Requirement for a person not requiring leave to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey to prove that he has the right of abode.

12. A person claiming to be a British citizen must prove that he has the right of abode in the Bailiwick of Guernsey by producing either –

- (i) a United Kingdom passport describing him as a British citizen or as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies having the right of abode in the United Kingdom, or
- (ii) a certificate of entitlement duly issued by or on behalf of the Government of the United Kingdom certifying that he has the right of abode.

13. A person claiming to be a Commonwealth citizen with the right of abode in the United Kingdom must prove that he has the right of abode by producing a certificate of entitlement duly issued to him by or on behalf of the Government of the United Kingdom certifying that he has the right of abode.

14. A Commonwealth citizen who has been given limited leave to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey may later claim to have the right of abode. The time limit on his stay may be removed if he is able to establish a claim to the right of abode, for example by showing that –

- (i) immediately before the commencement of the British Nationality Act 1981 he was a Commonwealth citizen born to or legally adopted by a parent who at the time of the birth had citizenship of the United Kingdom and Colonies by his birth in the United Kingdom and Islands, and

- (ii) he has not ceased to be a Commonwealth citizen in the meanwhile.

Common Travel Area.

15. The United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and the Republic of Ireland collectively form a common travel area. A person who has been examined for the purpose of immigration control at the point at which he entered the area does not normally require leave to enter any other part of it. However certain persons subject to the Immigration (Control of Entry through the Republic of Ireland) (Guernsey) (No. 1) Order 1972^b as amended^c and Immigration (Control of Entry through the Republic of Ireland) (Guernsey) (No. 2) Order 1972^e as amended^f who enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey through the Republic of Ireland do require leave to enter. - (v) persons who entered the Republic from the United Kingdom and Islands after entering there unlawfully or overstaying their leave.

Admission of certain British passport holders.

16. A person in any of the following categories may be admitted freely to the Bailiwick of Guernsey on production of a United Kingdom passport issued in the United Kingdom and Islands or the Republic of Ireland prior to 1st January 1973, unless his passport has been endorsed to show that he was subject to immigration control –

- (i) a British Dependent Territories citizen,
- (ii) a British National (Overseas),
- (iii) a British Overseas citizen,
- (iv) a British protected person,
- (v) a British subject by virtue of section 30(a) of the British Nationality Act 1981, (who immediately before the commencement of the 1981 Act, would have been a British subject not possessing citizenship of the United Kingdom and Colonies or the citizenship of any other Commonwealth country or territory).

17. British Overseas citizens who hold United Kingdom passports wherever issued and who satisfy the Immigration Officer that they have, since 1st March 1968, been given indefinite leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey may be given indefinite leave to enter.

Persons outside the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

17A. Where a person is outside the Bailiwick of Guernsey but wishes to travel to the Bailiwick of Guernsey an Immigration Officer may give or refuse him leave to enter. An Immigration Officer may exercise these powers whether or not he is, himself, in the Bailiwick of Guernsey. However, an Immigration Officer is not obliged to consider an application for leave to enter from a person outside the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

17B. Where a person, having left the common travel area, has leave to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey which remains in force under [...] the Directions of the Lieutenant Governor Concerning Leave to Enter and Remain[, 2019] an Immigration Officer may cancel that leave. An Immigration Officer may exercise these powers whether or not he is, himself, in the Bailiwick of Guernsey. If a person outside the Bailiwick of Guernsey has leave to remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey which is in force in this way, the Lieutenant Governor may cancel that leave. [Leave must not be cancelled under this paragraph except on a ground specified in paragraph 321A.]

NOTE

In paragraph 17B, first, the words omitted in the first pair of square brackets were revoked, second, the punctuation and figures in the second and, third, the words in the third pairs of square brackets were both inserted by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2022, rule 2, respectively paragraph (a), paragraph (b) and paragraph (c), with effect from 22nd March, 2022.

Returning Residents.

18. A person seeking leave to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey as a returning resident may be admitted for settlement provided the Immigration Officer is satisfied that the person concerned –

- (i) had indefinite leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey when he last left, and
- (ii) has not been away from the Bailiwick of Guernsey for more than two years, and
- (iii) did not receive assistance from public funds towards the cost of leaving the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and
- (iv) now seeks admission for the purpose of settlement.

19. A person who does not benefit from the preceding paragraph by reason only of having been away from the Bailiwick of Guernsey too long may nevertheless be admitted as a returning resident if, for example, he has lived here for most of his life.

19A. Where a person who has indefinite leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey accompanies, on a tour of duty abroad, a spouse who is a member of HM Forces, serving overseas, or a permanent member of HM Diplomatic Service or a comparable UK based staff member of the British Council, or a staff member of the Department for International Development who is a British citizen or is settled in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, sub-paragraphs (ii) and (iii) of paragraph 18 shall not apply.

