Power to charge interest on late payment.

2. (1) Where the States, acting by and through any [committee] thereof, are owed any monies in respect of a transaction which are not paid on or before the due date, the States may charge interest on the balance for the time being outstanding at such rate as the [committee] in question may by regulation determine.

(2) Regulations under this section may prescribe the due date applicable to a transaction or any class or description of transaction.

(3) Any interest charged pursuant to regulations under this section is recoverable in the same manner and by means of the same remedies as the original debt.

(4) In this section –

"due date" is the date on or before which, whether pursuant to regulations under this section or otherwise, the monies owed in respect of the transaction are payable to the States,

"transaction" includes any agreement, arrangement, dealing, service, circumstance, event or relationship whereby a liability to the States arises or is imposed.

NOTE

In section 2, the word "committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 8, Schedule 4, paragraph 1(a), with effect from 1st May, 2016.

Power to prescribe civil penalties by Ordinance.

3. The States may by Ordinance amend any Law or Order in Council so as to vary the amount of, or to abolish, any civil penalty for the time being prescribed in it.

Other powers not affected.

4. The provisions of this Law are in addition to and not in derogation from any power arising otherwise than under this Law to enact Ordinances, regulations or other descriptions of subordinate legislation.

General provisions as to subordinate legislation.

5. (1) The States may by Ordinance, without prejudice to any other provision of this Law conferring power to enact Ordinances or regulations, amend this Law.

(2) An Ordinance or regulation under this Law –

(a) may be amended or repealed by a subsequent Ordinance or regulation (as the case may be),

(b) may contain such transitional, consequential, incidental, supplementary and savings provisions as the States or the enacting [committee] or body (as the case may be) think fit, including (without limitation) provisions repealing, amending, modifying or disapplying any Law, Ordinance or Resolution described in section 1(1), and

(c) shall, in the case of a regulation (but not in the case of an Order of the Royal Court), be laid before a meeting of the States as soon as possible after being made; and if at that or the next meeting the States resolve that the regulation be annulled, then it shall cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything done under it or to the making of new regulations.

(3) Any power conferred by this Law to make an Ordinance or regulation may be exercised –

(a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases,

- (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised –
  - (i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),
  - (ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes,
  - (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any prescribed conditions.

NOTES
