Decision of the Tribunal

The Applicant claimed that he had been unfairly dismissed by the Respondent within the meaning of the Employment Protection (Guernsey) Law, 1998, as amended.

On 5 December 2017, the Respondent conceded that the Applicant was unfairly dismissed under the provisions of the Employment Protection (Guernsey) Law, 1998 (as amended), on the basis that there was no fair reason for the dismissal, and further that the Respondent acted unfairly in dismissing the Applicant. The Respondent further conceded that the Tribunal should award the Applicant £6,000.00, receipt of which the Applicant confirmed.

Accordingly, the parties have consented to the making of this order by the Tribunal.
