of article 6, 7(3) or (4), 9 or 10 shall, in the Bailiwick in question, be guilty of an offence.

(3) In the case of proceedings for an offence in contravention of article 6 it shall be a defence for the accused person to prove that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the goods in question were to be supplied or delivered to or to the order of a person connected with Haiti.

(4) In the case of proceedings for an offence in contravention of article 7(3) or (4) it shall be a defence for the accused person to show that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the goods in question were exported from Haiti or were exported therefrom after 23rd May 1994, as the case may be.

(5) In the case of proceedings for an offence in contravention of article 10(1)(a) or (b) it shall be a defence for the accused person to prove that—

- (a) he did not know and had no reason to suppose that payment was made to or to the order of a person connected with Haiti; or
- (b) (i) he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the bond was given in respect of a contract the performance of which was unlawful as described in article 10(2); and
(ii) he made all reasonable enquiries to ascertain whether the bond was given in respect of such a contract:

Provided that sub-paragraph (b) shall not apply in the case of proceedings for an offence in contravention of article 10(1)(b) of this Order where the accused person is a party to the contract in respect of which the bond was given.

Customs powers to demand evidence of destination which goods reach

12. Any exporter or any shipper of goods which have been exported from any of the Channel Islands shall, if so required by, in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the Chief Revenue Officer or, in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, the agent or Deputy Agent of the Impôts or any person duly authorised by the Agent of the Imports, furnish within such time as he may allow proof to his satisfaction that the goods have reached either—

- (a) a destination to which they were authorised to be exported by a licence granted under this Order; or
- (b) a destination to which their exportation was not prohibited by this Order, and, if he fails to do so, he shall be guilty of an offence unless he proves that he did not consent to or connive at the goods reaching any destination other than such a destination as aforesaid.

Offences in connection with applications for licences, conditions attaching to licences, etc.

13.—(1) If for the purpose of obtaining any licence or permission under this Order any person makes any statement or furnishes any document or information which to his knowledge is false in a material particular or recklessly makes any statement or furnishes any document or information which is false in a material particular he shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who has done any act under the authority of a licence granted by the Lieutenant Governor or, as the case may be, the Finance and Economics Committee or permission granted by or on behalf of the Treasury under this Order and who fails to comply with any condition attaching to that licence or permission shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that no person shall be guilty of an offence under this paragraph where he proves that the condition with which he failed to comply was modified, otherwise than with his consent, by the Treasury or by the Lieutenant Governor or, as the case may be, the Finance and Economics Committee after the doing of the act authorised by the licence or permission.

Declaration as to goods: powers of search

14.—(1) Any person who is about to leave any of the Channel Islands shall, if he is required to do so by, in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, a States Revenue Officer or, in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, an officer of the Impôts—

- (a) declare whether or not he has with him any goods which are destined for Haiti or for delivery, directly or indirectly, to or to the order of a person connected with Haiti; and
- (b) produce any such goods as aforesaid which he has with him, and such officer, and any person acting under his directions, may search that person for the purpose of ascertaining whether he has with him any such goods as aforesaid:

Provided that no person shall be searched in pursuance of this paragraph except by a person of the same sex.

(2) Any person who without reasonable excuse refuses to make a declaration, fails to produce any goods or refuses to allow himself to be searched in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this article shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) Any person who under the provisions of this article makes a declaration which to his knowledge is false in a material particular or recklessly makes any declaration which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence.

Investigation, etc. of suspected ships, aircraft and vehicles

15.—(1) Where any authorised officer, that is to say, in respect of the Bailiwick of Guernsey any such officer other than an officer of the Board of Trade as is referred to in section 692(1) of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894, or a States Revenue Officer, or, in respect of the Bailiwick of Jersey, the Harbour Master or an officer appointed to deputise for him, has reason to suspect that any ship to which article 8 applies has been or is being operated or used in contravention of article 8(1), he may (either alone or accompanied and assisted by persons under his authority) board the ship and search her and, for that purpose, may request the master of the ship to furnish such information relating to the ship and her cargo and produce for his inspection such documents so relating and such cargo as he may specify; and an authorised officer (either there and then or upon consideration of any information furnished or document or cargo produced in pursuance of such a request) may, in the case of a ship that is reasonably suspected of being operated or used in contravention of article 8(1), exercise the following further powers with a view to the prevention of the commission (or the continued commission) of any such violation or in order that enquiries into the matter may be pursued, that is to say, he may either direct the master to refrain, except with the consent of any authorised officer, from landing at any port specified by the officer any part of the ship's cargo that is so specified or request the master to take any one or more of the following steps—

- (a) to cause the ship not to proceed with the voyage on which she is then engaged or about to engage until the master is notified by any authorised officer that the ship may so proceed;

- (b) if the ship is then in a port in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey, as the case may be, to cause her to remain there until the master is notified by any authorised officer that the ship may depart;
- (c) if the ship is then in any other place, to take her to any such port specified by the officer and to cause her to remain there until the master is notified as mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) above; and
- (d) to take her to any other destination that may be specified by the officer in agreement with the master, and the master shall comply with any such request or direction.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (10) below, where a master refuses or fails to comply with a request made under this article that his ship shall or shall not proceed to or from any place or where an authorised officer otherwise has reason to suspect that such a request that has been so made may not be complied with, any such officer may take such steps as appear to him to be necessary to secure compliance with that request and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may for that purpose enter upon, or authorise entry upon, that ship and use, or authorise the use of, reasonable force.

