

1964—No. 31

The Social Insurance (Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons) (Transitional) (Guernsey)
Regulations, 1964

Made 25th November, 1964
Laid before the States .. 16th December, 1964
Coming into Operation .. 4th January, 1965

THE STATES INSURANCE AUTHORITY, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section seventy-two of the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1964, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby orders:—

PART I

Interpretation

Interpretation

1. (1) In these regulations, except where the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

“the Contributory Pensions Laws”, means the Contributory Pensions (Guernsey) Laws, 1935 to 1962;

“existing old age pensioner” means an existing beneficiary who immediately before the appointed day was entitled to an old age pension under or by virtue of the Contributory Pensions Laws;

"existing widow pensioner" means an existing beneficiary being a woman, who immediately before the appointed day was, or but for any disqualification would have been, entitled to a widow's pension under or by virtue of the Contributory Pensions Laws;

"the Law" means the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1964;

"the Law of 1947" means the Benefits and Pensions (Contributory and Non-Contributory) Amendment Law, 1947;

"the Ordinance of 1962" means the Contributory Pensions (Increased Rates of Contributions and Benefits) Ordinance, 1962; and any other expressions have the same meanings as in the Law.

(2) Except where the context otherwise requires, any reference in these regulations to any enactment or regulations shall be construed as including a reference to that enactment or those regulations, as the case may be, as amended, extended, repealed, replaced, or revoked by or under any other enactment or by any other regulations.

(3) The Interpretation (Guernsey) Law, 1948, shall apply to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of a Guernsey enactment.

PART II

General

Modification of the Law in its application to existing beneficiaries

2. In relation to existing beneficiaries who immediately before the appointed day are, or but for any disqualification would be, entitled to a pension under or by virtue of the Contributory Pensions Laws, or then have, otherwise than as existing contributors, any prospective right to or expectation of a pension or allowance under or by virtue of those Laws, the provisions of the Law and any Ordinances and regulations for the time being in force thereunder shall have full force and effect subject to the modifications contained in these regulations.

Description of additional benefits to be included in benefit under the Law

3. (1) Subject to the succeeding provision of these regulations, there shall be included in the description of benefit under the Law, benefit of the following descriptions:—

- (a) widow's basic pension;
- (b) widow's preserved pension;
- (c) contributory old age pension;
- (d) child's allowance.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, for the purposes of the provisions of the Law and any Ordinances and regulations in force thereunder, a widow's basic pension and a widow's preserved pension shall be treated as widow's benefit and a contributory old age pension shall be treated as retirement pension:

Provided that a widow's basic pension and a widow's preserved pension shall not be so treated for the purposes of the provisions of paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of section sixteen of the Law (which relates to widow's benefit), of paragraph (a) of subsection (1), subsection (2) and paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section seventeen thereof (which relates to widow's pensions in special cases), and subsection (3) of section forty-four thereof (which relates to claims and notices).

PART III

Provisions relating to existing beneficiaries

Certain existing widow pensioners under the Contributory Pensions Laws to be entitled to widowed mothers' allowances, widows' pensions, etc.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Law and of these regulations, an existing widow pensioner who, immediately before the appointed day, is ordinarily resident in Guernsey shall be entitled to a widowed mother's allowance for any period for which—

(a) she has a family which includes a child—

(i) in respect of whom immediately before the appointed day an additional allowance under section nine of the Ordinance of 1962, was payable by virtue of her husband's insurance, or,

(ii) who—

(aa) at the husband's death was, or could have been treated under paragraph 3 of the Schedule to the Family Allowances (Guernsey) Law, 1950, as a child of his family; or

(bb) is a son or daughter of theirs; or

(cc) having at the death of a previous husband of hers by a marriage which ended with that husband's death been a child of that husband's family, was at the death of the last husband a child of her family, and who, if for the time being included in her family only by virtue of her contributing to the cost of providing for him, is so included by virtue of her so contributing at the rate of twenty shillings a week or more;

(b) Subject to the exception and condition prescribed in regulation three of the Social Insurance (Widow's Benefits and Retirement Pensions) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1964, while not having such a family as aforesaid, she has residing with her a person who is under the age of eighteen years and is, has been, or would, but for the fact that at the husband's death that person was not in Guernsey, be or have been, a child falling within paragraph (i) or within sub-paragraph (aa), (bb) or (cc) of paragraph (ii) of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, an existing widow pensioner who immediately before the appointed day is ordinarily resident in Guernsey and who on that day has not attained pensionable age and is by reason of any infirmity incapable of self-support shall as from that day be entitled to a widow's pension for any period before she attains pensionable age during which she is incapable of self-support by reason of that infirmity and is not entitled to a widowed mother's allowance.

