The Syria (Restrictive Measures) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2012

THE STATES LEGISLATION SELECT COMMITTEE, in exercise of the powers conferred on the States by sections 1 and 4 of the European Communities (Implementation) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1994^a and on the Committee by Article 66(3) of the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948^b, hereby order: –

Application and infringement of EU Regulation.

1. (1) Council Regulation (EU) No. 36/2012 of the 18th January, 2012^c concerning restrictive measures in view of the situation in Syria and repealing Regulation (EC) No 442/2011 ("the EU Regulation") is, subject to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications as may be specified in this Ordinance, applicable in Guernsey in all respects as if Guernsey were a Member State.

(2) A person who infringes, or causes or permits any infringement of, any of the prohibitions in the EU Regulation is guilty of an offence.

Modification of Regulation.

2. The EU Regulation in its application to Guernsey is modified as follows –

(a) Articles 1(q), 23, 30, 33 and 34 shall not apply,

^a Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXXV(1), p. 65.

^b Ordres en Conseil Vol. XIII, p. 288 (there are amendments not material to this Ordinance).

- (b) references to the competent authorities of, or in, the Member States shall be construed as references to the Policy Council,
- [(c) references to the obligation of a Member State to inform, notify, consult or present a request shall be construed as references to the obligation of the Policy Council to inform, notify, consult or present a request to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and any reference to the giving or receipt of views shall be construed as the giving of views by or the receipt of views from one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,]
- (d) references to the Member State concerned shall be construed as references to the Policy Council,
- (e) references to the Union shall be construed as including Guernsey,
- (f) references to the territory of the Union and its airspace shall be construed as including Guernsey, its airspace and the territorial waters adjacent thereto, [...]
- (g) references to the law of a Member State shall be construed as including the law of Guernsey[,]
- [(h) references to ports of Member States shall be construed as including any port in Guernsey, and references to a vessel flying the flag of a Member State as including a Guernsey ship and a Guernsey fishing vessel,

- (i) references to a Member State in relation to the prohibition or imposition of an authorisation requirement on the export of dual-use items shall be construed as a reference to the States of Guernsey Home Department, and
- (l) the inclusion of any natural or legal person, group or entity in the lists contained in any Annex to the EU Regulation shall be subject to any annulment of the EU Regulation in its application to that person group or entity by the Court of Justice of the European Union and having effect in the European Union for the time being.]

NOTE

In section 2, first, paragraph (c) was substituted, second, the word omitted in square brackets in paragraph (f) was repealed and, third, the punctuation in square brackets in paragraph (g) was substituted and paragraph (h), paragraph (i) and paragraph (l) were inserted by the Syria (Restrictive Measures) (Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2013, section 1(1), respectively paragraph (a), paragraph (b) and paragraph (c), with effect from 25th November, 2013.

Appeals against decisions of Policy Council.

3. (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Policy Council made under the EU Regulation, or a decision of the Policy Council not to exercise any of its powers under the EU Regulation, may appeal to the Ordinary Court against that decision on the grounds that –

- (a) the decision was ultra vires or there was some other error of law,

- (b) the decision was unreasonable,
 - (c) the decision was made in bad faith,
 - (d) there was a lack of proportionality, or
 - (e) there was a material error as to the facts or as to the procedure.
- (2) On an appeal under this section the Ordinary Court may –
- (a) set the decision of the Policy Council aside and, if the Court considers it appropriate to do so, remit the matter to the Policy Council with such directions as the Court thinks fit, or
 - (b) confirm the decision, in whole or in part.
- (3) On an appeal under this section the Ordinary Court may, upon the application of the appellant, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, suspend or modify the operation of the decision in question, pending the determination of the appeal.

Information.

4. The Schedule has effect in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Policy Council, of information for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the EU Regulation.

Failure to provide information or to co-operate.

5. A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any obligation to provide information to or co-operate with the Policy Council in the exercise of any power to request or demand the provision of information, or the cooperation of any person, under any article of the EU Regulation is guilty of an offence.

Furnishing of false information etc.

6. A person who in purported compliance with any article of the EU Regulation intentionally furnishes any false information, document or explanation, or recklessly furnishes any information, document or explanation which is false, is guilty of an offence.

Penalties and proceedings.

7. (1) A person guilty of an offence under –
- (a) section 1(2), 5 or 6, or
 - (b) paragraph 2(b) or (c) of the Schedule, is liable –

- (i) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, to a fine, or to both,
- (ii) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under paragraph 2(a) or 3(2) of the Schedule is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both.

(3) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, and the offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (3) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

Certain provisions of Customs and Excise Law applicable.

8. (1) Section 55 of the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972^d applies to the detention of a person for an offence under section 1 as it applies to the detention of a person for an offence under customs or excise legislation.

(2) Sections 61 to 65 of the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972 apply in relation to offences, penalties and proceedings for offences under this Ordinance as they apply to offences, penalties and proceedings for offences under customs or excise legislation.

SCHEDULE
INFORMATION

Section 4

1. (1) The Policy Council (or any person authorised by it for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) may request any person in or resident in Guernsey to furnish or produce to it (or, as the case may be, to that authorised person) such information and documents in his possession or control as the Policy Council (or, as the case may be, that authorised person) may require for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the EU Regulation; and a person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) No obligation of secrecy or confidence or other restriction on the disclosure of information to which any person may be subject, whether arising by statute, contract or otherwise, is contravened by reason of the disclosure by that person or by any of his officers, servants or agents of any information or document in compliance with this Schedule.

(3) Nothing in this Schedule compels the production by an advocate or other legal adviser of a communication subject to legal professional privilege; but an advocate or other legal adviser may be required to give the name and address of any client.

(4) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Schedule of failing to furnish any information or produce any document, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(5) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any such document.

2. A person who –

- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within the time and in the manner specified (or, if no time is specified, within a reasonable time) to comply with a request made under this Schedule,
- (b) intentionally furnishes any false information, document or explanation, or recklessly furnishes any information, document or explanation which is false, to any person exercising his powers under this Schedule, or
- (c) with intent to evade the provisions of this Schedule, destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document, is guilty of an offence.

3. (1) No information furnished or document produced (including any copy or extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Schedule shall be disclosed except –

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced: provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this item but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to possession of that document in his own right,

- (b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Schedule to request that it be furnished or produced or any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of Guernsey,
- (c) on the authority of the Policy Council, to the European Commission, to any of the competent authorities listed in or under the EU Regulation or any annex thereto, or to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for the purpose of assisting the Commission, that competent authority or that Principal Secretary of State to ensure compliance with the EU Regulation, or
- (d) for the purposes of the investigation, prevention or detection of crime or with a view to the instigation of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any criminal proceedings.

(2) A person who without reasonable excuse discloses any information or document in contravention of subparagraph (1) is guilty of an offence.
