PROJET DE LOI

ENTITLED

The Export Control (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2006

THE STATES, in pursuance of their resolution of the 27th day of October, 2004^a, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

Export controls.

1. (1) [The Committee] may by order make provision for or in connection with the imposition of export controls in relation to goods of any description.

(2) For this purpose "export controls", in relation to any goods, means the prohibition or regulation of their exportation from the Bailiwick or their shipment as stores.

(3) Goods may be described in the order wholly or partly by reference to the uses to which the goods, or any information recorded on or derived from them, may be put.

[(4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), export controls may be imposed for the purpose of the implementation, with or without modifications, of –

^a Article XI of Billet d'État No. XVIII of 2004.

- (a) provisions of any Community directive or regulation,
- (b) provisions of any UK enactment, or
- (c) any international obligation.]

(5) ...

(6) For the avoidance of doubt, export controls may be imposed in relation to the removal from the Bailiwick of vehicles, vessels and aircraft (as an exportation of goods), whether or not they are moving under their own power or carrying goods or passengers.

NOTES

In section 1,

the words in square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 7, with effect from 1st May, 2016;

subsection (4) was substituted and subsection (5) repealed by the Export Control (Brexit) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2019, regulation 2, with effect from 11 p.m. on 31st December, 2020.¹

The following Orders have been made under section 1:

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 2010;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 2010;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2012;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2013;

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2014;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2015;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2020;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2022;

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2024.

The following cases have referred to this Law:

Law Officers of the Crown v G. Fridman [2024]GRC011 (Unreported, Royal Court, 23rd February);

G. Fridman v Law Officers of the Crown [2024]GCA026 (Unreported, Court of Appeal, 19th April).

Transfer controls.

2. (1) [The Committee] may by order make provision for or in connection with the imposition of transfer controls in relation to technology of any description.

(2) For this purpose "transfer controls", in relation to any technology, means the prohibition or regulation of its transfer –

- (a) by a person or from a place within the Bailiwick to a person or place outside the Bailiwick,
- (b) by a person or from a place outside the Bailiwick to a person who, or a place which, is also outside the Bailiwick (but only where the transfer is by, or within the control of, a relevant person),
- (c) by a person or from a place within the Bailiwick to a person who, or a place which, is also within the Bailiwick (but only where there is reason to believe that the technology may be used outside the Bailiwick), or
- (d) by a person or from a place outside the Bailiwick to a person or place within the Bailiwick (but only where the transfer is by, or within the control of, a relevant person and there is reason to believe that the technology may be used outside the Bailiwick).

(3) Technology may be described in the order wholly or partly by reference to the uses to which it may be put.

(4) The power to impose transfer controls is subject to section 5.

(5) [The Committee] may by order make such provision as they consider necessary or expedient for the purpose of the implementation of, or in connection with, any controls in a Community directive or regulation on the transfer of technology.

(6) In this Law –

"transfer", in relation to any technology, means a transfer by any means (or combination of means), including oral communication and the transfer of goods on which the technology is recorded or from which it can be derived, other than the exportation of such goods, and

"technology" means information (including information comprised in software) that is capable of use in connection with –

- (a) the development, production or use of any goods or software, or
- (b) the development of, or the carrying out of, an industrial or commercial activity or an activity of any other kind whatsoever.

NOTES

In section 2, the words "The Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 7, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

The following Order has been made under section 2:

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 2010.

Technical assistance controls.

3. (1) [The Committee] may by order make provision for or in connection with the imposition of technical assistance controls in relation to technical assistance of any description.

(2) For this purpose –

"technical assistance controls", in relation to any technical assistance, means the prohibition or regulation of participation in the provision outside the Bailiwick of that technical assistance, and

"technical assistance" means services which are provided or used, or which are capable of being used, in connection with the development, production or use of any goods or technology.

(3) Technical assistance may be described in the order wholly or partly by reference to the uses to which it (or the goods or technology in question) may be put.

