GuernseyStatutory Instrument

1956 No. 23

1956 No. 1.*Limited duration - expired*The Road Traffic (One-Way Streets) Regulations, 1956.

THE STATES ISLAND POLICE COMMITTEE, in pursuance of the powers conferred on it by Article X of the Ordinance entitled "Ordonnance relative au Trafic Vehiculaire en cette Ile" of the second day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, as amended, and of the Traffic Temporary Regulations Ordinance, 1950, and of all other powers thereunto enabling it, hereby makes the following Regulations in order to ascertain the best method of regulating vehicular traffic in this Island:-

1. A person, being in charge of a vehicle or animal, shall not without the permission of the Chief Officer of Police, proceed with that vehicle or animal on or along -

- (a) Havilland Street, Saint Peter Port, otherwise than from North to South;
- (b) Saint John's Street, Saint Peter Port, otherwise than from South to North.

2. In these Regulations the expressions "animal" and "vehicle" have the meanings respectively assigned to them by Article I of the Ordinance entitled "Ordonnance relative au Trafic Vehiculaire en cette Ile" of the second day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, as amended.

3. (1) These Regulations may be cited as the Road Traffic (One-Way Streets) Regulations, 1956.

(2) These Regulations shall come into force on the twenty-fifth day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty-six, and shall operate until the twenty-fourth day of November, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

Dated this twenty-first day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

J. HART.

President of the States Island Police Committee for and on behalf of the Committee.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations provide that Havilland Street and Saint John's Street shall be One-Way Streets. Traffic may only proceed along Havilland Street in the direction of Union Street and along Saint John's Street in the direction of the Grange.