20. The leave of a person whose stay in the Bailiwick of Guernsey is subject to a time limit lapses on his going to a country or territory outside the common travel area if the leave was given for a period of six months or less or conferred by a visit visa. In other cases, leave lapses on the holder remaining outside the Bailiwick of Guernsey for a continuous period of more than two years. A person whose leave has lapsed and who returns after a temporary absence abroad within the period of this earlier leave has no claim to admission as a returning resident. His application to re-enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey should be considered in the light of all the relevant circumstances. The same time limit and any conditions attached will normally be re-imposed if he meets the requirements of these Rules, unless he is seeking admission in a different capacity from the one in which he was last given leave to enter or remain.

[Lapse of leave.

20A. Subject to the Directions of the Lieutenant Governor Concerning Leave to Enter and Remain, 2019, leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick will lapse on the holder going to a country or territory outside the common travel area.]

NOTE

Paragraph 20B was substituted by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2022, rule 3, with effect from 22nd March, 2022.

Holders of restricted travel documents and passports.

21. The leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey of the holder of a passport or travel document whose permission to enter another country has to be exercised before a given date may be restricted so as to terminate at least 2 months before that date.

22. If his passport or travel document is endorsed with a restriction on the period for which he may remain outside his country of normal residence, his leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey may be limited so as not to extend beyond the period of authorised absence.

23. The holder of a travel document issued by the Home Office or the Lieutenant Governor should not be given leave to enter or remain for a period extending beyond the validity of that document. This paragraph and paragraphs 21-22 do not apply to a person who is eligible for admission for settlement or to a spouse who is eligible for admission under [paragraph 6 of Appendix A] or to a person who qualifies for the removal of the time limit on his stay.

- (iii) the holder's exclusion from the Bailiwick of Guernsey would be conducive to the public good.

30B. An entry clearance shall cease to have effect where the entry clearance has effect as leave to enter and an Immigration Officer cancels that leave in accordance with paragraph 2A(8) of Schedule 2 to the Immigration Act 1971.

30C. 31. Under section 3(3) of the Immigration Act 1971 a limited leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey may be varied by extending or restricting its duration, by adding varying or revoking conditions or by removing the time limit (whereupon any condition attached to the leave ceases to apply). When leave to enter or remain is varied an entry is to be made in the applicant's passport or travel document (and his registration certificate where appropriate) or the decision may be made known in writing in some other appropriate way. Leave to remain may be granted or varied by an immigration officer acting on behalf of the Lieutenant Governor.

31A. Where a person has arrived in the Bailiwick of Guernsey with leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey which is in force but was given to him before his arrival, he may apply, on arrival at a port of entry in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, for variation of that leave. An Immigration Officer acting on behalf of the Lieutenant Governor may vary the leave at the port of entry but is not obliged to consider an application for variation made at the port of entry. If an Immigration Officer acting on behalf of the Lieutenant Governor has declined to consider an application for variation of leave at a port of entry but the leave has not been cancelled under paragraph 2A(8) of Schedule 2 to the Immigration Act 1971, the person seeking variation should apply to the Immigration and Nationality Division under paragraph 32.

32. After admission to the Bailiwick of Guernsey any application for an extension of the time limit on or variation of conditions attached to a person's stay in the Bailiwick of Guernsey must be made to the Immigration and Nationality Division before the applicant's current leave to enter or remain expires.

33. [Not Used]

33A. Where a person, having left the common travel area, has leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey which remains in force under [...] the [Directions] of the Lieutenant Governor concerning Leave to Enter and Remain[, 2019], his leave may be varied (including any conditions to which it is subject) in such form and manner as permitted for the giving of leave to enter. However the Lieutenant Governor is not obliged to consider an application for variation of leave to enter or remain from a person outside the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

NOTE

In paragraph 33A, first, the words omitted in the first pair of square brackets were revoked, second, the word in the second pair of square brackets was substituted and, third, the punctuation and figures in the third pair of square brackets were inserted by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2022, rule 5, respectively paragraph (a), paragraph (b) and paragraph (c), with effect from 22nd March, 2022.

Knowledge of language and Life in the United Kingdom and Bailiwick of Guernsey.

33B. A person has sufficient knowledge of the English language and sufficient knowledge about life in the United Kingdom and Bailiwick of Guernsey for the purpose of an application for indefinite leave to remain under these Rules if –

- (a) he has attended a combined English Language and citizenship course run by the Guernsey College of Further Education, or equivalent in the other Islands, and thereby attained a certificate confirming successful completion of that course, or other person approved for this purpose by the Secretary of State, or

(e) in the case of a person who is the spouse or unmarried [...] partner of –

(i) a permanent member of HM Diplomatic Service, or

(ii) a comparable UK-based staff member of the British Council on a tour of duty abroad, or

(iii) a staff member of the Department for International Development who is a British citizen or is settled in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, a person designated by the Lieutenant Governor certifies in writing that he has sufficient knowledge of the English language and sufficient knowledge about life in the United Kingdom and Bailiwick of Guernsey for this purpose.