(3) Subject as aforesaid, an existing widow pensioner, who immediately before the appointed day is ordinarily resident in Guernsey and who on that day has not attained pensionable age but has attained the age of 50 years, shall as from that day be entitled to a widow's pension if immediately before that day she was entitled, in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (c), (d) and (f) of subsection (1) of section seven of the Ordinance of 1962, to a widow's pension of forty shillings.

(4) An existing widow pensioner to whom any of the preceding provisions of this regulation applies shall, if she is entitled to a widow's pension immediately before attaining pensionable age, be deemed to have retired from regular employment as from the day on which she attains that age and shall thenceforth be entitled to a retirement pension of fifty shillings.

(5) An existing widow pensioner to whom the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation applies shall, if she ceases on or after the day on which she attains pensionable age to be entitled to a widowed mother's allowance, be deemed to have retired from regular employment and to have satisfied the conditions contained in paragraph 2 of the Third Schedule to the Law.

(6) For the purposes of section seventeen of the Law (which section relates to widows' pensions in special cases) a widow's pension which is payable by virtue of paragraph (2) of this regulation shall be treated as if it were a pension payable by virtue of subsection (2) of that section, and the provisions of that section and of section twenty of the Law (which section relates to special provisions as to women) shall, subject to the provisions of these regulations, apply to a widow to whom a widowed mother's allowance or a widow's pension is payable by virtue of this regulation as if her husband had satisfied the relevant contribution conditions:

Provided that—

- (a) for the purpose of applying the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of the said section seventeen to any such widow, she shall be treated as if she were a widow in relation to whom the conditions of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section sixteen of the Law (which paragraph relates to the conditions for widow's pension) were not satisfied;
- (b) for the purpose of applying the provisions of subsection (1) of the said section twenty to an existing widow pensioner who has attained pensionable age on the appointed day, and who ceases to be entitled to a widowed mother's allowance payable to her by virtue of this regulation, she shall be treated as if she were a widow who was immediately before attaining pensionable age entitled to widow's benefit in respect of the death of her husband.

Conversion of widow's pension under the Contributory Pensions Laws into widow's basic pension, widow's preserved pension, contributory old age pension or retirement pension in certain cases

5. (1) An existing widow pensioner who on the appointed day has attained the age of seventy years and was ordinarily resident in Guernsey immediately before that day shall from that day be entitled to a retirement pension of fifty shillings.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the Law and of these regulations, an existing widow pensioner who is below the age of seventy years on the appointed day and who immediately before that day was ordinarily resident in Guernsey, and who is not entitled on that day to a widowed mother's allowance or to a widow's pension in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding regulation, shall be entitled—

(a) if on that day she has attained pensionable age and if immediately before that day she was entitled in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section seven of the Ordinance of 1962, to a widow's pension of forty shillings, as from that day to a retirement pension of fifty shillings and thereafter she shall be deemed to have retired; or

- (b) if immediately before that day she was entitled to a widow's pension payable in accordance with the provisions of either Article XV or Article XIX of the Contributory Pensions Law, 1955, as amended, as from that day to a widow's basic pension of—
- (i) if on that day she had not attained the age of sixty years, seventeen shillings and sixpence until she attains that age and thereafter twenty-six shillings, or
 - (ii) if she had attained the age of sixty years on that day, twenty-six shillings.
- (3) ~~The widow's basic pension of a widow to whom sub paragraph (b) of the last preceding paragraph applies shall cease to be payable:—~~
- ~~(a) when she attains pensionable age if on that day she satisfies the following conditions, that is to say—~~
 - ~~(i) on or before the appointed day she had attained the age of fifty years, and~~
 - ~~(ii) immediately before the appointed day she was ordinarily resident in Guernsey, and~~
 - ~~(iii) that at her husband's death both he and she had been married for not less than three years, in which event she shall be deemed to have retired and shall receive a retirement pension of fifty shillings; or~~
 - ~~(b) in any other case, when she attains the age of seventy years, in which event she shall receive a contributory old age pension of twenty-six shillings.~~
- (4) Subject as aforesaid, where an existing widow pensioner who on the appointed day or at any time thereafter is entitled in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing regulation—

