ORDINANCE
OF THE STATES OF DELIBERATION

ENTITLED

Ordonnance par rapport à la Police des Lieux occupés par un Département du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

1. Places occupied by any Dept. of His Majesty's Government.
2. Penalty.
3. Refusal to give name and address, etc.

(Made on the 7th November, 1936.)

Ordonnance par rapport à la Police des Lieux occupés par un Département du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté

VU les représentations faites à la Cour par l' Autorité Compétente Militaire:

LA COUR, ouïes les conclusions des Officiers du Roi, a ordonné et ordonne comme suit, savoir: –

Places occupied by any Dept. of His Majesty's Government.

1. If any person, after having been directed by any uniformed member of the Military or States Police to leave or not to enter any place or way in the occupation of any Department of His Majesty's Government, without due authority remains in or on or enters that place or way, such person shall be guilty of an offence and may be removed from such place or way by any member of the Military or States Police or by, or by order of, any Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Forces.

NOTE

In accordance with the provisions of the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, Article 70(3), with effect from 1st January, 1950, this formerly Provisional Ordinance of the Royal Court became a Permanent Ordinance of the States.

Penalty.

2. Any person who shall be found guilty of an offence under the foregoing section of this Ordinance shall be liable upon a first conviction to a fine not exceeding [level 1 on the uniform scale] and upon any subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding [level 2 on the uniform scale] or to a term of imprisonment with or without hard labour not exceeding two days or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

NOTES

In section 2, the words and figures in the first and second pairs of square brackets were substituted by the Uniform Scale of Fines (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1989, respectively section 2(2) and section 2(4), with effect from 1st July, 1989.

In accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1979, section 2(2), with effect from 21st January, 1980, and subject to the provisions of section 2(3) of that Law, no person shall be sentenced by a Court to imprisonment with hard labour and accordingly the power conferred under this section shall be construed as conferring power to pass a sentence of imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum term for which a sentence of imprisonment with hard labour could have been passed in that case immediately before that date.

Refusal to give name and address, etc.

3. If any person, when committing or after having committed an offence under section 1 of this Ordinance, on being required by any Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Forces or by any member of the Military or States Police to give his or her name and address, refuses to give such name and address or gives a false name or a false address, such person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding [level 1 on the uniform scale].

NOTES

In section 3, the words and figure in square brackets were substituted by the Uniform Scale of Fines (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1989, section 2(2), with effect from 1st July, 1989.

The Ordinance was made and came into operation on 7th November, 1936.