NOTE

In paragraph 33B of these Rules, the words omitted in square brackets in sub-paragraph (e) were repealed by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2011, paragraph 1, Schedule, with effect from 1st June, 2011, subject to the transitional and savings provisions in paragraph 2 of the 2011 Rules.

33C. [Not used]

33D. If in the special circumstances of any particular case the Lieutenant Governor thinks fit, he may waive the need to fulfil the requirement to have sufficient knowledge of the English language and sufficient knowledge about life in the United Kingdom and Bailiwick of Guernsey if he considers that, because of the applicant's physical or mental condition, it would be unreasonable to expect him to fulfil that requirement.

33E. Where an applicant applies for indefinite leave to remain under these Rules, and –

- (i) is required by these Rules to have sufficient knowledge of the English language and sufficient knowledge about life in the United Kingdom and Bailiwick of Guernsey, and
- (ii) meets all the other requirements for indefinite leave to remain for the category he has applied under with the exception of the requirement in (i) above, and
- (iii) has not made any false representations or failed to disclose any material fact in his application, his application will automatically fall to be considered under the Rules for an extension of stay in the same category in which he applied for indefinite leave to remain

33F. Where an application is considered under the Rules for an extension of stay in accordance with paragraph 33E above, and the Lieutenant Governor is satisfied that the applicant qualifies for a grant of limited leave, leave should be granted for the duration and subject to the conditions normally imposed on an extension of stay in the category under which the application is being considered.

Withdrawn applications for variation of leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

34. Where a person whose application for variation of leave to enter or remain is being considered requests the return of his passport for the purpose of travel outside the common travel area, the application for variation of leave shall, provided it has not already been determined, be treated as withdrawn as soon as the passport is returned in response to that request.

Undertakings.

35. A sponsor of a person seeking leave to enter [...] or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey may be asked to give an undertaking in writing to be responsible for that person's maintenance and accommodation for the period of any leave granted, including any further variation [, or for a period of 5 years from date of grant where indefinite leave to enter or remain is granted]. The States of Guernsey may recover from the person giving such an undertaking any public monies paid to or for the benefit of the person in respect of whom the undertaking is given.

NOTE

In paragraph 35 of these Rules, the words omitted in the first pair of square brackets were revoked and the words in the second pair of square brackets were inserted by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2015, paragraph 1, Schedule, with effect from 1st June, 2015, subject to the transitional and savings provisions in paragraph 2 of the 2015 Rules.

Medical.

36. A person who intends to remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey for more than 6 months may be referred to the Medical Officer of Health for examination. If he produces a medical certificate he should be advised to hand it to the Medical Officer of Health. Any person seeking entry who mentions health or medical treatment as a reason for his visit, or who appears not to be in good mental or physical health, should also be referred to the Medical Officer of Health; and the Immigration Officer has discretion, which should be exercised sparingly, to refer for examination in any other case.

37. Where the Medical Officer of Health advises that a person seeking entry is suffering from a specified disease or condition which may interfere with his ability to support himself or his dependants, the Immigration Officer should take account of this, in conjunction with other factors, in deciding whether to admit that person. The Immigration Officer should also take account of the Medical Officer of Health's assessment of the likely course of treatment in deciding whether a person seeking entry for private medical treatment has sufficient means at his disposal.

38. A returning resident should not be refused leave to enter or have existing leave to enter or remain cancelled on medical grounds. But where a person would be refused leave to enter or have existing leave to enter or remain cancelled on medical grounds if he were not a returning resident, or in any case where it is decided on compassionate grounds not to exercise the power to refuse leave to enter or to cancel existing leave to enter or remain, or in any other case where the Medical Officer of Health so recommends, the Immigration Officer should give the person concerned a notice requiring him to report to the Medical Officer of Health with a view to further examination and any necessary treatment.

39. [Subject to paragraphs 39A and 39B,] the Entry Clearance Officer has the same discretion as an Immigration Officer to refer applicants for entry clearance for medical examination and the same principles will apply to the decision whether or not to issue an entry clearance.

{Not Used}

324A-326. {Not used}

PART 11
ASYLUM

Definition of asylum applicant.

327. Under these Rules an asylum applicant is a person who claims that it would be contrary to the Bailiwick of Guernsey's obligations under the United Nations Convention and Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees for him to be removed from or required to leave the Bailiwick of Guernsey. All such cases are referred to in these Rules as asylum applications.

Applications for asylum.

328. All asylum applications will be determined in accordance with the Bailiwick of Guernsey's obligations under the United Nations Convention and Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees. Every asylum application made by a person at a port or airport in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, other than one refused under paragraph 345, will be referred by the Immigration Officer for determination by the Lieutenant Governor in accordance with these Rules.

