The Yemen (Restrictive Measures) (Sark) Ordinance, 2015

THE GENERAL PURPOSES AND ADVISORY COMMITTEE, in exercise of the powers conferred on the Chief Pleas by sections 1 and 4 of the European Communities (Implementation) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1994^a and on the Committee by section 41 of the Reform (Sark) Law, 2008^b, as amended, hereby orders: –

Application and infringement of EU Regulation.

1. (1) Subject to the modifications in section 2, Council Regulation (EU) No. 1352/2014 of the 18th December 2014^c, concerning restrictive measures in view of the situation in Yemen ("the EU Regulation") has full force and effect in Sark.

(2) A person who contravenes, or causes or permits any contravention of, any of the prohibitions in or requirements of the EU Regulation is guilty of an offence.

Modification of Regulation.

2. The modifications referred to in section 1 are as follows –

- (a) Articles 16 and 17 shall not apply,
- (b) a reference to the competent authority of a Member State shall be construed so as to include the

^a Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXXV(1), p. 65.

^b Orders in Council Nos. V, VII and XXVII of 2008 and No. XIV of 2010.

^c OJ L 365, 19.12.2014, p. 60.

[Committee],

- (c) a reference to the obligation of a competent authority of a Member State, or Member State, to inform or notify shall be construed as an obligation on the part of the [Committee] to inform or notify one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
- (d) a reference to the obligation of any natural or legal person, entity or body to transmit information to the Commission shall be construed as an obligation to transmit such information to the [Committee],
- (e) a reference to a Member State shall be construed so as to include Sark,
- (f) a reference to the Union shall be construed so as to include Sark,
- (g) a reference to a vessel under the jurisdiction of a Member State shall be construed so as to include a Guernsey ship and a Guernsey fishing vessel,
- (h) a reference to an aircraft under the jurisdiction of a Member State shall be construed so as to include an aircraft registered on the Register of Aircraft established under the Aviation Registry (Guernsey) Law, 2013^d, ^d Order in Council No. XIII of 2013; Ordinance No. XI of 2014.

- (i) a reference to the territory of the Union and its airspace shall be construed so as to include Sark, its airspace and the territorial waters adjacent thereto, and
- (j) the inclusion of any natural or legal person, entity or body in the list provided for by Article 2 of the EU Regulation shall be subject to any annulment of the EU Regulation in its application to that person, entity or body by the Court of Justice of the European Union and having effect in the European Union for the time being.

NOTE

In section 2, the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Sanctions Ordinances (Amendment) (Sark) Ordinance, 2016, section 1(2), Schedule, paragraph 23, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

Appeals against decisions of [Committee].

3. (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the [Committee] made under the EU Regulation may appeal to the Ordinary Court against that decision on the grounds that –

- (a) the decision was ultra vires or there was some other error of law,
- (b) the decision was unreasonable,
- (c) the decision was made in bad faith,
- (d) there was a lack of proportionality, or
- (e) there was a material error as to the facts or as to the procedure.

- (2) An appeal under this section shall be instituted –
 - (a) within a period of 28 days immediately following the date of the decision of the [Committee] (or such other period as the Ordinary Court may in any particular case direct), and
 - (b) by summons served on the [President] stating the grounds and material facts on which the appellant relies.

(3) The [President] may, where an appeal under this section has been instituted, apply to the Ordinary Court, by summons served on the appellant, for an order that the appeal shall be dismissed for want of prosecution; and, on hearing the application, the Court may –

- (a) dismiss the appeal or dismiss the [President]'s application (in either case on such terms and conditions as the Court may direct), or
- (b) make such other order as the Court considers just,

and the provisions of this subsection are without prejudice to the inherent powers of the Royal Court or to the provisions of rule 52(3) of the Royal Court Civil Rules, 2007^e.

- (4) On an appeal under this section the Ordinary Court may –

^e O.R.C. No. IV of 2007; amended by No. II of 2008.

- (a) set the decision of the [Committee] aside and, if the Court considers it appropriate to do so, remit the matter to the [Committee] with such directions as the Court thinks fit, or
- (b) confirm the decision, in whole or in part.

(5) On an appeal under this section the Ordinary Court may, upon the application of the appellant, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, suspend or modify the operation of the decision in question, pending the determination of the appeal.

(6) An appeal from a decision of the Ordinary Court made on an appeal under this section lies, with leave of the Ordinary Court or Court of Appeal, to the Court of Appeal on a question of law.

(7) Section 21 of the Court of Appeal (Guernsey) Law, 1961^f ("powers of a single judge") applies to the powers of the Court of Appeal to give leave to appeal under subsection (6) as it applies to the powers of the Court of Appeal to give leave to appeal under Part II of that Law.

