1967 No. 10.

The Social Insurance (Increase of Benefit and Miscellaneous Provisions) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1967.

|------------------------|---------|
| Made | , 1967. |
| Laid before the States | , 1967. |
| Coming into operation | , 1967. |

THE STATES INSURANCE AUTHORITY, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by sections twenty-three, thirty-seven, seventy-two, seventy-five, seventy-six and seventy-seven of the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1964, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby orders :-

PART I

INTERPRETATION

Interpretation

1. (1) In these regulations, except where the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:-

"the principal Law" means the Social Insurance (Guernsey)
Law, 1964;

"the relevant day" means the third day of April, nineteen hundred and sixty-seven;

and any other expressions have the same meanings as in the principal Law.

(2) Except where the context otherwise requires, any reference in these regulations to any enactment or regulations shall be construed as including a reference to that enactment or those regulations, as the case may be, as amended, extended, repealed, replaced or revoked by or under any other enactment or by any other regulations.

(3) The Interpretation (Guernsey) Law, 1948, shall apply to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of a Guernsey enactment.

2. The following provisions of this Part of these regulations shall have effect subject to the provisions of regulation eight of these regulations.

Higher rates of unemployment and sickness benefit payable at reduced rates owing to partial satisfaction of contribution conditions

3. The Second Schedule to the Social Insurance (Unemployment and Sickness Benefit) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1964 (which sets out the reduced weekly rates of unemployment and sickness benefit and of an increase of any such benefit in respect of an adult dependant payable where the relevant contribution conditions are partially satisfied), is hereby repealed and the Schedule set out in the First Schedule to these regulations is hereby substituted therefor.

Higher rates of widow's benefit and retirement pensions payable at reduced rates owing to partial satisfaction of contribution conditions

4. The First Schedule to the Social Insurance (Widow's Benefit and Retirement Pensions) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1964 (which sets out the reduced weekly rates of widow's benefit, of a retirement pension and of an increase of a retirement pension in respect of an adult dependant, payable where the relevant contribution conditions are partially satisfied), is hereby repealed and the Schedule set out in the Second Schedule to these regulations is hereby substituted therefor.

Higher rates of widow's benefit and retirement pensions for existing beneficiaries

S.I. 1970 No 24
7.7.70 ref 7970

5. The Social Insurance (Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons) (Transitional) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1964, as amended, are hereby further amended as follows:-

- (i) in paragraph (1) of regulation four thereof the words "twenty shillings" are hereby repealed and the words "twenty-two shillings" are hereby substituted therefor;
- (ii) in regulations four, five and six A thereof the words "fifty shillings" where those words occur in those regulations are hereby repealed and the words "fifty-five shillings" are hereby substituted therefor;

- (iii) in regulations seven and seven A thereof the words "thirty shillings" where those words occur in those regulations are hereby repealed and the words "thirty-three shillings" are hereby substituted therefor;
- (iv) the Schedules thereto are hereby repealed and the Schedules set out in the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Schedules to these regulations are hereby respectively substituted therefor.

PART III

Persons not ordinarily resident in Guernsey

*Repealed by S.I. 1970
No 23, 7.7.70 reg 7.9.70*

6. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of these or any other regulations or of any Ordinance made under the provisions of section eleven or section thirty-three of the principal Law, but subject to the provisions of this regulation, if a person is not ordinarily resident in Guernsey immediately before the relevant day, then unless and until that person becomes ordinarily resident in Guernsey the following provisions shall apply:-

(a) if, immediately before the relevant day, that person is entitled to a retirement pension (including, for this purpose, a contributory old age pension), he shall be disqualified for receiving any additional retirement pension;

(b) if that person is a married woman who, immediately before the relevant day, is not entitled as is mentioned in the preceding sub-paragraph and whose husband is then so entitled and not ordinarily resident in Guernsey, she shall be disqualified for receiving any additional widow's benefit or additional retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance;

- (c) if, immediately before the relevant day, she is entitled to a widow's allowance, a widowed mother's allowance or a widow's pension, she shall be disqualified for receiving any additional widow's benefit or additional retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance;
- (d) if immediately before the relevant day that person is entitled to an industrial disablement benefit, he shall be disqualified for receiving any additional industrial disablement benefit.

(2) Notwithstanding as aforesaid, if a person is not ordinarily resident in Guernsey immediately before the relevant day but that person is entitled to a guardian's allowance in respect of a child immediately before that date, any person who would otherwise be entitled to any additional guardian's allowance in respect of that child shall be disqualified for receiving any additional guardian's allowance in respect of that child unless and until the child becomes (or is) included in the family of a person who is ordinarily resident in Guernsey.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, references to additional benefit of any description are to be construed as referring to additional benefit of that description by virtue (either directly or indirectly) of any Ordinance made under the provisions of section eleven or section thirty-three of the principal Law or of these regulations.

(4) The disqualifications for the receipt of additional benefit contained in this regulation shall not apply -

- (a) to a person for any period during which he is in Guernsey; or
- (b) to a woman who, immediately before the relevant day, is entitled to a retirement pension by virtue of her own insurance or to a retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance, in relation to a retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance, or to a retirement pension by virtue of her own insurance, as the case may be, to which she thereafter becomes entitled.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation, a person shall be treated as entitled to any benefit immediately before the relevant day if he would then have been so entitled but for any one or more of the following causes, namely:-

- (a) any delay or failure to make a claim;
- (b) any disqualification for the receipt of benefit;
- (c) any provision of either the principal Law or any regulations made thereunder, relating to earnings;
- (d) the cohabitation of a widow with a man as his wife;
- (e) the absence of any child from Guernsey;
- (f) the provision of subsection (6) of section twenty of the principal Law (which relates to the disentitlement of a woman to more than one retirement pension for the same period).

(6) For the purposes of any disqualification contained in this regulation for the receipt of additional retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance, a retirement pension by virtue of a widow's own insurance to which she becomes entitled by virtue of subsection (7) of section twenty of the principal Law (which subsection provides that in certain cases a widow may have account taken of her husband's contributions in calculating the yearly average of the contributions paid or credited to her for the purpose of her right to a retirement pension by virtue of her own insurance) shall be treated as if it were a retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport)

These Regulations increase the rates of benefit payable under certain regulations made under the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1964, in order to bring them into conformity with the higher standard rates of benefit approved by the States on the 28th September, 1966. Provision is made in relation to the payment of additional benefit in the case of persons not ordinarily resident in Guernsey. The remaining provisions are of a minor or consequential character.