329. Until an asylum application, other than one refused under paragraph 345, has been determined by the Lieutenant Governor, no action will be taken to require the departure of the asylum applicant or his dependants from the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

330. If the Lieutenant Governor decides to grant asylum and the person has not yet been given leave to enter, the Immigration Officer will grant limited leave to enter.

331. If a person seeking leave to enter is refused asylum, the Immigration Officer will consider whether or not he is in a position to decide to give or refuse leave to enter without interviewing the person further. If the Immigration Officer decides that a further interview is not required he may serve the notice giving or refusing leave to enter by post. If the Immigration Officer decides that a further interview is required, he will then resume his examination to determine whether or not to grant the person leave to enter under any other provision of these Rules. If the person fails at any time to comply with a requirement to report to an Immigration Officer for examination, the Immigration Officer may direct that the person's examination shall be treated as concluded at that time. The Immigration Officer will then consider any outstanding applications for entry on the basis of any evidence before him.

332. If a person who has been refused leave to enter applies for asylum and that application is refused, leave to enter will again be refused unless the applicant qualifies for admission under any other provision of these Rules.

333. A person who is refused leave to enter following the refusal of an asylum application will be provided with a notice informing him of a decision and of the reasons for refusal.

Grant of asylum.

334. An asylum applicant will be granted asylum in the Bailiwick of Guernsey if the Lieutenant Governor is satisfied that –

- (i) he is in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or has arrived at a port of entry in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and
- (ii) he is a refugee, as defined by the Convention and Protocol, and
- (iii) refusing his application would result in his being required to go (whether immediately or after the time limited by an existing leave to enter or remain) in breach of the Convention and Protocol, to a country in which his life or freedom would be threatened on account of his race, religion, nationality, political opinion or membership of a particular social group.

335. If the Lieutenant Governor decides to grant asylum to a person who has been given leave to enter (whether or not the leave has expired) or to a person who has entered without leave, the Lieutenant Governor will vary the existing leave or grant limited leave to remain.

Refusal of asylum.

336. An application which does not meet the criteria set out in paragraph 334 will be refused.

337. The Lieutenant Governor may decide not to consider the substance of a person's claim to a refugee status if he is satisfied that the person's removal to a third country does not raise any issue as to the Bailiwick of Guernsey's obligations under the Convention and Protocol. More details are given in paragraphs 345 and 347.

338. When a person in the Bailiwick of Guernsey is notified that asylum has been refused he may, if he is liable to removal as an illegal entrant, removal under section 10 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 or to deportation, at the same time be notified of removal directions, or served with a deportation order, as appropriate.

339. When a person with limited leave is refused asylum the leave may be curtailed if he does not meet the requirements of the Rules under which leave was granted. Full account will be taken of all the relevant circumstances known to the Lieutenant Governor, including those listed in paragraph 364.

Consideration of cases.

340. A failure, without reasonable explanation, to make a prompt and full disclosure of material factors, either orally or in writing, or otherwise to assist the Lieutenant Governor to the full in establishing the facts of the case may lead to refusal of an asylum application. This includes failure to complete an asylum questionnaire, or failure to comply with a request to attend an interview concerning the application.

341. In determining an asylum application the Lieutenant Governor will have regard to matters which may damage an asylum applicant's credibility if no reasonable explanation is given. Among such matters are –

- (i) that the applicant has failed to apply forthwith upon arrival in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, unless the application is founded on events which have taken place since his arrival in the Bailiwick of Guernsey,
- (ii) that the applicant has made false representations, either orally or in writing,
- (iii) that the applicant has destroyed, damaged or disposed of any passport, other document or ticket relevant to his claim,
- (iv) that the applicant has undertaken any activities in the Bailiwick of Guernsey before or after lodging his application which are inconsistent with his previous beliefs and behaviour and calculated to create or substantially enhance his claim to refugee status,
- (v) that the applicant has lodged concurrent applications for asylum in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or in another country or territory.

If the Lieutenant Governor concludes for these or any other reasons that an asylum applicant's account is not credible, the application will be refused.

342. The actions of anyone acting as an agent of the asylum applicant may also be taken into account in regard to the matters set out in paragraphs 340 and 341.

343. If there is a part of the country from which the applicant claims to be a refugee in which he would not have a well-founded fear of persecution, and to which it would be reasonable to expect him to go, the application may be refused.

344. Cases will normally be considered on an individual basis but if an applicant is part of a group whose claims are clearly not related to the criteria for refugee status in the Convention and Protocol he may be refused without examination of his individual claim. However, the Lieutenant Governor will have regard to any evidence produced by an individual to show that his claim should be distinguished from those of the rest of the group.

Third country cases.