(4) The power to impose technical assistance controls –

(a) shall only be exercised for the purpose of imposing controls corresponding to or connected with –

(i) any export controls or transfer controls imposed under section 1 or 2, or

[(ii) the implementation of any controls for the purpose specified in section 5(2),]

(b) is subject to section 5.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (1) a person participates in the provision of technical assistance outside the Bailiwick if –

(a) he provides technical assistance outside the Bailiwick or agrees to do so, or

(b) he makes arrangements under which another person provides technical assistance outside the Bailiwick or agrees to do so.

(6) ...

(7) Technical assistance controls may be imposed on acts done outside the Bailiwick, but only if they are done by a person who is, or is acting under the control of, a relevant person.

NOTES

In section 3,

the words in square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 7, with effect from 1st May, 2016;

first, paragraph (ii) of subsection (4) was substituted and, second, subsection (6) was repealed by the Export Control (Brexit) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2019, regulation 4, respectively paragraph (a) and paragraph (b), with effect from 11 p.m. on 31st December, 2020.²

The following Orders have been made under section 3:

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 2010.

Trade controls.

4. (1) [The Committee] may by order make provision for or in connection with the imposition of trade controls in relation to goods of any description.

(2) For this purpose "trade controls", in relation to any goods, means the prohibition or regulation of –

- (a) their acquisition or disposal,
- (b) their movement, or
- (c) activities which facilitate or are otherwise connected with their acquisition, disposal or movement.

(3) Goods may be described in the order wholly or partly by reference to the uses to which the goods, or any information recorded on or derived from them, may be put.

(4) The power to impose trade controls –

- (a) shall only be exercised for the purpose of imposing controls corresponding to or connected with –

Consolidated text

- (i) any export controls or transfer controls imposed under section 1 or 2, or
 - [(ii) the implementation of any controls for the purpose specified in section 5(2),]
 - (b) is subject to section 5.
- (5) ...
- (6) For the purposes of this section –
- (a) a person acquires goods if he buys, hires or borrows them or accepts them as a gift, and
 - (b) a person disposes of goods if he sells, lets on hire, lends or gives them.
- (7) For the purposes of this section –
- (a) the making of an agreement with another to acquire, dispose of or move goods, and
 - (b) the making of arrangements under which another person –
 - (i) acquires, disposes of or moves goods, or
 - (ii) agrees with a third person to acquire, dispose of or move goods, are activities which facilitate the acquisition, disposal or movement of the goods.

(8) Trade controls may be imposed on acts done outside the Bailiwick, but only if they are done by a person who is, or is acting under the control of, a relevant person.

NOTES

In section 4,

the words in square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 7, with effect from 1st May, 2016;

first, paragraph (ii) of subsection (4) was substituted and, second, subsection (5) was repealed by the Export Control (Brexit) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2019, regulation 5, respectively paragraph (a) and paragraph (b), with effect from 11 p.m. on 31st December, 2020.³

The following Order has been made under section 4:

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 2010.

General restriction on transfer, technical assistance and trade controls.

5. (1) Subject to section 6, the power to impose transfer controls, technical assistance controls or trade controls may only be exercised where authorised by this section.

(2) Transfer controls, technical assistance controls or trade controls may be imposed for the purpose of the implementation[, with or without modifications, of –]

[(a) provisions of any Community directive or regulation,

- (b) provisions of any UK enactment, or
- (c) any international obligation.]

(3) Transfer controls may be imposed in relation to any description of technology within one or more of the categories specified in Schedule 1 for such controls.

(4) Technical assistance controls may be imposed in relation to any description of technical assistance within one or more of the categories specified in Schedule 1 for such controls.

(5) Trade controls may be imposed in relation to any description of goods within one or more of the categories specified in Schedule 1 for such controls.

NOTE

In section 5, the words in the first pair of square brackets in subsection (2) and paragraph (a) and (b) thereof were substituted and paragraph (c) thereof was inserted by the Export Control (Brexit) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2019, regulation 6, with effect from 11 p.m. on 31st December, 2020.

