THE IMPORT AND EXPORT (CONTROL) (GUERNSEY) LAW, 1946

THE IMPORT AND EXPORT OF GOODS (CONTROL) (GUERNSEY) ORDER, 1955

THE BOARD OF ADMINISTRATION, in pursuance of Article I of the Import and Export (Control) (Guernsey) Law, 1946, hereby orders:-

1. Subject to the provisions of this Order, all goods are prohibited to be imported into the Island or to be exported from the Island, or shipped as ships' stores.
2. Nothing in Article I of this Order shall be taken to prohibit the importation or exportation of any goods or the shipment of any goods as ships' stores for use on board the ship, under the authority of a licence granted by the Board of Administration or some other person or body of persons duly authorised by the said Board to grant such licences, provided that all conditions attaching to the licence are complied with.
3. Any licence granted by the Board of Administration or other authorised licensing authority for the importation into, or the exportation from, the Island of any goods, or for the shipment of any goods as ships' stores for use on board the ship, may be modified or revoked at any time by the said Board or authority.
4. Nothing in Article I of this Order shall be taken to prohibit the importation of any goods, other than goods of a description set out in the First Schedule to this Order, which are proved to the satisfaction of the States Supervisor to have been consigned from the United Kingdom, the Island of Jersey, the other Islands of the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Isle of Man.
5. Nothing in Article I of this Order shall be taken to prohibit the exportation of any goods, other than goods of a description set out in the Second Schedule to this Order, to the United Kingdom, the Island of Jersey, the other Islands of the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Isle of Man.
6. Nothing in Article I of this Order shall be taken to prohibit:-
 - (a) the importation into the Island from the United Kingdom, the Island of Jersey, the other Islands of the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Isle of Man, of unsolicited gifts sent to any person in the Island through the medium of the General Post Office; and
 - (b) the importation into the Island of gifts not being arms and ammunition, plumage, dangerous drugs or other articles which are subject to special prohibition or restriction by virtue of legislation enacted for the purpose of controlling the importation of the said articles, from a place outside the United Kingdom, the Island of Jersey, the other Islands of the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Isle of Man, subject to the following conditions:-
 - (i) they shall be bona fide unsolicited gifts and shall not be imported as merchandise or for sale, or for commercial or professional use;
 - (ii) they shall be clearly marked as gifts; and
 - (iii) the weight shall not exceed 22 lbs. gross, whether the gifts are sent by post or otherwise; and

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Order substantially re-enacts in a consolidated and revised form The Import and Export of Goods (Control) (Guernsey) Order, 1949, and its amending Orders. Certain amendments have been made, the principal ones being:-

1. Food parcels may be imported from the Republic of Ireland without restriction as to the varieties of foodstuffs included, provided that:-
 - (a) they are bona fide unsolicited gifts and are not for resale, or for commercial or professional use;
 - (b) they are clearly marked as gifts;
 - (c) the weight does not exceed 22 lbs. gross.
2. Bacon may be exported to the United Kingdom, Jersey, the other Islands of the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Isle of Man without restriction.

The Open General Import Licence dated the 27th July, 1954, as amended, and the Open General Export Licence dated the 30th November, 1954, as amended, remain in force.