345. If the Lieutenant Governor or, in the case of a person arriving in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, an immigration officer not below the rank of Senior Immigration Officer, is satisfied that there is a safe country to which an asylum applicant can be sent, his application will normally be refused without substantive consideration of his claim to refugee status. A safe country is one in which the life or freedom of the asylum applicant would not be threatened (within the meaning of Article 33 of the Convention) and the government of which would not send the applicant elsewhere in a manner contrary to the principles of the Convention and Protocol. An asylum applicant shall not be removed without substantive consideration of his claim unless –

- (i) the asylum applicant has not arrived in the Bailiwick of Guernsey directly from the country in which he claims to fear persecution and has had an opportunity at the border or within the territory of a third country to make contact with that country's authorities in order to seek their protection, or
- (ii) there is other clear evidence of his admissibility to a third country.

Provided that a case meets the above criteria, there is no obligation to consult the authorities of the third country before the removal of an asylum applicant.

Previously rejected applications.

346. When an asylum applicant has previously been refused asylum in the United Kingdom and Islands and can demonstrate no relevant and substantial change in his circumstances since that date, his application will be refused.

347. When an asylum applicant has come to the Bailiwick of Guernsey from another country which is a party to the United Nations Convention relating to the Status of Refugees or its Protocol and which has considered and rejected an application for asylum from him, his application for asylum in the Bailiwick of Guernsey may be refused without substantive consideration of his claim to refugee status. He may be removed to that country, or another country meeting the criteria of paragraph 345, and invited to raise any new circumstances with the authorities of the country which originally considered his application.

348. {Not used}

Dependants.

349. A spouse or minor child accompanying a principal applicant may be included in his application for asylum as his dependant. A spouse or minor child may also claim asylum in his own right. If the principal applicant is granted asylum and leave to enter or remain any spouse or minor will be granted leave to enter or remain for the same duration. The case of any dependant who claims asylum in his own right will be considered individually in accordance with paragraph 334 above. An applicant under this paragraph, including an accompanied child, may be interviewed where he makes a claim as a dependant or in his own right. If the spouse or minor child in question has a claim in his own right, that claim should be made at the earliest opportunity. Any failure to do so will be taken into account and may damage credibility if no reasonable explanation for it is given. Where an asylum application is unsuccessful, at the same time that asylum is being refused the applicant may be notified of removal directions.

In this paragraph and paragraphs 350-352 a child means a person who is under 18 years of age or who, in the absence of documentary evidence establishing age, appears to be under that age.

Unaccompanied children.

350. Unaccompanied children may also apply for asylum and, in view of their potential vulnerability, particular priority and care is to be given to the handling of their cases.

Paragraph 351.

351. A person of any age may qualify for refugee status under the Convention and the criteria in paragraph 334 apply to all cases. However, account should be taken of the applicant's maturity and in assessing the claim of a child more weight should be given to objective indications of risk than to the child's state of mind and understanding of his situation. An asylum application made on behalf of a child should not be refused solely because the child is too young to understand his situation or to have formed a well-founded fear of persecution. Close attention should be given to the welfare of the child at all times.

Paragraph 352.

352. An accompanied or unaccompanied child who has claimed asylum in his own right may be interviewed about the substance of his claim or to determine his age and identity. When an interview is necessary it should be conducted in the presence of a parent, guardian, representative or an appropriate adult who for the time being takes responsibility for the child. The interviewer should have particular regard to the possibility that a child will feel inhibited or alarmed. The child should be allowed to express himself in his own way and at his own speed. If he appears tired or distressed, the interview should be stopped immediately.

Paragraph 352A.

352A. The requirements to be met by a person seeking leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey as the spouse of a refugee are that –

- (i) the applicant is married to a person granted asylum in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and
- (ii) the marriage did not take place after the person granted asylum left the country of his former habitual residence in order to seek asylum, and
- (iii) the applicant would not be excluded from protection by virtue of article 1F of the United Nations Convention and Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees if he were to seek asylum in his own right, and
- (iv) each of the parties intends to live permanently with the other as his or her spouse and the marriage is subsisting, and

- (v) if seeking leave to enter, the applicant holds a valid entry clearance for entry in this capacity.

Paragraph 352B.

352B. Limited leave to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey as the spouse of a refugee may be granted provided a valid entry clearance for entry in this capacity is produced to the Immigration Officer on arrival. Limited leave to remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey as the spouse of a refugee may be granted provided the Lieutenant Governor is satisfied that each of the requirements of paragraph 352A(i)-(iii) are met.

Paragraph 352C.

352C. Limited leave to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey as the spouse of a refugee is to be refused if a valid entry clearance for entry in this capacity is not produced to the Immigration Officer on arrival. Limited leave to remain as the spouse of a refugee is to be refused if the Lieutenant Governor is not satisfied that each of the requirements of paragraph 352A(i)-(iii) are met.

Paragraph 352D.

