THE FATS, CHEESE AND TEA (RATIONING) (BAILLIWICK OF GUERNSEY)
ORDER, 1951.

As Competent Authorities as regards the Bailiwick of Guernsey excluding the Island of Alderney and as regards the Island of Alderney respectively in relation to Regulation 55 of the Defence (General) (Guernsey) Regulations, 1945, we hereby make the following Order:-

PART I.

Provisions Relating to Fats, Cheese and Tea.

1. (1) In this Order -

"Appropriate coupon" means in respect of fats, cheese or tea a coupon in any ration document being either -

- (a) a coupon which forms part of a row of coupons against which the description of the rationed food appears; or
- (b) a coupon upon which the description of the rationed food is marked; or
- (c) a coupon marked "T" which coupon shall be an appropriate coupon in respect of tea; and except where otherwise specified any reference in this Order to an appropriate coupon shall be construed as a reference to an appropriate coupon in respect of one of the foods herebefore mentioned in this definition.

"Butter" means the substance usually known as butter manufactured or prepared from cow's milk.

"Cheese" means -

- (a) any cheese of the following varieties, whether home produced or imported, namely Cheddar, Cheshire, Lancashire, Derbyshire, Leicestershire, White Wensleydale or Dunlop;
- (b) any processed cheese, that is to say cheese which after manufacture has been heated and to which an emulsifying agent has been added, of the varieties set out in sub-paragraph (a) of this definition.

"Cooking fats" means any fat or mixture of oils and fats fit for human food or for use in the manufacture, preparation or treatment of human food, having a melting point which when determined by the method specified in the Fourth Schedule to The Oils and Fats (No. 2) Order, 1949 of the United Kingdom, is not less than 30 degrees centigrade, and for the purpose of this Order shall include lard as defined in this Order but shall not include dripping, premier jus, margarine, butter, vegetarian butter, cocoa butter, horse fat, technical tallow as defined in the said Oils and Fats (No. 2) Order, 1949, as amended, of the United Kingdom, or any unrendered animal fat.

"Fats" means butter, margarine and cooking fats.

"Lard" means rendered fat derived from a pig and having a melting point which when determined by the method specified in the Fourth Schedule to the said Oils and Fats (No. 2) Order, 1949, as amended, of the United Kingdom, is not less than 25 degrees centigrade, but does not include unrefined or unbleached hog grease.

"Margarine" includes any vegetarian butter other than peanut butter or paste or sunflower butter or paste; it does not include cocoa butter.

"The Principal Order" means The Food Rationing (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 1951 (a).

"Vegetarian butter" means any soft fatty paste fit for human consumption consisting of vegetable oils or fats or a mixture of both and containing also other material derived from oilseeds, nuts or kernels.

- (2) The Interpretation (Guernsey) Law, 1948, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of a Guernsey enactment.
2. Fats, cheese and tea are hereby declared to be rationed foods for the purposes of the Principal Order.
3. (1) An appropriate coupon numbered 1 in any ration document shall relate to the week beginning on the 20th day of May, 1951, and the coupons successively numbered in such ration document shall relate to the weeks thereafter in corresponding order. Any reference to a week so numbered in any ration document shall be construed accordingly.
 - (2) Any appropriate coupon in a General Ration Book R.B.1 or Child's Ration Book R.B.2 relating to any week shall be valid at any time during the ration period in which the week occurs.
 - (3) Any appropriate coupon in a Form R.G.64 relating to any week shall be valid at any time during the ration period in which the week occurs, during the preceding ration period and during the succeeding ration period.
 - (4) Any appropriate coupon in a Form R.B.12 shall be valid only during the period specified on the form (or in the case of a double form, on that half of the form of which the coupon forms part).
 - (5) Any appropriate coupon in a Leave or Duty Ration Card R.B.8A shall be valid at any time prior to the expiration of seven days from the date marked on the card or, where more than one date is so marked, from the latest of such dates.
 - (6) Any appropriate coupon in a Weekly Seaman's Ration Book R.B.6 shall be valid at any time, provided that the counterfoil relating to such coupon shall have been duly signed and completed by the master or owner of the vessel upon which the holder is employed.
4. The maximum quantities of fats, cheese or tea which may be obtained or supplied for household consumption against any appropriate coupon shall be an amount ascertained in accordance with the Schedule to this Order.

PART II.

Provisions Relating to Fats.

5. (1) Article 2 of the Principal Order shall apply in respect of the obtaining by or the supply to any trader of butter.

- (2) A person may supply to a trader in any 8-week period a quantity of butter exceeding the quantity authorised in respect of that period on the permit issued to the trader, if it is reasonably necessary to do so in order to avoid breaking a bulk package, provided that the quantity in excess of such authorised quantity shall be deducted from (and shall not in any case exceed) the quantity authorised in respect of the next such period.
6. Article 2 of the Principal Order shall apply in respect of the obtaining by or the supply to any trader of margarine and cooking fats.

PART III.

Provisions Relating to Cheese.

7. (1) Article 2 of the Principal Order shall apply in respect of the obtaining of cheese by or the supply of cheese to any trader.
- (2) A person may supply to a trader in any 8-week period a quantity of cheese exceeding the quantity authorised in respect of that period on the permit issued to the trader, if it is reasonably necessary to do so in order to avoid breaking a bulk package or cutting a whole cheese, provided that the quantity in excess of such authorised quantity shall be deducted from (and shall not in any case exceed) the quantity authorised in respect of the next such period.

PART IV.

Provisions Relating to Tea.

8. Article 2 of the Principal Order shall apply in respect of the obtaining of tea by or the supply of tea to any trader, except in respect of -
- (a) the supply or obtaining of tea by way of exchange between two wholesalers, if -
- (i) the quantities exchanged are equal or as nearly equal as is practicable having regard to the containers in which the tea is packed, and
- (ii) any such exchange is completed within two weeks from the first delivery of any tea in connection with the exchange by one party thereto to the other party;
- (b) the obtaining of tea by or the supply of tea to the Navy, Army and Air Force Institutes.
9. During any ration period tea shall not be obtained or supplied on more than one occasion by the use of all or any of the coupons valid during that period and contained in a General Ration Book R.B.1 (other than a coupon contained in a Form R.B.12 or Form R.G.64 forming part of any such ration book), nor on more than one occasion by the use of all or any of the coupons valid during that period and contained in a Form R.G.64:

Provided that the restrictions imposed by this Article shall not apply to the obtaining of tea by, or the supply of tea to, any person who is in receipt of an Old Age Pension under or by virtue of the Old Age and Blindness Pensions (Guernsey) Laws, 1950 and 1951 and the Contributory Pensions Laws, 1935 to 1949.

PART V.

Commencement and Citation.

- 10. (1) This Order shall come into force on the 20th day of May, 1951.
- (2) This Order may be cited as The Fats, Cheese and Tea (Rationing) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 1951, and shall be construed as one with the Principal Order.

Dated this 18th day of May, 1951.
