EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Terrorism and Crime (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2007 as amended ("the 2007 Regulations").

In particular they insert a new regulation 2A into the 2007 Regulations. The inserted regulation applies where a person has made a disclosure under section 12, 15 or 15C of the Terrorism and Crime (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2007 and the police officer to whom the disclosure is made believes as a result, that another person ("a third party") may possess relevant information. "Relevant information" is defined as information which is, or is likely to be, of assistance to any enquiries that a prescribed police officer reasonably believes to be necessary in order to establish whether any person is engaged in terrorist financing, or that certain property is or is derived from terrorist property. Where the inserted regulation applies, a prescribed police officer, by notice in writing served upon a third party, may require that third party to provide the officer (or any other specified officer) with such additional information relating to the initial disclosure as may be specified in writing within such period which, in usual circumstances shall not be less than 7 days, and in such form and manner, as may be specified.

These Regulations also amend the form of disclosure set out in the Schedule to the 2007 Regulations, as amended.

These Regulations come into force on the 7th August, 2014.