352D. The requirements to be met by a person seeking leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey in order to join or remain with the parent who has been granted asylum in the Bailiwick of Guernsey are that the applicant –

- (i) is the child of a parent who has been granted asylum in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, and
- (ii) is under the age of 18, and
- (iii) is not leading an independent life, is unmarried and has not formed an independent family unit, and

- (iv) was part of the family unit of the person granted asylum at the time that the person granted asylum left the country of his habitual residence in order to seek asylum, and
- (v) would not be excluded from protection by virtue of article 1F of the United Nations Convention and Protocol relating to the States of Refugees if he were to seek asylum in his own right, and
- (vi) if seeking leave to enter, holds a valid entry clearance for entry in this capacity.

Paragraph 352E.

352E. Limited leave to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey as the child of a refugee may be granted provided a valid entry clearance for entry in this capacity is produced to the Immigration Officer on arrival. Limited leave to remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey as the child of a refugee may be granted provided the Lieutenant Governor is satisfied that each of the requirements of paragraph 352D(i)-(v) are met.

Paragraph 352F.

352F. Limited leave to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey as the child of a refugee is to be refused if a valid entry clearance for entry in this capacity is not produced to the Immigration Officer on arrival. Limited leave to remain as the child of a refugee is to be refused if the Lieutenant Governor is not satisfied that each of the requirements of paragraph 352D(i)-(v) are met.

PART 12

353-361. {Not used}

PART 13
DEPORTATION

A deportation order.

362. A deportation order requires the subject to leave the Bailiwick of Guernsey and authorises his detention until he is removed. It also prohibits him from re-entering the Bailiwick of Guernsey for as long as it is in force and invalidates any leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey given him before the order was made or while it is in force.

Paragraph 363.

363. The circumstances in which a person, including an EEA national or the family member of an EEA national who is not himself an EEA national, is liable to deportation include –

- (i) where the Lieutenant Governor deems the person's deportation to be conducive to the public good,
- (ii) where the person is the [spouse] or child under 18 of a person ordered to be deported, and
- (iii) where a court recommends deportation in the case of a person over the age of 17 who has been convicted of an offence punishable with imprisonment.

NOTE

Deportation of family members.

365. Section 5 of the Immigration Act 1971 gives the Lieutenant Governor power in certain circumstances to make a deportation order against the [spouse] or child of a person against whom a deportation order has been made. The Lieutenant Governor will not normally decide to deport the [spouse] of a deportee where –

- (i) [he] has qualified for settlement in her own right, or
- (ii) [he] has been living apart from the deportee.

NOTE

In paragraph 365, the words, first, "spouse" and, second, "he" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted for the words "wife" and "she" by, first (in relation to Guernsey), the Same-Sex Marriage

(Consequential and Miscellaneous Amendments and Contrary Provisions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2017, section 1, Schedule 1, Part III, respectively paragraph 20(b) and paragraph 20(c), with effect from 2nd May, 2017, second (in relation to Alderney), by the Same-Sex Marriage (Consequential and Miscellaneous Amendments and Contrary Provisions) (Alderney) Ordinance, 2018, section 1, Schedule 1, Part III, respectively paragraph 20(b) and paragraph 20(c), with effect from 14th June, 2018 and, third (in relation to Sark), the Same-Sex Marriage (Consequential and Miscellaneous Amendments and Contrary Provisions) (Sark) Ordinance, 2020, section 1, Schedule 1, respectively paragraph 7(b) and paragraph 7(c), with effect from 23rd April, 2020.

Paragraph 366.

366. The Lieutenant Governor will not normally decide to deport the child of a deportee where –

- (i) he and his mother are living apart from the deportee, or
- (ii) he has spent some years in the Bailiwick of Guernsey and is nearing the age of 18, or
- (iii) he has left home and established himself on an independent basis, or

Paragraph 368.

368. Where the Lieutenant Governor decides that it would be appropriate to deport a member of a family as such, the decision will be notified and it will at the same time be explained that it is open to the member of the family to leave the country voluntarily.

369-372. {Not used}

A deportation order made on the recommendation of a Court.

373. Although there is no appeal against the making of a deportation order, where a deportation order is made on the recommendation of a court there is a right of appeal to a higher court against the recommendation itself. An order may not be made while it is still open to the person to appeal against the relevant conviction, sentence or recommendation, or while an appeal is pending.

374-384. {Not used}

Arrangements for removal.

385. A person against whom a deportation order has been made will normally be removed from the Bailiwick of Guernsey. The power is to be exercised so as to secure the person's return to the country of which he is a national, or which has most recently provided him with a travel document, unless he can show that another country will receive him. In considering any departure from the normal arrangements, regard will be had to the public interest generally, and to any additional expense that may fall on public funds.

386. {Not used}

387. {Not used}

Returned deportees.

388. Where a person returns to the Bailiwick of Guernsey when a deportation order is in force against him, he may be deported under the original order. The Lieutenant Governor will consider every such case in the light of all the relevant circumstances before deciding whether to enforce the order.

Returned family members.

389. Persons deported in the circumstances set out in paragraphs 365-368 above (deportation of family members) may be able to seek re admission to the Bailiwick of Guernsey under the Immigration Rules where –

- (i) a child reaches 18 (when he ceases to be subject to the deportation order), or
- (ii) in the case of a [spouse], the marriage comes to an end.