- (a) to a widowed mother's allowance, ceases to be so entitled and does not then become entitled to a widow's pension or a retirement pension; or
- (b) to a widow's pension, ceases to be so entitled and does not then become entitled to a widowed mother's allowance or a retirement pension;

she shall be entitled to a widow's basic pension of—

- (i) seventeen shillings and six pence if she has not attained the age of sixty years; or
- (ii) twenty-six shillings if she has attained the age of sixty years or when she attains that age and on attaining the age of seventy years that pension will be converted into a contributory old age pension at the same rate.

(5) Where by virtue of the provisions of this regulation and of the preceding regulation an existing widow pensioner becomes entitled to a retirement pension of fifty shillings that widow shall be treated as a person who has satisfied condition (b) of subparagraph (1) of paragraph 2 of the Third Schedule to the Law.

Existing widow pensioners outside Guernsey

6. (1) ~~The provisions of this regulation shall apply to an existing widow pensioner who on the appointed day is not ordinarily resident in Guernsey.~~

(2) A woman who on the appointed day has attained the age of seventy years shall be entitled to a contributory old age pension of twenty-six shillings.

(3) A woman who immediately before the appointed day is entitled, in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance of 1962, to a widow's pension of forty shillings, shall as from that day if she has not attained the age of seventy years, be entitled to a widow's preserved pension of forty shillings.

(4) A woman to whom the last preceding paragraph applies shall, on attaining the age of seventy years, have her widow's preserved pension converted into a contributory old age pension at the same rate.

(5) A woman, not being a woman to whom any of the three last preceding paragraphs of this regulation applies, shall as from the appointed day be entitled to a widow's basic pension.

(6) The amount of a widow's basic pension payable to a widow by virtue of the provisions of the last preceding paragraph shall be—

- (i) seventeen shillings and sixpence if she has not attained the age of sixty years; or
- (ii) twenty-six shillings if she has attained the age of sixty years or when she attains that age and on attaining the age of seventy years that pension will be converted into a contributory old age pension at the same rate.

Conversion of old age pension under or by virtue of the Contributory Pensions Laws into retirement pensions or contributory old age pensions

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Law and of these regulations, an existing old age pensioner (being entitled to a pension by virtue of his own insurance) who immediately before the appointed day is ordinarily resident in Guernsey shall as from that day be entitled to a retirement pension.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the Law and of these regulations, an existing old age pensioner, being a woman entitled to an old age pension by virtue of her husband's insurance (other than a woman to whom the foregoing paragraph applies) shall, if she was ordinarily resident in Guernsey immediately before the appointed day, be entitled as from that day to a retirement pension.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the Law and of these regulations, the retirement pension payable to an existing old age pensioner to whom paragraph (1) of this regulation applies shall be increased by the amount set out in the second column in Part IV of the ^{First} Schedule to these regulations opposite the appropriate reference in the first column of that Part for any period during which the said pensioner is residing with or is contributing at a weekly rate of not less than thirty ^{one} shillings to the maintenance of his wife who is not engaged in any gainful occupation from which her weekly earnings exceed thirty ^{one} shillings:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to such an existing old age pensioner whose wife had attained pensionable age on the appointed day and shall cease to apply to such an existing old age pensioner when his wife attains pensionable age after the appointed day.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the Law and of these regulations, the wife of an existing old age pensioner, if he is a pensioner to whom paragraph (1) of this regulation applies, shall be entitled to a retirement pension by virtue of his insurance when she attains pensionable age, if she has retired from regular employment.

(5) A woman to whom paragraph (1), ~~or~~ ^{or paragraph (4)} paragraph (2) of this regulation applies, on becoming a widow, shall have her retirement pension increased to the same rate as that at which her late husband's retirement pension was payable.

~~(6) If immediately before his death an existing old age pensioner was entitled to an increase in his~~ retirement pension by virtue of paragraph (3) of this regulation, his widow shall, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (7), (8), (9) and (10) of this regulation, be entitled either to widow's benefit, a retirement pension, a widow's basic pension or a contributory old age pension.