Exceptions from the general restriction on transfer, technical assistance and trade controls.

6. (1) Section 5 does not apply to the power to impose any transfer controls, technical assistance controls or trade controls if the control order which imposes them provides for its expiry no later than the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which it is made.

(2) Section 5 does not apply in relation to provisions of a control order which –

- (a) amend an earlier control order, or
- (b) revoke and re-enact (with or without modifications) provisions of an earlier control order, unless they impose new controls or strengthen the controls previously imposed.

(3) In subsection (2) "an earlier control order" does not include an order falling within subsection (1).

Control powers: supplementary.

7. (1) An order under any of the preceding provisions of this Law may (without prejudice to the generality of the power under which it is made) make provision –

- (a) for an activity to be prohibited unless authorised by a licence granted by any Department, council or committee of the States or such other person as may be specified in the order,
- (b) creating exceptions from any provision of the order,
- (c) requiring persons to keep (and produce) records,
- (d) requiring persons to provide information to any person specified in the order,
- (e) about the purposes for which information held in connection with anything done under or by virtue of the order may be used,

- (f) about the persons to whom any such information may be disclosed,
 - (g) creating indictable offences, summary offences or offences triable either way (subject to the limitation that no offence so created shall be punishable on indictment with imprisonment for a term exceeding 10 years), and
 - (h) for the enforcement of the order (including provision as to the powers and duties of any person who is to enforce it).
- (2) Such an order may –
- (a) amend, repeal or revoke or apply, (with or without modifications) provisions of this Law or any other enactment,
 - (b) provide for any reference in the order to a document (including a technical list by reference to which any Community directive or regulation[, UK enactment or international obligation] operates) to take effect as a reference to that document as revised or re-issued from time to time,
 - (c) make incidental, supplementary and transitional provision,
 - (d) make different provision for different cases and different circumstances, and

- (e) be amended, repealed or revoked by a subsequent order made under this Law.

NOTES

In section 7, the words in square brackets in subsection (2) were substituted by the Export Control (Brexit) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2019, regulation 7, with effect from 11 p.m. on 31st December, 2020.

The following Orders have been made under section 7:

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 2010;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Order, 2010;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2012;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2013;

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2014;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2015;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2020;

Export Control (Miscellaneous Goods) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2022;

Export Control (Military, Security, and Related Matters) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Order, 2024.

Protection of certain freedoms.

8. (1) [The Committee] may not make a control order which has the effect of prohibiting or regulating any of the following activities –

- (a) the communication of information in the ordinary course of scientific research,
- (b) the making of information generally available to the public, or

- (c) the communication of information that is generally available to the public, unless the interference by the order in the freedom to carry on the activity in question is necessary (and no more than is necessary).

(2) The question as to whether any such interference is necessary shall be determined by [the Committee] by reference to the circumstances prevailing at the time the order is made and having considered the reasons for seeking to control the activity in question and the need to respect the freedom to carry on that activity.

NOTE

In section 8, the words "T/the Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 7, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

Guidance about the exercise of functions under control orders.

9. (1) This section applies to licensing powers and other functions conferred by a control order on any person in connection with controls imposed under this Law.

(2) [The Committee] may give guidance about any matter relating to the exercise of any licensing power or other function to which this section applies.

(3) Any person exercising a licensing power or other function to which this section applies shall have regard to any guidance which relates to that power or other function.

(4) In this section "guidance" means guidance stating that it is given under this section.

NOTE

In section 9, the words in square brackets were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 7, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

Amendment to the 1972 Law.

10. In the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972 ("the 1972 Law")^b, after section 69 (power to take samples) insert –

"Power to require furnishing of information, etc.

