CREATION AND CONSTITUTION

Creation

Creation of foundation.

1. Any one or more persons ("the founder(s)") may by -
 - (a) endowing the foundation with its initial capital (see section 2),
 - (b) subscribing his name, as the founder, to the Constitution of the foundation (see section 3(2)), and
 - (c) otherwise complying with the requirements of this Law

create a Guernsey foundation which, upon establishment, has legal personality separate and independent from its founder (see Schedule 1, paragraph 6(4)).

Capital endowment.

2. (1) The "initial capital" of a foundation is the capital endowed upon the foundation in order that the requirements for the Charter may be met (see section 4(1)) and the foundation may be established (see section 1(a)).

(2) The initial capital may comprise any property.

(3) Following the endowment of the initial capital, further property may be endowed upon the foundation by any person if the Constitution (see section 3) so permits.

(4) A founder does not have any interest in a foundation by virtue only of endowing it with its initial capital or further property or otherwise by virtue of being the founder thereof.

(5) No person has any interest in a foundation, or is a founder of a foundation, by virtue only of endowing it with further property in accordance with subsection (3).

Constitution.

3. (1) The Constitution of a foundation comprises -

(a) the Charter (see section 4), and

(b) subject to section 5(4), the Rules (see section 5).

(2) The founder must subscribe to the Constitution, by signing it in his own name, either personally or by his resident agent on his behalf (see section 12).

Charter.

4. (1) The Charter must -

(b) state the purpose of the foundation (see section 7),

(c) contain a description of the initial capital of the foundation (see section 2),

(d) state the duration of the foundation (if it is to subsist for a limited period only),

(e) contain a declaration from the founder, or his resident agent, that the founder wishes the councillors to comply with the terms of the Charter.

(2) The Charter may contain any matter -

 - (b) an application is made to the Royal Court by or on behalf of the founder or a foundation official whereupon the Court may, in its absolute discretion and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, by order authorise the rectification of any error, defect or omission therein.

(4) To the extent to which matters required or authorised to be in the Rules under subsection (1) are contained within the Charter, such matters need not also be in the Rules, and if all of the matters in subsection (1) and (2) are contained in the Charter, the foundation need not have any Rules.

Default recipient.

6. (1) The Constitution may identify a default recipient to whom all the foundation assets shall pass in the event of the termination of the foundation (see Part III of Schedule 2).

- (f) the purpose has ceased in any other way to provide a suitable and effective method of using the property of the foundation, and in these cases the property, or the remainder of the property, as the case may be, shall be held for such other charitable or non-charitable purpose as the Royal Court, on the application of -

- (c) the ADR results in a settlement of the claim which is recorded in a document signed by or on behalf of all parties, the settlement is binding on all participants and disenfranchised beneficiaries of the foundation, whether or not yet ascertained or in existence, and whether or not minors or persons under legal disability.

(2) Subsection (1) applies in respect of a participant or

Power of councillors to bind the foundation.

11. (1) In favour of a person dealing with a foundation in good faith, the power of the councillors to bind the foundation, or authorise others to do so, is deemed to be free of any limitation under the Constitution.

(2) For this purpose--

- (a) a person "deals with" a foundation if he is a party to any transaction or other act to which the foundation is a party,
- (b) a person dealing with a foundation –
 - (i) is not bound to enquire as to any limitation on the powers of the councillors to bind the foundation or authorise others to do so,
 - (ii) is presumed to have acted in good faith unless the contrary is proved, and
 - (iii) is not to be regarded as acting in bad faith by reason only of his knowing that an act is beyond the powers of the councillors under the Constitution.

(3) This paragraph does not affect any right of any participant of the foundation to bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an action that is beyond the powers of the councillors.

(4) This paragraph does not affect any liability incurred by the councillors or any other person by reason of the councillors or that other person exceeding their powers.

(2) Where -

(a) a foundation enters into such a transaction, and

 - (e) it is disclosed by the councillor mentioned in subparagraph (2)(b) to the other foundation officials and not avoided by the foundation within a period of 3 months after the date of disclosure.

(5) A person other than a councillor is not liable under subparagraph (3) if he shows that at the time the transaction was entered into he did not know that the councillors were exceeding their powers.

(6) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this paragraph affects the rights of any party to the transaction not within subparagraph (2)(b)(i) or (ii). But the Royal Court may, on the application of the foundation or any such party, make an order affirming, severing or setting aside the transaction on such terms as appear to the Court to be just.

(3) A foundation may, by power of attorney executed by the Council, authorise a person, either generally or in respect of specified matters, as its attorney to execute documents on its behalf.

Disqualification orders.

15. (1) Where the Royal Court considers that, by reason of a person's conduct in relation to any foundation or otherwise, that person is unfit to be concerned in the management of a foundation, the Court may, if satisfied that it is desirable in the public interest to do so, make and subsequently renew (on one or more occasions) an order against him (a "disqualification order") prohibiting him, without the leave of the Court -

(9) A disqualification order may be renewed at any time before, or within a period of one month immediately succeeding, the date of the expiration of the order.

(10) For the removal of doubt, a disqualification order or renewal thereof may, with the agreement of the parties, and in the Court's absolute discretion, be granted by consent.