NOTE

In paragraph 389, the word "spouse" in square brackets was substituted for the word "wife" by, first (in relation to Guernsey), the Same-Sex Marriage (Consequential and Miscellaneous Amendments and Contrary Provisions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2017, section 1, Schedule 1, Part III, paragraph 20(b), with effect from 2nd May, 2017, second (in relation to Alderney), by the Same-Sex Marriage (Consequential and Miscellaneous Amendments and Contrary Provisions) (Alderney) Ordinance, 2018, section 1, Schedule 1, Part III, paragraph 20(b), with effect from 14th June, 2018 and, third (in relation to Sark), the Same-Sex Marriage (Consequential and Miscellaneous Amendments and Contrary Provisions) (Sark) Ordinance, 2020, section 1, Schedule 1, paragraph 7(b), with effect from 23rd April, 2020.

Revocation of deportation order.

390. An application for revocation of a deportation order will be considered in the light of all the circumstances including the following –

- (i) the grounds on which the order was made,

- (ii) any representations made in support of revocation,
- (iii) the interests of the community, including the maintenance of an effective immigration control,
- (iv) the interests of the applicant, including any compassionate circumstances.

Paragraph 390A.

[390A. Where paragraph 398 applies, the Lieutenant Governor will consider whether paragraph 399 or 399A applies and, if it does not, it will only be in exceptional circumstances that the public interest in maintaining the deportation order will be outweighed by other factors.]

NOTE

Paragraph 390A of these Rules was inserted by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2015, paragraph 1, Schedule, with effect from 1st June, 2015, subject to the transitional and savings provisions in paragraph 2 of the 2015 Rules.

Paragraph 391.

[391. In the case of a person who has been deported following conviction for a criminal offence, the continuation of a deportation order against that person will be the proper course –

- (i) in the case of a conviction for an offence for which the person was sentenced to a period of imprisonment of less than 4 years, unless 10 years have elapsed since the making of the deportation order, or
- (ii) in the case of a conviction for an offence for which the person was sentenced to a period of imprisonment of at least 4 years, at any time, unless, in either case, the continuation would be contrary to the Human Rights Convention or the United Nations Convention and Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees, or there are other exceptional circumstances that mean the continuation is outweighed by compelling factors.]

NOTE

Paragraph 391 of these Rules was substituted by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2015, paragraph 1, Schedule, with effect from 1st June, 2015, subject to the transitional and savings provisions in paragraph 2 of the 2015 Rules.

Paragraph 391A.

[391A. In other cases, revocation of a deportation order will not normally be authorised unless the situation has been materially altered, either by a change of circumstances since the order was made, or by fresh information coming to light which was not before the Lieutenant Governor. The passage of time since the person was deported may also in itself amount to such a change of circumstances as to warrant revocation of the order.]

NOTE

Paragraph 391A of these Rules was inserted by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2015, paragraph 1, Schedule, with effect from 1st June, 2015, subject to the transitional and savings provisions in paragraph 2 of the 2015 Rules.

Paragraph 392.

392. Revocation of a deportation order does not entitle the person concerned to re-enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey; it renders him eligible to apply for admission under the Rules. Application for revocation of the order may be made to the Entry Clearance Officer or direct to the Immigration and Nationality Division of the States of Guernsey.

393-395. {Not used}

Administrative Removal.

395A. A person is now liable to administrative removal in certain circumstances in which he would, prior to 29th November, 2004, have been liable to deportation.

395B. These circumstances are set out in section 10 of [the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999]. They are –

- (i) failure to comply with a condition attached to his leave to enter or remain, or remaining beyond the time limited by the leave,
- (ii) where the person has obtained leave to remain by deception, and
- (iii) where the person is the spouse or child under 18 of someone in respect of whom directions for removal have been given under section 10.

- (iii) strengths of connections with the Bailiwick of Guernsey,
- (iv) personal history, including character, conduct and employment record,

395D. No one shall be removed under section 10 if his removal would be contrary to the United Kingdom's obligations under the Convention and Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees or under the Human Rights Convention.

Procedure.

395E. When directions for a person's removal under section 10 have been given, a notice will be given to the person concerned informing him of the decision.

395F. Following the issue of such a notice an Immigration Officer may authorise detention or make an order restricting a person as to residence, employment or occupation and requiring him to report to the Police or an Immigration Officer, pending the removal.

Paragraph 396.

[396. Where a person is liable to deportation the presumption shall be that the public interest requires deportation.]

NOTE

Paragraph 396 of these Rules was inserted by the Immigration (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Rules, 2015, paragraph 1, Schedule, with effect from 1st June, 2015, subject to the transitional and savings provisions in paragraph 2 of the 2015 Rules.

Paragraph 397.