(3) Where, in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, any States Revenue Officer or, in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, any officer of the Impôts, or any person authorised by the Attorney General for that purpose either generally or in a particular case has reason to suspect that any aircraft to which article 8 applies has been or is being used in contravention of article 8(1), that officer or authorised person may request the charterer, the operator and the commander of the aircraft or any of them to furnish such information relating to the aircraft and its cargo and produce for his inspection such documents so relating and such cargo as he may specify, and that officer or authorised person may (either alone or accompanied and assisted by persons under his authority) board the aircraft and search it and its cargo and, for that purpose, may use or authorise the use of reasonable force; and any such officer or authorised person (either there and then or upon consideration of any information furnished or document or cargo produced in pursuance of such a request) may further request the charterer, operator and the commander or any of them to cause the aircraft and its cargo to remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey unless and until notified that the aircraft and its cargo may depart, and the charterer, the operator and the commander shall comply with any such request.

(4) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (10) below, where any such officer or authorised person as is referred to in paragraph (3) above has reason to suspect that any request that an aircraft should remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey that has been made under paragraph (3) above may not be complied with, that authorised person or that officer may take such steps as appear to him to be necessary to secure compliance with that request and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may for that purpose—

- (a) enter, or authorise entry, upon any land and upon that aircraft;
- (b) detain, or authorise the detention of, that aircraft and its cargo; and
- (c) use, or authorise the use of, reasonable force.

(5) Where, in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey any States Revenue Officer or, in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey, any officer of the Impôts, or any person authorised by the Attorney General for that purpose either generally or in a particular case has reason to suspect that any vehicle in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey, as the case may be, has been or is being or is about to be used in contravention of article 8(1), that officer or authorised person may request the operator and the driver of the vehicle or either of them to furnish such information relating to the vehicle and any goods contained in it and produce for his inspection such documents so relating and such cargo as he may specify, and that officer or authorised person may (either alone or accompanied and assisted by persons under his authority) board the vehicle and search it and for that purpose may use or authorise the use of reasonable force; and any such officer or authorised person (either there and then or upon consideration of any information furnished or document or cargo produced in pursuance of such a request) may further request the driver to cause the vehicle and its cargo to remain in the the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey unless and until notified that the vehicle and its cargo may depart, and the operator and the driver shall comply with any such request.

(6) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (10) below, where any such officer or authorised person as is referred to in paragraph (5) above has reason to suspect that any request that a vehicle should remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey that has been made under paragraph (5) above may not be complied with, that officer or authorised person may take such steps as appear to him to be necessary to secure compliance with that request and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may for that purpose—

- (a) enter, or authorise entry, upon any land and enter, or authorise entry of, that vehicle;
- (b) detain, or authorise the detention of, that vehicle and its cargo; and
- (c) use, or authorise the use of, reasonable force.

(7) Before or on exercising any power conferred by paragraph (3), (4), (5) or (6) above, such an authorised person as is referred to in paragraph (3) or (5) shall, if requested to do so, produce evidence of his authority.

(8) No information furnished or document produced by any person in pursuance of a request made under this article shall be disclosed except—

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced:

Provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this sub-paragraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to the possession of that document in his own right;

- (b) to any person who would have been empowered under this article to request that it be furnished or produced or to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of the Government of the United Kingdom or under or in the service of the States of Guernsey or Alderney or the Chief Pleas of Sark or, as the case may be, the States of Jersey;
- (c) on the authority of the Attorney General, to any organ of the United Nations or to any person in the service of the United Nations or of the Government of any other country for the purpose of assisting the United Nations or that Government in securing compliance with or detecting evasion of measures in relation to Haiti decided upon by the Security Council of the United Nations; or
- (d) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings for an offence under this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, for an offence under any enactment relating to customs, or for an offence under any provision of law with respect to similar matters that is for the time being in force in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey.

(9) Any power conferred by this article to request the furnishing of information or the production of a document or of cargo for inspection shall include a power to specify whether the information should be furnished orally or in writing and in what form and to specify the time by which and the place in which the information should be furnished or the document or cargo produced for inspection.