69A. (1) Every person who is concerned (in whatever capacity) in the importation or exportation of goods for which an entry is required by or under this Law shall –

- (a) furnish to the Chief Revenue Officer, within such time and in such form as he may reasonably require, such information relating to the goods or to the importation or exportation as he may reasonably specify, and
- (b) if so required by an officer, produce or cause to be produced for inspection by the officer –
 - (i) at the principal place of business of the person upon whom the demand is made

^b Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXIII, p. 573; Vol XXIV, p. 87; Vol. XXX1, p. 278; No. XIII of 1991; No. X of 2004 and Ordinance No. XXXII of 2005.

or at such other place as the officer may reasonably require, and

(ii) at such time as the officer may reasonably require, any documents relating to the goods or to the importation or exportation.

(2) Where, by virtue of subsection (1) above, an officer has power to require the production of any documents from any such person as is referred to in that subsection, he shall have the like power to require production of the documents concerned from any other person who appears to the officer to be in possession of them but where any such other person claims a lien on any document produced by him, the production shall be without prejudice to the lien.

(3) An officer may take copies of, or make extracts from, any document produced under subsection (1) or (2) above.

(4) If it appears to him to be necessary to do so, an officer may, at a reasonable time and for a reasonable period, remove any document produced under subsection (1) or (2) above and shall, on request, provide a receipt for any document so removed and where a lien is claimed on a document produced under subsection (2) above, the removal of the document under this subsection shall not be regarded as breaking the lien.

(5) Where a document removed by an officer under subsection (4) above is reasonably required for the proper conduct of a business, the officer shall, as soon as practicable, provide a copy of the document, free of charge, to the person by whom it was produced or caused to be produced.

(6) Where any documents removed under the powers conferred under this section are lost or damaged, the States of Guernsey Home Department shall be liable to compensate their owner for any expenses reasonably incurred by him in replacing or repairing the documents.

(7) Nothing in this section shall compel the production by an advocate or other legal adviser of a document subject to legal professional privilege but an advocate or other legal adviser may be required to give the name and address of any client.

(8) If any person fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement under this section, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the uniform scale."⁴

Application of the 1972 Law to control orders.

11. (1) The provisions of this Law, insofar as they relate to the imposition of export controls, are provisions relating to customs and therefore customs Laws.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Chief Revenue Officer to take such action as he considers appropriate to secure the enforcement of any control orders to the extent he is not already subject to such a duty by virtue of subsection (1).

(3) The following sections of the 1972 Law shall apply as stated below to the extent that they are not already so applicable by virtue of subsection (1)

(a) section 55 (provisions as to detention of persons) shall apply to any person who has committed, or in respect of whom there are reasonable grounds to suspect of having committed, an offence for which he may be detained under any control order as it applies to the detention of any person for any offence for which he may be detained under the customs Laws or the excise Laws,

- (b) sections 61 to 65 (provisions relating to proceedings, fines and proof) shall apply in relation to offences, penalties and proceedings for offences created under any control order as they apply in relation to offences, penalties and proceedings for offences under the customs Laws or the excise Laws, and
- (c) section 69A (power to require furnishing of information, etc.) shall apply to any person concerned (in whatever capacity) in an activity requiring a licence under any control order as it applies to any person who is concerned (in whatever capacity) in the exportation of goods for which an entry is required by or under the 1972 Law, and accordingly references in section 69A of the 1972 Law to –
 - (i) goods shall, as the context requires, be read as including software, technology and technical assistance, and
 - (ii) exportation shall, as the context requires, be read as including any activity, including the transfer of technology or software or the provision of technical assistance, that requires a licence under any control order.

NOTE

In accordance with the provisions of the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 1991, section 12, the reference in this section to the "Chief Revenue Officer" shall, save where the context otherwise requires, be deemed to be a reference to the Chief Officer of Customs and Excise for the time being appointed by the Policy & Resources Committee and shall include any person acting by or under his authority.

Orders.

12. (1) Any order made under this Law must be laid as soon as practicable before a meeting of the States and if, at that meeting, or their next meeting, the States resolve to annul the order, it shall cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything done under it or to the making of a new order.

(2) [The Committee] shall publish any order made under this Law, as soon as practicable after it is made, in such manner as it thinks fit (for example, by publication on a website).

NOTE

In section 12, the words in square brackets were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 7, with effect from 1st May, 2016.