[397. A deportation order will not be made if the person's removal pursuant to the order would be contrary to the Bailiwick of Guernsey's obligations under the Human Rights Convention or the United Nations Convention and Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees. Where deportation would not be contrary to these obligations, it will only be in exceptional circumstances that the public interest in deportation is outweighed.]

398. Where a person claims that their deportation would be contrary to the Bailiwick of Guernsey's obligations under Article 8 of the Human Rights Convention, and –

- (iii) the deportation of the person from the Bailiwick of Guernsey is conducive to the public good because, in the view of the Lieutenant Governor, that person's offending has caused serious harm or that person is a persistent offender who shows a particular disregard for the law, the Lieutenant Governor in assessing that claim will consider whether paragraph 399 or 399A applies and, if it does not, it will only be in exceptional circumstances that the public interest in deportation will be outweighed by other factors.]

Such leave shall be given subject to such conditions as the Lieutenant Governor deems appropriate. Where a person who has previously been granted a period of leave under paragraph 399B would not fall for refusal under paragraph 322(1C), indefinite leave to remain may be granted.]

Where a person claims that their removal under paragraphs 8 to 10 of Schedule 2 to the Immigration Act 1971, section 10 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 or section 47 of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 would be contrary to the Bailiwick of Guernsey's obligations under Article 8 of the Human Rights Convention, the Lieutenant Governor may require an application under paragraph 276ADE (private life). Where an application is not required, in assessing that claim the Lieutenant Governor or an immigration officer will, subject to paragraph 353, consider that claim against the requirements to be met under paragraph 276ADE and if appropriate the removal decision will be cancelled.]

Paragraphs 1-4.

1. Nothing in these Rules shall be construed as permitting a person to be granted entry clearance, leave to enter, leave to remain or variation of leave as a spouse of another if either the applicant or the sponsor will be aged under 18 on the date of arrival in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or (as the case may be) on the date on which the leave to remain or variation of leave would be granted.

2. Nothing in these Rules shall be construed as allowing a person to be granted entry clearance, leave to enter, leave to remain or variation of leave as the spouse of a man or woman ("the sponsor") if –

- (a) his or her marriage to the sponsor is polygamous, and
- (b) there is another person living who is the husband or wife of the sponsor and who –
 - (i) is, or at any time since his or her marriage to the sponsor has been, in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, or
 - (ii) has been granted a certificate of entitlement in respect of the right of abode mentioned in section 2(1)(a) of the Immigration Act 1988 or an entry clearance to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey as the husband or wife of the sponsor.

For the purpose of this paragraph a marriage may be polygamous although at its inception neither party had any other spouse.

3. Paragraph 2 of this Appendix does not apply to any person who seeks entry clearance, leave to enter, leave to remain or variation of leave where –

- (a) he or she has been in the Bailiwick of Guernsey before 1st

4. For the purposes of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Appendix, the presence of any wife or husband in the Bailiwick of Guernsey in any of the following circumstances shall be disregarded –

- (a) as a visitor, or

SPECIFIED DOCUMENTS

Paragraphs 4.1–4.15.

4.2 The decision maker will only consider evidence submitted after the date on which an application is made where the circumstances in paragraph 4.3 or paragraph 4.6 of this Appendix apply.

4.3 Where an applicant –

the decision maker may contact the applicant or his or her representative (in writing or otherwise), and request the document or the correct version of the document. The document must be received by the Immigration and Nationality Division of the States of Guernsey at the address specified in the request within such time (which will not be unreasonable) as is specified.

4.4 A decision maker may decide not to request a document under paragraph 4.3 where he does not anticipate that the supply of that document will lead to a grant of leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey because the application may be refused for other reasons.

4.5 Without prejudice to the decision maker's discretion under paragraph 4.3 of this Appendix and also his right in all cases to request the original or specified document and refuse an application in circumstances in which they are not provided, where an applicant submits a specified document –

 - (iii) the website of the appropriate regulatory body, the application for leave to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey may be granted exceptionally providing the decision maker is satisfied that the specified documents are genuine and that the applicant meets all the other requirements.

4.6 Where the decision maker is satisfied that there is a valid reason why a document has not been and cannot be supplied, (for example, because the document has been permanently lost or destroyed), he may waive the requirement for the document to be provided or may instead request alternative or additional evidence (which may include confirmation of evidence from the organisation which issued the original document).

4.7 The document required to be provided to prove the matters in paragraph 2.2 of this Appendix is –

4.8 Subject to paragraphs 4.9 and 4.10 of this Appendix, where a provision of these Rules requires an applicant for leave to enter or remain to prove that the applicant is a national of a country (for example, as a condition to be met), a valid passport or travel document which satisfactorily establishes the applicant's nationality must be provided.

4.9 If the applicant cannot provide the applicant's passport or travel document, other evidence of nationality of the type described in paragraph 4.10 of this Appendix may exceptionally be supplied in the following circumstances (the reason for which must be indicated by the applicant on their application form), where –