(7) The husband of a widow to whom the last preceding paragraph applies shall be deemed to have satisfied the relevant contribution conditions for the purposes of sections sixteen and seventeen of the Law and if such a widow otherwise satisfies the conditions of the said sections, she shall be entitled to widow's benefit at the same rate as the retirement pension awarded to her husband in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation.

(8) A widow to whom the last preceding paragraph applies shall, on ceasing to be entitled to widow's benefit on or after attaining pensionable age, be deemed to have retired from regular employment and shall be entitled thereafter to a retirement pension at the same rate.

(9) If a widow to whom paragraph (6) of this regulation applies does not satisfy the provisions of sections sixteen and seventeen of the Law at the date of her husband's death or before attaining pensionable age ceases to satisfy those provisions, she shall, for so long as she is below pensionable age, be entitled to a widow's basic pension of—

- (i) if she has not attained the age of sixty years, seventeen shillings and six pence until she attains that age and thereafter twenty-six shillings; or
- (ii) if she has attained the age of sixty years, twenty-six shillings.

(10) When a widow to whom the last preceding paragraph of this regulation applies retires from regular employment on or after attaining pensionable age, she shall be entitled to a retirement pension at the same rate as that awarded to her late husband by virtue of paragraph (1) of this regulation:

Provided that if the retirement pension is less than twenty-six shillings the widow shall continue to be entitled to a widow's basic pension in which event she shall receive a contributory old age pension of twenty-six shillings when she attains age seventy years.

(11) An existing old age pensioner who is unable to qualify for a retirement pension in accordance with the provisions of any one of the preceding paragraphs of this regulation shall as from the appointed day receive a contributory old age pension at the same rate as that at which the old age pension was payable before that day.

(12) If, but for the repeal of the Contributory Pensions Laws, the wife of an existing old age pensioner to whom the last preceding paragraph applies would have, on attaining the age of seventy years, become entitled to an old age pension by virtue of his insurance, she shall on attaining that age become entitled to a contributory old age pension, the amount of which shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of—

- (a) the Law of 1947, if her husband's old age pension had last been calculated in accordance with the said provisions; or
- (b) the Ordinance of 1962, if her husband's old age pension had last been calculated in accordance with the said provisions, as if that Law and that Ordinance had not been repealed.

(13) If an existing old age pensioner to whom paragraph (11) of this regulation applies dies leaving a widow who is then below the age of seventy years she shall for so long as she is below that age be entitled to a widow's basic pension of—

- (i) seventeen shillings and six pence if she has not attained the age of sixty years; or
- (ii) twenty-six shillings if she has attained the age of sixty years or when she attains that age.

(14) A widow to whom paragraph (11) of this regulation applies shall, on attaining the age of seventy years, be entitled to a contributory old age pension at the same rate as that at which her late husband's contributory old age pension had been payable, save that it shall not be less than twenty-six shillings.

(15) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) of this regulation, the amount of the relevant pension payable to any person to whom paragraphs (1), (2) or (4) of this regulation applies shall be at the following rates, that is to say—

- (a) in the case of a person to whom the said paragraph (1) applies, at the weekly rate specified in the second column of Part I of the Schedule to these regulations opposite the appropriate reference in the first column of that Part to the rate of old age pension that person was receiving immediately before the appointed day,
- (b) in the case of a person to whom the said paragraph (2) applies, at the weekly rate specified in the second column of Part II of the Schedule to these regulations opposite the appropriate reference in the first column of that Part to the rate of old age pension that person was receiving immediately before the appointed day.

- (c) in the case of a wife to whom the said paragraph (4) applies, at the weekly rate specified in the second column of Part III of the ^{Part} Schedule to these regulations opposite the appropriate reference in the first column of that Part to the rate of retirement pension payable to her husband.

Application of regulations four or five to certain widows after the appointed day

8. Where a widow was immediately before the appointed day disqualified in pursuance of the provisions of Article XXIII of the Contributory Pensions Law, 1935 (which relate to disqualification for benefit) for receiving payment of a widow's pension by reason of her cohabiting with a man as his wife, no pension or allowance shall become payable to her by virtue of the provisions of regulations four or five of these regulations unless and until she ceases to so cohabit.

