

Le 12 juin 1943, par devant Victor Gosselin Carey, écuyer, Bailli, présents, etc.:

Ordonnance relative aux Lettres de Change et Billets à Ordre

ATTENDU qu'à plusieurs reprises certaines localités en cette Ile ont été inaccessibles au public à cause d'opérations militaires:

ATTENDU qu'il est possible qu'il y aura d'autres occasions semblables dans le cours de la présente guerre:

LA COUR, ouïes les conclusions du Procureur Général Délégué, a ordonné et ordonne comme suit, savoir: —

1.—Every Bill of Exchange which becomes due and payable on a fixed date at a place within the limits of a locality which is or which has been officially declared to be out of bounds to the general public on that day or any part thereof through military or other operations shall be payable, and in the case of non-payment may be noted and protested, on the ensuing day, not being a Sunday

Bills of Exchange payable within the limits of a locality declared to be out of bounds or a Bank Holiday, on which such place shall be free from restriction.

Intimation to be given on the ensuing day not being Sunday or a Bank Holiday

2.—When intimation should be given on a fixed date at a place within the limits of a locality which is or which has been officially declared to be out of bounds to the general public on that day or any part thereof through military or other operations of the non-payment of a Bill of Exchange, intimation shall be given on the ensuing day, not being a Sunday or a Bank Holiday, on which such place shall be free from such restriction.