NOTE

In section 3, the words, first, "Committee" and, second, "President" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Sanctions Ordinances (Amendment) (Sark) Ordinance, 2016, respectively section 1(2), Schedule, paragraph 23 and section 1(3)(a), Schedule, paragraph 23, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

^f Ordres en Conseil Vol. XVIII, p. 315.

Powers to obtain information.

4. The Schedule has effect in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the [Committee], of information and documents for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the EU Regulation.

NOTE

In section 4, the word in square brackets was substituted by the Sanctions Ordinances (Amendment) (Sark) Ordinance, 2016, section 1(2), Schedule, paragraph 23, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

Failure to provide information or to co-operate.

5. A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any obligation to provide information to or co-operate with the [Committee] in the exercise of any power to request or demand the provision of information, or the co-operation of any person, under any article of the EU Regulation is guilty of an offence.

NOTE

In section 5, the word in square brackets was substituted by the Sanctions Ordinances (Amendment) (Sark) Ordinance, 2016, section 1(2), Schedule, paragraph 23, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

Furnishing of false information etc.

6. A person who in purported compliance with any article of the EU Regulation intentionally furnishes any false information, document or explanation, or recklessly furnishes any information, document or explanation which is false, is guilty of an offence.

Penalties and proceedings.

7. (1) A person guilty of an offence under –

- (a) section 1(2), 5 or 6, or
- (b) paragraph 2(b) or (c) of the Schedule, is liable –

- (i) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, to a fine, or to both,
- (ii) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under paragraph 2(a) or 3(2) of the Schedule is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both.

Offences by bodies corporate and unincorporated bodies.

8. (1) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, and the offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

(3) Where an offence under this Ordinance is committed by an unincorporated body and is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of –

- (a) in the case of a partnership, any partner,
- (b) in the case of any other unincorporated body, any officer of that body who is bound to fulfil any duty whereof the offence is a breach or, if there is no such officer, any member of the committee or other similar governing body, or
- (c) any person purporting to act in any capacity described in paragraph (a) or (b), that person as well as the unincorporated body is guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where an offence under this Ordinance is alleged to have been committed by an unincorporated body, proceedings for the offence shall be brought in the name of that body and not in the name of any of its members.

(5) A fine imposed on an unincorporated body on its conviction of an offence under this Ordinance shall be paid from the funds of that body.

Certain provisions of Customs and Excise Law applicable.

9. (1) Section 55 of the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972 applies to the detention of a person for an offence under section 1 as it applies to the detention of a person for an offence under the customs Laws or excise Laws.

(2) Sections 61 to 65 of the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972 apply in relation to offences, fines, penalties and proceedings for offences under this Ordinance as they apply to offences, fines, penalties and proceedings for offences under the customs Laws or excise Laws.

INFORMATION

Section 4

1. (1) The [Committee] (or any person authorised by it for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) may request any person to furnish or produce to it (or, as the case may be, to that authorised person) such information and documents in his possession or control as the [Committee] (or, as the case may be, that authorised person) may require for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the EU Regulation; and a person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) No obligation of secrecy or confidence or other restriction on the disclosure of information to which any person may be subject, whether arising by statute, contract or otherwise, is contravened by reason of the disclosure by that person or by any of his officers, servants or agents of any information or document in compliance with this Schedule.

(3) Nothing in this Schedule compels the production by an advocate or other legal adviser of a communication subject to legal professional privilege; but an advocate or other legal adviser may be required to give the name and address of any client.

(4) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Schedule of failing to furnish any information or produce any document, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(5) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any such document.

2. A person who –

- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within the time and in the manner specified (or, if no time is specified, within a reasonable time) to comply with a request made under this Schedule,
- (b) intentionally furnishes any false information, document or explanation, or recklessly furnishes any information, document or explanation which is false, to any person exercising his powers under this Schedule, or
- (c) with intent to evade the provisions of this Schedule, destroys, mutilates, defaces, tampers with, falsifies, secretes, removes or otherwise disposes of any document, is guilty of an offence.

3. (1) No information furnished or document produced (including any copy or extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance of a request or order made under this Schedule shall be disclosed except –

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced: provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this item but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to possession of that document in his own right,

- (b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Schedule to request that it be furnished or produced or any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in right of Guernsey,
- (c) on the authority of the [Committee], to the European Commission, to any of the competent authorities listed in or under the EU Regulation or any annex thereto, or to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for the purpose of assisting the Commission, that competent authority or that Principal Secretary of State to ensure compliance with the EU Regulation, or
- (d) for the purposes of the investigation, prevention or detection of crime or with a view to the instigation of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any criminal proceedings.

(2) A person who without reasonable excuse discloses any information or document in contravention of subparagraph (1) is guilty of an offence.

NOTE

In the Schedule, the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Sanctions Ordinances (Amendment) (Sark) Ordinance, 2016, section 1(2), Schedule, paragraph 23, with effect from 1st May, 2016.