Conversion of allowance under the Contributory Pensions Laws into child's allowance in certain cases

9. (1) Where immediately before the appointed day an allowance under the Contributory Pensions Laws or any Ordinance made thereunder was payable to any person in respect of a child, and no widowed mother's allowance becomes payable as from that day by reason of that child being included in the family of a widow, such person shall be entitled to a child's allowance in respect of that child at the rate at which the allowance was payable immediately before the appointed day:

Provided that where a child, in respect of whom a person is entitled to a child's allowance at a rate corresponding to the rate under the Contributory Pensions Laws or any Ordinance made thereunder appropriate to a younger child, becomes a child in respect of whom an allowance at the rate appropriate to an eldest or only child would, but for this Law, have been payable under the said Laws or Ordinance, the child's allowance payable by virtue of these regulations shall thereafter be at that rate.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of these regulations, a child's allowance shall be payable for any period during which an allowance in respect of a child would have been payable under the Contributory Pensions Laws or any Ordinance made thereunder.

(3) A child's allowance in respect of any child shall not be payable for any period after a widowed mother's allowance becomes payable by reason of the child being included in the family of a widow, or after the widow of the husband by virtue of whose insurance the additional allowance under the Contributory Pensions Laws was payable, becomes entitled under sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) of regulation four to a widowed mother's allowance by virtue of that insurance and the child's allowance would, but for this provision, be payable to her.

Certain benefits in respect of children under the Contributory Pensions Laws to become guardian's allowance

10. (1) Where at any time on or after the appointed day any person has in his family a child in respect of whom a benefit in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of Part I of the Third Schedule to the Law of 1947, as amended by the Ordinance of 1962, was payable immediately before that day, that person shall be entitled to a guardian's allowance in respect of that child.

(2) The provisions of the last preceding paragraph shall also apply in the case of a child in respect of whom a child's allowance is payable in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding regulation and who becomes an orphan (being a child both of whose parents are dead) and is included in any family.

Certain benefits under the Contributory Pensions Laws to become contributory old age pensions

11. Any person who immediately before the appointed day is in receipt of a benefit payable in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (v) of paragraph (b) of Part I of the Third Schedule to the Law of 1947, shall, as from the appointed day, receive a contributory old age pension at the rate at which the first mentioned pension was payable.

Diversion of child's allowance

12. Where at any time after the appointed day a child who on that day was—

- (a) included in the family of a person to whom a child's allowance becomes payable in respect of that child, ceases to be included in that family; or
- (b) not included in any such family, leaves the custody of the person who had charge of that child on that day;

any child's allowance shall become payable to any person in whose family that child is subsequently included, and not otherwise.

Disqualification, overlapping benefits, etc.

13. Nothing in this Part of these regulations shall be construed as making—

- (a) a pension or allowance payable to any person for any period when he is by reason of any of the provisions of the Law or of the regulations for the time being in force thereunder disqualified for the receipt thereof, or as affecting the operation of the provisions of the regulations for the time being in force under subsection (1) of section thirty-eight of the Law (which relates to overlapping benefits);

- (b) a pension payable to a widow for any period during which it would not be payable by reason of the provisions of the proviso to subsection (3) of section sixteen of the Law (which relates to widow's benefit).

PART IV

Miscellaneous provisions

Claims by existing beneficiaries

14. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this regulation, in the case of any person who on or after the appointed day becomes entitled to a benefit, pension or allowance by virtue of these regulations, that benefit, pension or allowance shall begin to accrue as from the appropriate day determined for the payment of that benefit, pension or allowance in accordance with regulations for the time being in force under subsection (1) of section fifty-five of the Law (which relates to administration of benefit) next following the appointed day or, as the case may be, the day on which he becomes so entitled.

(2) Any person to whom this regulation applies shall submit a claim for such benefit, pension or allowance to which he is entitled, in such manner and subject to the production of such particulars, evidence and information as the Authority may require.

Overpayments

15. If it is found on, or at any time after, the appointed day that any person, having been in receipt of a benefit, pension or allowance under or by virtue of the Contributory Pensions Laws during any period during which he was not entitled to payment thereof, or of such a benefit, pension or allowance at a higher rate than that appropriate to the case, would, but for the Law, have been liable in accordance with section two of Article XXXVII of the Contributory Pensions Law, 1935 (which relates to overpayments) to repay to the Authority any sums paid to him in respect of that benefit, pension or allowance during the period aforesaid, any such sums shall be recoverable by deduction from benefit under the Law or otherwise from that person in like manner as if they were sums paid to that person on account of benefit under the Law which it is subsequently decided was not payable, and any amount so recovered shall be paid to the Guernsey Insurance Fund.