(10) Each of the following persons shall be guilty of an offence under this Order, that is to say—

- (a) a master of a ship who disobeys any direction given under paragraph (1) above with respect to the landing of any cargo;

- (b) a master of a ship or a charterer or an operator or a commander of an aircraft or an operator or a driver of a vehicle who—
  - (i) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within a reasonable time to comply with any request made under this article by any person empowered to make it, or
  - (ii) wilfully furnishes false information or produces false documents to such a person in response to such a request;
- (c) a master or a member of a crew of a ship or a charterer or an operator or a commander or a member of a crew of an aircraft or an operator or a driver of a vehicle who wilfully obstructs any such person (or any person acting under the authority of any such person) in the exercise of his powers under this article.

(11) Nothing in this article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law conferring powers or imposing restrictions or enabling restrictions to be imposed with respect to ships, aircraft or vehicles.

Obtaining of evidence and information

16. The provisions of the Schedule to this Order shall have effect in order to facilitate the obtaining of evidence and information for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order and in order to facilitate the obtaining of evidence of the commission of an offence under this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order of an offence under any enactment relating to customs or of an offence against any provision of law with respect to similar matters that is for the time being in force in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey.

Penalties and Proceedings

17.—(1) Any person guilty of an offence under article 8(3) or article 11(2) shall be liable, in the Bailiwick of Guernsey—

- (a) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine or to both;
- (b) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both,

and, in the Bailiwick of Jersey, on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine or to both.

(2) Any person guilty of an offence under article 3(2) or article 15(10)(b)(ii) or paragraph 5(b) or (d) of the Schedule to this Order shall be liable, in the Bailiwick of Guernsey—

- (a) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
- (b) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both,

and, in the Bailiwick of Jersey, on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both.

(3) Any person guilty of an offence under article 13(1) or (2), or article 14(3), shall be liable, in the Bailiwick of Guernsey—

- (a) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
- (b) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum,

and, in the Bailiwick of Jersey, on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both.

(4) Any person guilty of an offence under article 4(3), article 15(10)(a), (b)(i) or (c) or paragraph 5(a) or (c) of the Schedule to this Order shall be liable—

- (a) in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or to both; and
- (b) in the Bailiwick of Jersey, on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine or to both.

(5) Any person guilty of an offence under article 12 or article 14(2) shall be liable—

- (a) in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale; and
- (b) in the Bailiwick of Jersey, on conviction to a fine.

(6) Where any body corporate is guilty of an offence under this Order, and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(7) Summary proceedings in the Bailiwick of Guernsey and any proceedings in the Bailiwick of Jersey for an offence under this Order, being an offence alleged to have been committed outside the Bailiwick in question, may be commenced at any time not later than 12 months from the date on which the person charged first enters that Bailiwick after committing the offence.

(8) Proceedings against any person for an offence under this Order may be taken before the appropriate court in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey having jurisdiction in the place where that person is for the time being.

(9) No proceedings for an offence under this Order, in its application to the Bailiwick of Jersey, shall be instituted except by, or with the consent of, the Attorney General for Jersey:

Provided that this paragraph shall not prevent the arrest of any person in respect of such an offence, or the remand in custody or on bail of any person charged with such an offence, notwithstanding that the necessary consent to the institution of proceedings for the offence has not been obtained.

Exercise of Powers

18.—(1) The Lieutenant Governor, the Attorney General or the Finance and Economics Committee may to such extent and subject to such restrictions and conditions as he or they may think proper, delegate or authorise the delegation of any of his or their powers under this Order to any person, or class or description or persons, approved by him or them, and references in this Order to the Lieutenant Governor, the Attorney General and the Finance and Economics Committee shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Any licence granted under this Order may be either general or special, may be subject to or without conditions, may be limited so as to expire on a specified date unless renewed and may be varied or revoked by the authority which granted it.

Miscellaneous

19.—(1) Any provision of this Order which prohibits the doing of a thing except under the authority of any licence or with any permission shall not have effect in relation to any such thing done anywhere other than in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or, as the case may be, the Bailiwick of Jersey, provided that it is duly authorised.

(2) A thing is duly authorised for the purpose of paragraph (1) above if it is done under the authority of a licence or with permission granted, in accordance with any law in force in the place where it is done (being a law substantially corresponding to the relevant provisions of this Order), by the authority competent in that behalf under that law.

20. The 1993 Order is revoked.

Clerk of the Privy Council

SCHEDULE

Article 16

EVIDENCE AND INFORMATION

1.—(1) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order, or any provision of another law, the Attorney General (or any person authorised by him for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) or in the case of the Bailiwick of Guernsey the Chief Revenue Officer or in the case of the Bailiwick of Jersey the Agent of the Impôts may request any person in or resident in the Bailiwick in question to furnish to him (or to that authorised person) any information in his possession or control, or to produce to him (or that authorised person) any document in his possession or control, which he (or that authorised person) may require for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order, and any person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) Nothing in sub-paragraph (1) above shall be taken to require any person who has acted as advocate or solicitor for any person to disclose any privileged communication made to him in that capacity.