Special provisions as to children to be included in a family

16. For the purposes of these regulations, where by order of any court any child has before the appointed day been removed from the custody of a widow, that child shall not, if and so long as the order is in force, be treated as being in that widow's family.

Supplementary payment of benefit under the Contributory Pensions Laws

17. Where but for the repeal of the Contributory Pensions Laws, an existing beneficiary would have become entitled to a weekly instalment of a benefit under those Laws which would have accrued due on the ninth day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty-five, that beneficiary shall in place thereof receive, by way of a single payment, a benefit of the same description of an amount equal to one-seventh of that weekly instalment, fractions of a penny being disregarded.

PART V

Citation and Commencement

Citation and commencement

18. These regulations may be cited as the Social Insurance (Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons) (Transitional) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1964, and shall come into operation on the fourth day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty-five.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of November, nineteen hundred and sixty-four.

A. QUEVATRE,

President of the States Insurance Authority, for and on behalf of the Authority.

FIRST SCHEDULE

Part I

Table showing rate of retirement pension payable to a person to whom paragraph (1) of regulation seven of these regulations applies.

(1) Rate of old age pension in payment immediately before the appointed day to an existing old age pensioner	(2) Rate of retirement pension to be payable from the appointed day in place of the old age pension specified in in Column 1
40s. od.	50s. od.
36s. od.	45s. od.
32s. od.	40s. od.
28s. od.	35s. od.
24s. od.	30s. od.
21s. od.	25s. od.
18s. od.	21s. od.
16s. od.	19s. od.
14s. 6d.	17s. od.
12s. od.	14s. od.

Part II

Table showing rate of retirement pension payable to a person to whom paragraph (2) of regulation seven of these regulations applies.

(1) Rate of old age pension in payment immediately before the appointed day to an existing old age pensioner	(2) Rate of retirement pension to be payable from the appointed day in place of the old age pension specified in in Column 1
25s. od.	30s. od.
22s. 6d.	27s. od.
20s. od.	24s. od.
18s. od.	21s. od.
17s. 6d.	21s. od.
16s. od.	19s. od.
15s. od.	18s. od.
14s. 6d.	17s. od.
12s. 6d.	15s. od.
12s. od.	14s. od.

Part III

Table showing rate of retirement pension payable to a married woman to whom paragraph (4) of regulation seven of these regulations applies.

(1)	(2)
Rate of retirement pension payable to a married man by virtue of paragraph (1) of regulation seven of these regulations	Rate of retirement pension payable to the wife of an insured person by virtue of his insurance
50s. od.	30s. od.
45s. od.	27s. od.
40s. od.	24s. od.
35s. od.	21s. od.
30s. od.	18s. od.
25s. od.	15s. od.
21s. od.	21s. od.
19s. od.	19s. od.
17s. od.	17s. od.
14s. od.	14s. od.

Part IV

Table showing increase in the rate of a retirement pension payable to a married man to whom paragraph (3) of regulation seven of these regulations applies.

(1) Rate of retirement pension payable to a married man by virtue of paragraph (1) of regulation seven of these regulations	(2) Amount by which the rate of retirement pension specified in Column 1 is to be increased
50s. od.	30s. od.
45s. od.	27s. od.
40s. od.	24s. od.
35s. od.	21s. od.
30s. od.	18s. od.
25s. od.	15s. od.
21s. od.	13s. od.
19s. od.	11s. od.
17s. od.	10s. od.
14s. od.	8s. od.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations modify the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1964, in its application to persons who immediately before the appointed day (4th January, 1965) are entitled to or have a prospective right to pensions under or by virtue of the Contributory Pensions (Guernsey) Laws, 1935 to 1962.

Part II provides for the addition to the descriptions of benefit under that Law of pensions and allowances for which it provides no comparable benefit.

Part III converts the pensions of persons entitled under or by virtue of those Laws into corresponding pensions under the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1964.

Part IV deals with ancillary matters relating to claims and payments.