(3) Where a person is convicted of failing to furnish information or produce a document when requested to do so under this paragraph, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(4) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person, or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any of them.

2.—(1) If in either the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey the Bailiff is satisfied by information given on oath—

- (a) that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, an offence under any enactment relating to customs or an offence under any provision of law with respect to similar matters that is for the time being in force in the Bailiwick in question has been or is being committed and that evidence of the commission of the offence is to be found on any premises specified in the information, or in any vehicle, ship or aircraft so specified; or
- (b) that any documents which ought to have been produced under paragraph 1 of this Schedule and have not been produced are to be found on any such premises or in any such vehicle, ship or aircraft, he may grant a search warrant authorising any police officer, together with any other persons named in the warrant and any other police officers, to enter the premises specified in the information or, as the case may be, in any premises upon which the vehicle, ship or aircraft so specified may be, at any time within one month from the date of the warrant and to search the premises, or as the case may be, the vehicle, ship or aircraft.

(2) A person authorised by any such warrant as aforesaid to search any premises or any vehicle, ship or aircraft may search every person who is found in, or whom he has reasonable ground to believe to have recently left or to be about to enter, those premises or that vehicle, ship or aircraft and may seize any document or article found on the premises or in the vehicle, ship or aircraft or on such person which he has reasonable grounds to believe to be evidence of the commission of any such offence as aforesaid or any documents which he has reasonable ground to believe ought to have been produced under paragraph 1 of this Schedule or to take in relation to any such article or document any other steps which may appear necessary for preserving it and preventing interference with it:

Provided that no person shall, in pursuance of any warrant issued under this paragraph, be searched except by a person of the same sex.

(3) Where, by virtue of this paragraph, a person is empowered to enter any premises, vehicle, ship or aircraft he may use such force as is reasonably necessary for that purpose.

(4) Any documents or articles of which possession is taken under this paragraph may be retained for a period of three months or, if within that period there are commenced any proceedings for such an offence as aforesaid to which they are relevant, until the conclusion of those proceedings.

(5) In the application of this paragraph to the Islands of Alderney and Sark, any reference to the Bailiwick includes a reference, in the case of Alderney, to the Chairman of the Court of Alderney and, in the case of Sark, to the Seneschal.

3. Before or on exercising any power conferred by this Schedule, a person authorised by the Attorney General or by the Chief Revenue Officer or the Agent of the Impôts, as the case may be, to exercise that power shall, if requested to do so, produce evidence of his authority.

4. No information furnished or document produced (including any copy of or extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Schedule and no document seized under paragraph 2(2) of this Schedule shall be disclosed except—

(a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced or the person from whom the document was seized:

Provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this sub-paragraph but such person may not give consent for the purposes of this sub-paragraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to the possession of that document in his own right; or

(b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Schedule to request that it be furnished or produced or to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of the government of the United Kingdom or under or in the service of the States of Guernsey or Alderney or the Chief Pleas of Sark or, as the case may be, the States of Jersey; or

(c) on the authority of the Attorney General, to any organ of the United Nations or to any person in the service of the United Nations or to the Government of any other country for the purpose of assisting the United Nations or that Government in securing compliance with or detecting evasion of measures in relation to Haiti decided upon by the Security Council of the United Nations; or

(d) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings for an offence under this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, for an offence under any enactment relating to customs or for an offence under any provision of law with respect to similar matters that is for the time being in force in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Bailiwick of Jersey.

5. Any person who—

(a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within the time and in the manner specified (or, if no time has been specified, within a reasonable time) to comply with any request made under this Schedule by any person who is empowered to make it; or

(b) wilfully furnishes false information or a false explanation to any person exercising his powers under this Schedule; or

(c) otherwise wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of his powers under this Schedule; or

(d) with intent to evade the provisions of this Schedule, destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document, shall be guilty of an offence.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order, made under the United Nations Act 1946, re-enacts with certain modifications, the provisions of the Haiti (United Nations Sanctions) (Channel Islands) Order 1993 (S.I. 1993/1793) and imposes further restrictions pursuant to a decision of the Security Council of the United Nations in Resolution No. 917 of 6th May 1994, on the export of goods to Haiti and the supply of goods to persons connected with Haiti, and on the importation of goods from Haiti. It restricts certain related activities including the carriage of prohibited goods in ships, aircraft and vehicles. The Order also prohibits aircraft, except for scheduled passenger aircraft, from taking off from, landing in or flying over the Channel Islands if they are destined for, or have taken off from, Haiti. It also restricts the making of payments under any bond in respect of a contract the performance of which is unlawful by virtue of the Order, and prohibits making or obtaining payments under certain indemnities in respect of such bonds.
